HEAVY STEEL ON O. S. L.

The Short Line's trucking crew that for several months past has been relaying the track between Salt Lake and McCammon, got in to the latter place Monday. Eighty pound rail has been put in the short distance and the new steel in the yards at McCammon.

Senator Fred T. Dubois is to lecture at the Baptist church here next Saturday evening. The lecture will consist of an account of the senator's trip to the Orient, as a member of the Taft party.

WARD CONFERENCE.

The Pocatello ward conference convened here Sunday last with Bishop Milo A. Hendricks presiding. The ward was reported as being in a good condition.

A vacancy exists in the Relief society due to the removal of Relief Council.

ANOTHER TRIBUNE LIE NAILED AT BLACKFOOT.

(Special to the "News.")

BLACKFOOT, Nov. 17.—Considerable astonishment is expressed in Blackfoot at the report printed in the Tribune, which states that immediately after the Salt Lake City election, non-Mormon employees of the sugar factory in Blackfoot were discharged. Nothing more contemptible and dastardly has appeared in the Tribune for a long time past, which is saying a great deal, and the general belief in Blackfoot is that the article was deliberately manufactured in the Tribune office, since every one in Blackfoot knows it is an absolute falsehood.

The facts are that the Blackfoot sugar plant ground up its beets in the time expected, and that not a change was made in its working forces until the beets were disposed of, when the customary layoff of employees took place. The factory is still working about 50 men on the Osmose process. The manager, Mr. Munroe, is the same one who came from the east to run the factory before it was bought by the people, and it is safe to say that he has never thought of inquiring into the religious beliefs of the men who are working under him.

Nels Sorensen, a laborer on the new bridge, fell from the structure into the river below, and came near being drowned this week. His fellow workmen, however, finally succeeded in getting him out. It was found that two ribs were broken, and his head and shoulders seriously bruised. Dr. Mitchell reduced the fractures, and at this writing he is resting easily.

Senator Fred T. Dubois gave a lecture at his home town Wednesday evening on China, Japan and the Philippines. Hancks Opera House was crowded, and the lecture was entirely satisfactory.

Rev. Frank C. Brewer, pastor of the Oakwood's Union church, Chicago, gave a lecture at Armory hall Nov. 16. He is a pleasing and instructive orator, and his love story of "Uncle Billy and Aunt Harriet" delighted the large audience.

"Midnight in Chinatown" was well received here Monday night. Don C. Walker has been appointed field superintendent of the S. R. V. Sugar Co., over the territory on the east side of Snake river, between Blackfoot and Idaho Falls.

Mr. Smith of Lehi, Utah, has charge of the territory on the west side of the river. Both gentlemen are well known in this valley, and are men of long experience in the cultivation of sugar beets. They are now canvassing their respective territories, assisting the farmers in selecting and preparing their soil for next year's crop.

O. Buchanan of this place has been appointed local manager of the Studebaker Co., to succeed H. D. Brown.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE.

DOWIE SAYS HE'S DYING.

Gloom is over the congregation in Shiloh tabernacle, Zion City, since a message was read last week from the first apostle, dated at Victoria, Mexico, in which he admits he is far from well and fears another and fatal stroke of paralysis. All previous messages have borne news of Dowie's improvement and this is the first that he has told of a setback. Dowie wired in part: "Pray that your leader may be spared to accomplish this great work. I am not so well as I have been, though I have been able to be around. I feared the worst for a while, expected any moment another stroke of paralysis, but thank God, who in His infinite mercy has again spared me. Our return trip will be made via New York. Nov. 14 is the date set for departure. I ask you again to pray for me and for Zion's future. Pray that I may live. Mizpah. "FIRST APOSTLE."

fittingly celebrated last Friday. Among the honored visitors were Prof. J. H. Paul, Miss Emily Larson of Salt Lake, Prof. McKimmon and a portion of his guitar club of Logan, each one furnishing interesting numbers on the program. The party in the evening was crowded beyond comfort, making a social as well as financial success.

The Passion play, a keneticoscopic entertainment, was to have been given Monday night at the academy. A large audience gathered to witness it, but through some defect in the machine all were disappointed. The manager gave them the promise of returning Tuesday, the 20th.

