THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

Important Measure Will Not Reach Governor Before Tonight.

The governor today had taken no action towards eliminating items from the appropriation bill, and just where he will draw down expenditures to the required basis is not yet apparent. Considerable fear has been manifest in University circles that the $15,000 for the gymnasium would be among the amounts to be chopped off. Alumni to-day in discussing the matter said that they regarded the situation as particu-larly unfortunate, but expressed their faith to be done to the woney. It is not larly unfortunate, but expressed their faith in holding to the money. It is not expected that this item will pay the cost of a gymnasium, but merely of the walls and a temporary roof. There is a probability that the alumni will call a meeting and attempt to raise by sub-costating and attempt to raise by subactivities and attempt to react the site of set of activities and attempt to react a building that would be permanently useful and comparable with the other University buildings.
