DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VI. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 6, 1873. NO. 295.

ONLY A WOMAN'S HEART.

Only a woman's heart, wherein
You have trod in your careless haste—
A thing at best that was easy won;
What matter how dearly it waste
Her life may be in future years!
What matters it—do not start,
It is only the sound of dropping tears
Wrung out of a broken heart.

It has lost its worth, for it cost you naught
But a honeyed word and a smile;
Was the fault not hers if she may have thought
You were truer than truth the while?
What if the weeds of a life-long woe,
From its crushed shrine may upstart?
It lies at your feet in the dust so low,
And 'tis only a woman's heart.

Only a heart to be th own away,
With the recklessness of a boy,
Who, careless of pleasure and weary of play,
Would throw down a broken toy.
The world is fair and the world is wide,
And there's more in this busy mart;
Throw conscience aside and nurse your pride,
It's only a woman's heart.

Aye! powerless e'en is your boasted will
To vanquish the ghost of sin!
Thus did it speak—thus speaks it still,
Through the voice of your soul within;
In the drama of one life you know
You have acted a villain's part;
For you struck a hard and a cruel blow,
And it fell on a loving heart.

Only a woman's heart! Ah well!
Dare you say it was naught to you
Whether that heart was as false as hell
Or as heaven itself as true?
You may bur the thought to your selfish breast
That you're skilled in deception's art,
But I brand you thief for the peace and rest
That you stole from that woman's heart.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Failed.

ST. LOUIS, 5.—Stirling Price & Co., commission merchants, have made an assignment, and their business will be settled up; the house was founded by Stirling Price, the rebel general.

Democrat Elected.

DETROIT, 5.—Comstock, Democrat, was elected to Congress in the fifth district by two hundred majority.

Big Fire.

HARRISBURG, 5.—B. F. Singerley's state printing, and the State Journal offices, five stories high, were entirely destroyed by fire to-day; the operatives barely escaped with their lives, and it is reported that several lives were lost. Loss $100,000. No insurance. The loss of the State Journal office is not yet known. Two or three small frame buildings were also burned, and the Lochiel House was somewhat damaged.

Republican Majority.

NEWARK, 5.—Both the senate and house of New Jersey will be Republican, the former's majority is seven, the latter's four or five. The Republican majority in the house last year was thirty.

Departure of Nurses.

MEMPHIS, 5.—The nurses in the employ of the Odd Fellows were escorted to the depot this morning, on their departure to their homes in New Orleans, by the Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and members of the press. In the procession nearly the entire membership of both orders were participants.

Burned.

MILWAUKEE, 5.—The chair factory at the Milwaukee house of correction, was burned to-night; loss $30,000.

Dead.

RICHMOND, Va., 5.—Right Rev. Jno. Early, bishop of the M. E. church, died to-day at Lynchburg, aged 88.

Five Mile Race.

CHICAGO, 5.—The five mile trotting race at Dexter Park, to-day, for a purse of five hundred dollars, between Simpson's mare "Nourmahal," and Bickey's "Lady Mace" was a lame affair, and was witnessed by very few people, "Nourmahal" winning easily in 13,39

Reduced-Three-quarter Time.

BOSTON, 5.—On Monday next the Eastern railroad company, will reduce the hours of labor and the pay 20 per cent.

A meeting of the representatives of the Lowell mills has been held to consider the best course to pursue in view of the present depression. These mills employ about 20,000 hands, and operate half a million spindles, and about 11,000 looms. It was voted to begin at once to run on three-quarter time and to continue that until the condition of affairs changes.

Reception to Arch.

Joseph Arch had a reception this evening by the various labor organizations. Wendell Phillips and Ben Butler were present. The latter made a characteristic speech as a working man.

The Tweed Case—Shanks Discharged.

NEW YORK, 5.—Tweed appeared in the Court of Over and Terminer to-day, and when the case was called, ex-Judge Fullerton said, before any proceedings were taken, he should hand in a paper to which the associated counsel for the prisoner had agreed. The paper is understood to be a protest against Judge Davis presiding at the trial, and when it was read by him it seemed to excite his surprise and indignation. He characterized the paper as extraordinary and, in part, untrue, but declined to point out any particular passage as objectionable. Mr. Bartlett, of the counsel for the defense, then said that if Judge Davis was a man from Keokuk they would take the same course. A recess was then taken that Judge Davis might consult his associates.

After recess Judge Davis announced that he should take no action on the untruthful and extraordinary paper presented by Tweed's counsel, and ordered the case to proceed, sharply checking Graham and Bartlett, who desired to argue the point. After examining a juror and satisfying him, and when examining the second one, Tweed's counsel claimed that as under the law the court was acting as a trier of jurors, it should take the oath formally prescribed for triers. Judge Davis stated it was no new thing for a judge to be a trier. The counsel contended against the judge, but without any decision on this novel point the court adjourned till to-morrow. It is understood that the paper contains the protest against Judge Davis presiding, on the grounds that he is prejudiced against the accused since the last trial, and that he is personally hostile to him.