EARTHQUAKE AT MALAD CITY.

Special Correspondence.

MALAD CITY, Nov. 17.—Malad City was shaken by an earthquake Saturday. It was most forcible in the northern part of town. Many were frightened at the unusual commotion among flower pots and dishes.

While having a social glass and chat, Mr. Dees of Weston accidentally shot a Mr. Johnson of Malad with an automatic gun. It seems that Mr. Dees had been shooting with his new gun, and when putting it in his pocket it was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering Mr. Johnson's left side, and out through his right. Dr. Ray says that the patient, if careful, will recover.

Mr. P. O. Brantner is very ill from spinal trouble. The funeral of Mr. Thomas M. Thomas was held Tuesday from the tabernacle. The speakers were Patrick John Reynolds, Jenkin Jones, James P. Harrison, St. John, Arthur Weiling and Mr. Peterson of Logan. From the tabernacle to the cemetery 105 teams, the longest cortege ever seen in the valley, followed the remains to their last resting place.

From 2 p. m. until 5, all business houses were closed, all traffic ceased, and the town seemed shrouded in gloom. Another notable feature of the respect and esteem held for Mr. Thomas was that the public school children all marched in double file into the gallery, where perfect order was maintained. Hundreds of people gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to such a good, kind and affectionate man.

Mr. Thomas was born in Brigham City March 8, 1857. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Thomas. In 1886 he moved to Malad City, where he was engaged in the mercantile business. He was married in 1884. On Nov. 10 he passed away at the L. D. S. hospital at Salt Lake City. He leaves a wife and three children, father, mother, two brothers and a sister, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

He had been engaged in business in Malad City for twenty-seven years, and a more genial, honest and accommodating merchant could not be found.

SHEEP WAR DUE IN TETON BASIN.

Special Correspondence.

S. T. ANTHONY, Nov. 15.—There is a section of country over in the Teton basin that may have to be regulated by the strong arm of the law one of these days. Recently the state leased several thousand acres of school land in that section to a sheepman, but the lease is being held up. It is said, pending the decision of the citizens of that part of the country, who are engaged in the cattle industry, as to whether or not they desire to lease the land. Should they so desire the land will go to them; otherwise, the sheepmen will take the lease. It is stated the cattlemen have come to the conclusion that they do not want the land, and neither do they propose to have it occupied by the sheepmen.

A gentleman who has the land leased, in case the cattlemen do not take it as offered them, was heard to remark this morning that he proposes to use the same for the purpose of grazing his flock of sheep there, well knowing that the effort will mean trouble, but he is of the belief that the state will back him in his efforts to control the land.

The feeling against sheepmen is very bitter in that section, and only a few years ago a whole band of sheep were killed by irate cattlemen on the owner of the sheep, driving them to that section. Only last week Peter Hanson lost his sheep camp by burning. Once an effort is made to stock that particular section with sheep, trouble is certain to ensue.

BRIEFLETS FROM OAKLEY, IDAHO.

Special Correspondence.

OAKLEY, Ida., Nov. 17.—Last Friday was parents' day at the district school. There was a large attendance of parents and patrons.

After a short program, light refreshments were served; and then the visitors examined some of the school work. Speeches, advocating a new school building for Oakley, were received with great enthusiasm.

H. W. Tucker, Sr., and wife have come to Oakley to spend the winter. President W. T. Jack and L. W. Robbins left Oakley for Carey on Friday at noon.

The academy is in a flourishing condition. Faculty and students are in perfect accord, and all goes well. The Oakley turkeys are viewing with suspicion the attention they are receiving of late. Many of them are already making their wills.

A. A. Tanner, watermaster, has returned from Sacramento, Cal. It is reported that Dame Nature gave Oakley a shaking up last Saturday. Many citizens claim to have felt a severe shock of earthquake.

WEEKLY GOSSIP FROM PRESTON.

Special Correspondence.

PRESTON, Ida., Nov. 16.—Exceptionally fine weather continues. School boards here have been ordered by the board of health to send all children home who are suspected of exposure to whooping cough.

Through the carelessness of some farmers the disease has taken quite a sweep, necessitating strict quarantine measures.
