READY FOR A STRUGGLE

Gen. Llanos Must Surrender Today or Tomorrow
Shafter Will Advance.

REASONABLE HOPE FOR SURRENDER.

Position of the Transports-Dipping of
Cervera and His Officers-That Spanish
Prize Report.

Washington, July 8.—Conditions at Santiago are regarded as favorable for a surrender, according to Gen. Shafter's dispatch received during the forenoon. The report prevails that the Spanish fleet are in a desperate plight within the walls of the city, and Gen. Shafter's action is believed to be in accordance with the facts. There is at least a reasonable hope that the Spanish fleet will surrender.

However that may be, every preparation is making for a final engagement. The fleet is ordered to move forward, and the Spanish fleet is expected to arrive at any moment. The Spanish fleet is expected to arrive at any moment.