Shanks, the city editor of the Tribune, was discharged from arrest to-day.

The Pension Roll.

WASHINGTON, 5.—From the report of the commissioner of pensions it appears that 10,404 new pensioners were admitted to the pension rolls during the last fiscal year, and 10,329 names dropped, giving a net increase in the number of pensioners of 6,182, making a grand total of pensioners of all classes, of 238,411. The total amount of the pension rolls, June 30, 1873, was $39,529,296, total disbursements, in addition to this amount $2,926,000 paid to agents and surgeons, and for other purposes.

Striking Bricklayers—Aid for Memphis—Total Vote.

About a thousand men joined the bricklayers' strike to-day, and work is stopped on several large buildings.

Brooklyn, yesterday, raised two thousand for Memphis.

The total vote of this city was 101,995. Some old democratic counties, which had always cast a solid democratic vote, went republican, and vice versa.

FOREIGN.

AUSTRIA.

Parliament Opened.

VIENNA, 5.—The sessions of the Reichsrath was opened this a.m. by the Emperor in person. The Emperor's speech was pacific in its reference to foreign powers, and contained no other matter of special interest.

PRUSSIA.

Liberals Gain.

BERLIN, 5.—In the elections just held for deputies to the Prussian Diet, the liberals gained fifty seats.

GREAT BRITAIN.

French Ministry Resigned.

LONDON, 5.—A special telegram from Paris to the London Times, says the French ministry have resigned, reserving, however, the right of reconstruction.

FRANCE.

Bazaine's Trial.

PARIS, 5.—At Bazaine's trial, today, Count Polika, Napoleon's last minister, testified in regard to his acts while in office. He accepted the responsibility of the march on Sedan. He admitted that he received in Paris, a dispatch from Bazaine, but he did not notify MacMahon of it, as he believed the marshal was already aware of its contents.

The National Assembly met today, at Versailles. President MacMahon sent a message to the Assembly, which was read. The message begins with congratulations on the liberation of the territory and the maintenance of order, and continues as follows—

"Europe is assured that we are firmly resolved to preserve peace, therefore, without fear sees us resume possession of our territory. The administration has always acted in the conservative spirit which animates the great majority of the Assembly, and from which I never depart. The agitation of the public mind received intensity as the period of your re-assembling approached, because it was requisite to discuss bills which necessarily involve the question of the form of the government. I had neither to intervene in these discussions, nor to forestall your sovereign decision, but merely to confine the former within legal limits, and to provide that the latter should be respected. Your power, therefore, is entirely free; nothing can impede its exercise. Perhaps, however, you may think that in the present situation, with party feeling so strong, the establishing of any definite form of government presents serious difficulties, and that it would be more prudent to maintain existing institutions. If so, permit me, elected to an honor which I did not seek, to tell you frankly my opinion. To thoroughly insure the public peace the government absolutely lacks two things essential to conditions of efficiency. It has neither sufficient vitality nor authority. If the rights of the government are being questioned, with its powers liable to be changed at any moment, it can secure peace to-day and safety to-morrow. Great undertakings are impossible, industry languishes, we are unable to restore that confidence abroad which is necessary to the restoration of the greatness of the nation. The government lacks authority, for it is unable even to obtain obedience from its own agents, or to repress excesses of journals which are corrupting the public mind. You will consider these dangers and create a strong, durable executive, which can energetically defend society."

The deputies of the right warmly received the message, and they moved that executive power be conferred on Marshal MacMahon for ten years, that the present form of government be continued until the constitution is voted upon, and that a committee of thirty be appointed to examine bills.

Baron Eschasseraux moved that the people be called upon to decide, on the 4th of January, 1874, whether a republican or imperial form of government shall be adopted. The baron demanded that the motion of the Right be declared urgent.

The Duke de Broglie, on the part of the government, supported the demand for urgency.

Duffaure said the Assembly, at its last session, had ordered that bills organizing the executive and legislative power should be discussed within a month after recess, notwithstanding this the government now supported the motion, which it proposed to deal separately with, and thereby postpone the question on the message. He concluded by moving that all motions, together with constitutional bills, be referred to the same committee. The declaration of urgency for the motion of Eschasseraux was demanded, and was supported by Thiers and the Left, but was defeated.

Grevy, in a speech supporting Duffaure's motion, denied the right of the Assembly to confer on the government a longer term of power than it possessed itself. He expressed the belief that the Right really wished to defer the consideration of constitutional bills indefinitely.

Gourraud declared he was sincere in his intention to bring them to discussion. Duffaure's motion was rejected by a vote of 362 to 348.

Carlist Victory.

BAYONNE, 5.—Zeferal Lonis, a republican commander, was defeated by the Carlists on Saturday last.

Ex-Senator Charles Maclay, of Santa Clara, sold a lot of property (some $30,000 worth) in San Jose on Saturday, and has started on an exploring expedition to Fresno. It is said he is looking for a site to plant a colony of San Jose people; is bent on dividing the State, with Los Angeles for the capital, or to join hands with Brigham at Great Salt Lake.—S. F. Chronicle, Nov. 1.
