AMERICAN. WIRED FROM WASHINGTON. Desert Land Case-Cabinet Meeting

The Surplus, etc. WASHINGTON, 10 .- In the case of the desert hand entry of Charles F. Wil-kins from the Los Angeles district of California, the Secretary of the Interfor has decided that the lands within the limits of the executive order of withdrawal of August 25, 1877, for the benefit of the Mission Indians, though then covered by a prima facia valid entry, were, on the cancellation of such entry, reserved by said order of withdrawal from other appropriation. Elly May Pavey, the widow of the late Dr. Pavey, Surgeon of the Greeley Arctic Expedition, has donated to the National Museum the Specimens collected by her husband on his trip to the Arctic regions, thus showing that the government recognizes her as the lawul widow, Col. Morrison's attention was called to-day to the statement in a New York paper that the President and his Cabi-net have decided upon a Treasury polcy substantially the same as provided n the late surplus resolution which he President rejected. Morrison is imphatic in his declaration that he did

t believe it. "Why didu't Mr. Cleveland approv resolution if he felt that way?" he Your correspondent gave it up. Being asked if he would introduce a similar neasure at the next session, Morrison replied that December was too far shead for him to say what he would do. At the Treasury Department nothing is known regarding the reported intention to carry out the Morrison litea. Those who know the President's views best say that he is unutterably opposed to the principle of the resolution, and that it is absurd to say he will adopt it. The bond calls will continue to be made just as the condion of the Treasury from time to time will justify, according to the rules hitherto observed.

Washington, 10.—It is stated at the Was and Navy Departments to-day, that while the fighting branches of the government are in their customary condition of readiness for action, of-fensive or defensive, the present diffi-culties with Mexico are at present the exclusive concern of the diplomatic branch, and that novements of troops or vessels have not yet been ordered with a view to possible warfare. At the State Department it is said there is nothing new which it would be proper to make public at p esent, but that there is still no reason to doubt an amicable adjustment of the Cutting affair. It is unofficially learned that a correspondence is now in progress which is expected to bring about a itefluite result of some kind within a lew days, and that the direct object sought to be accomplished by this government is the release of Cutting.
City of Mexico, 10 —The news of the sentence of Cutting was received here without surprise, but it is not generally believed that he will serve out his sentence. The leading newspapers are discussing the case in its legal aspects and with no excitement.

The Forum, the daily organ of the legal fraternity of the capital, has a long article on the case, citing many other similar cases and a long array of local optnions, coming to the conclu-sion that Mexico stands on sound legal profinds. Signor Diaz Nueve, a sup-porter of the administration, takes the same view and urges that both gov-ernments adhere to the spirit of the treaty of Guardualupe Hidalgo, which in its twenty-first article provides for a careful and amicable adjustment of Il questions of difference in a spirit of good neighborship.

Et Paso, 13.—There are no new changes to night in the Cutting imbroglio. Both sides of the river are quiet, and awaiting forther developments from their respective capitols, both State and National. It is reported that many Mexican troops are en-deavoring to desert, but their officers watch them very closely. El Paso has three volunteer companies fully armed and equipped with the best improved fire-arms, contributed by local merchants. Vicksburg, 10.—A permanent organization of the Mexican war committee was effected here to-night for the pur-dead one hour would revive. Life was apparently extinct until the expiration of the hour, when she began to show signs of life. She soon gained sufficient strength to get up, whereupon she went to the door and began preaching, stating that she had been to heaven and saw God and sang with the angels. appeared to her in the tonacto patch and commanded her to warn the wicked to fice from the wrath to come, which she did not do and God sent a judgment on her for disobedience. Her talking continued from five in the evening this mi night. Since the above statement appears a correspondent of the Fayet e Journal contradicted it, stating that her pulse heat regularly and her preaching was an idle prattling.

By private letter to Elder Campbell from Mississippi, we learn that a woman residing in Pontotoc Co., of that State claims to have had a revelation to squelch 'Mormonism.' She succeeded in breaking up a meeting and a Sunday school. There is strong talk of her being reported to the grand jury on a charge of being non compos mentis. It is claimed by some that this is in fulfillment of the second chapter of the Prophet Joel.

Harry Stever, the twelve-year old son of Farmer Delos Stever, of Toby-hanna, was sent after the cows last Monday, about sundown. He had to go down the road and through a lane more than half a mile from the house. When milking time came the cows had not arrived, and Farmer Stever, who had just driven home from the village, started toward the pasture in search of them. On his way through the lane he

Farmer Stever harried toward the spot, yelling "Harry!" with all his might he pasture he saw the cartle, with their heads and tailing and many revolvers of the type called "Sweet-hearts."

"Here I be, pa, up this 'ere tree. A bear's killin' one o' the calves, and I had to git up here out o' the way," said Harry from his safe perch among the himbs of a small tree.

In the center of the ring of cows Farmer Stever found things just as Harry had told him. A hig bear had come into the field, seized a small call, and crushed it to death just as Harry was about to start the cattle for home. The lad climbed up the tree and the cows began to bellow. When Farmer Stever rushed in among the noisy herd the bear was eating the calf as fast as he could. Farmer Stever excitedly sprang forward and kicked the bear in the side. He regretted it a momen later, for the hungry animal turned upon him and nearly broke one of his arms with a blow from one of his bl paws. The farmer immediately took to his heels, and after growling savagely his meal.
