JEROME LEADS RAIDS ON GAMBLING HOUSES

New York, March 20.—Resuming for the time being his custom of several yours ago, Dist. Atty, William Tra-vers Jerome conducted two raids on alleged gambling houses on the East side at midnight last night. It was by these raids that Mr. Jerome gained fame in former years. The houses entered last night are at 123 Second avenue and Thirty-eighth East Sev-ents street. Seven mea were arrested in the first house, but in the second catabilishment no prisoners were taken. If is said that Mr. Jerome decided to make the raid because attempts had been made to tribe an attache of his office to "Up off" the houses after the proprietor had promised some little time ago to obey the law. At the second avenus house, it is alleged, is the one ti at was protected by an electrified door when it was taided some time ago. New York, March 20 .- Resuming for STATES AND STATES

After an hour of orstory, Minister of Public Works Barthou mounted the critisme and pathed the gravity of the situation and the impossibility of the soveriment yielding to the employes. The minister said the government wills always willing to discuss the grive-sinces of the employes but that to treat with them upon a footing of equality would be the commencement or paininistrative anartory. Neverther-less, he indicated that it was the government's desite to leave the door open for the employes to return to duty.

Much applause greeted M. Barthou's speech, which was ordered placarded throughout France.
