The Rev. James Richardson, while descending on the duty of fornication and the curse of an evil temper, related a legend of an oriental household who were tormented with an evil spirit, to avoid which they moved to a new house.
When they arrived the master entered the house and said, "Are we all here?"
And the little lamp jumped out of the house and said, "Yes, we are all here."
