WALKER'S VICTORY.—The contestants in the men's foot race, which was won by the Salt Lake club, were followed by foot races. Messrs. Mat Walker and H. McEwan ran 100 yards, the former coming in first.

Mr. Orme beat the others easily. One of his throws measured 97 yards.

THE FOURTH.—Yesterday passed off very quietly. The day was observed as a general holiday by nearly all classes, and flags floated gallantly from all the principal buildings.

CARELESS SHOOTING.—Mr. M. J. Sneider handed in the following, with a request to publish it:

SALT LAKE CITY, July 5th, 1872. Editor Deseret News: Yesterday morning, between seven and eight o'clock, I was busily engaged in the office of a bullet, which passed near me.

When firing a gun or pistol from five degrees and upwards towards level ground, the bullet will glide and pass on with its full velocity, and parties not accustomed to the use of fire arms should be extremely cautious.

From the preceding it appears that the writer of the letter, with portions of the families of Messrs. Taylor and Neimore had a very narrow escape from danger and death.

When firing a gun or pistol from five degrees and upwards towards level ground, the bullet will glide and pass on with its full velocity, and parties not accustomed to the use of fire arms should be extremely cautious.

Special Notices.
