THE REASONS WHY DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is preferred to any other Baking Powder in market, are owing to its perfect purity, quality, quantity, and economy. The ingredients are strictly free from deleterious substances, and hence the full strength of each is obtained, and the results are uniform every time it is used. This cannot be the case in those of ordinary manufacture, and for proof of our assertion we simply ask those who have never used DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER to give it a trial. Your Grocer keeps it. Meetings.—Religious services in the various Ward meeting-houses to-morrow afternoon and evening.

Quiet.—City police business is very quiet just now. Generally "calm before a storm" in such matters.

Lots of Deer.—In front of Louis Stiel's place is a row of fine deer, just in from the South, where the animals are very plentiful.

Notice.—The superintendents and teachers of Sunday Schools will hold their usual monthly meeting at the City Hall on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Woman's Exponent for Dec. 1 contains "Woman's Record," "Good Manners by Prescription," "Song of the R. S. Sisters," "R. S. Reports," "A House of Your Own," "Something to Live For," "Floral Hints," "The Fisherman's Home," "Parental Duties," various "Hints" and "Notes," etc.

Material Developments.—At Smithfield, Cache County, a tannery is in operation, the capacity of which is soon to be enlarged; arrangements are in progress for the establishment of a woolen factory at Logan and a broom factory at Millville, and Hyrum is going ahead of every part of the Territory in the matter of the production of lumber. Thus by each settlement having a form of industry peculiar to itself, when those things are in full operation, the people of Cache Valley will have laid an excellent foundation for material prosperity and independence.

Bound Over.—This morning Charles and Nellie Carr were before Justice Pyper on a charge of stealing the little girl Emma Jennings, from her guardians, and with stealing a money bag and harness from Morrill and Voorhees. The child stealing charge was clearly sustained on both the accused, and on Justice Pyper bound them over to the grand jury of the Third District Court, in $1,500 each.

The woman was acquitted on the buggy-stealing charge, but Charles Carr, who admitted to trading off the property, was held on that case in $1,000. As the bonds were not obtained both were committed to jail in default.

"Song Diamonds."—We have received from Messrs. Brainard & Sons, music publishers of Cleveland, Ohio, a work just issued by them entitled "Song Diamonds," a collection of over a hundred new and charming songs, with piano or reed organ accompaniment by the following authors—Bla mphin, Clari-bell, Virginia, Gabriel, Dolores, Hamilton, Alde, Gould, Lindsay, Favager, Hutton, Arnold, Molloy, Linley, and others popular in the musical world. Many of the songs in this collection were but recently issued in sheet form, and after having inspected its contents we unhesitatingly pronounce it one of the most beautiful books of song ever offered to the public. If purchased separately, in sheet form, the songs it contains would cost not less than thirty-five dollars, but it is published at the very low figure of two dollars and fifty cents. It is a gem for the parlor and can be had at the music store of Calder & Careless in this city.

The house of S. Brainard & Sons, is one of the oldest and largest in their line in the United States.

Jurors' Fees.—There appears to be some misunderstanding on the part of some of the grand jurors regarding the Territorial part of their pay, and that the matter may be clearly understood we append the following extract from "An Act to Regulate Fees and Compensation for Official and Other Services in the Territory of Utah," passed by the Legislature last Winter:

"Jurors shall be paid out of the County Treasury of the County wherein they reside, except when serving in civil cases, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the District Court, at the close of each term of said Court, to make out and give to each juror a certificate certifying the number of days' attendance of the number of miles travelled by, and amount of compensation due to, said juror in pension due to, said juror, which certificate, when presented to the County Court of the County from which the said juror was summoned, shall entitle him to be allowed and paid by said County."

Nothing can be plainer or more definite than the foregoing, and we have no reason to doubt, when the jurors' certificates are presented to the auditor of public accounts, the accounts audited and found by him to be correct, and presented to the County Courts where the jurors reside, that there will be the least difficulty about the matter. The reason why this law making it obligatory upon the counties to pay jurors' fees was enacted by the Legislature was because the Territorial tax is only one-fourth as high as the County tax, and it was thought right, because of this, that the latter should bear the jurors' expenses. We believe there need be no apprehension whatever that the County Courts will not comply with the law.

Harper's Monthly for December contains "The Ancient City," illustrated; "The Coming Transit of Venus," illustrated; "Decorative Art and Architecture in England," illustrated; "The Ballad of Breakneck," illustrated; "Rape of the Camp," illustrated; "Pine Barrens," "The First Citizen of the Republic," illustrated; "A Character Mask," "The Republican movement in Europe," "The Survival of the Fittest," "Genesis of the New England Churches," Editor's "Easy Chair," Literary, Scientific and Historical "Record," and "Drawer."

This is the first number of the new volume, (the 50th) of the best popular monthly published in America, and is worthy of a place in every house. The table of contents, with the many beautiful illustrations, afford a literary and artistic feast of great value.

Rich County.—Bishop Budge, of Paris, Rich County, called this morning. He states that the people of that section generally are prosperous and contented. Co-operation is flourishing among them, their store and tannery being in a good condition, and they are taking measures to start co-operative stock and sheep herds. President Rich is doing a good business at Paris with his new grist mill, and at Fish Haven Brother Cook is running a carding machine, which is a great convenience to the people. The manufacture of salt of excellent quality has been commenced in Rich County, and promises soon to become a profitable branch of industry; it is made from the waters of a spring located a few miles east of Montpelier. The intention is to procure, at an early day, the boilers and other machinery necessary to carry on this branch of business on a large scale. The people harvested the best crops the last season that have been raised since the county was settled; and they are doing a good business in supplying oats to Fort Hall and to various markets in Idaho. This valley offers unusual inducements to settlers, and there is room for many more than at present contains. Crops have been raised for the last three years, each year being an improvement on its predecessor. It is a splendid country for grazing, has abundance of timber, and, in summer especially, it is pronounced one of the most pleasant and agreeable in the entire west.

Theatre.—"The Bells That Rang Nelly a Bride" is a drama of merit, with a good plot, attractive scenes, and lively incidents, though perhaps occasionally too profuse in language. Mr. Cox and the company exerted themselves creditably to present the play acceptably and make it a success.

Mr. Cox and the company will repeat this drama with a long and musical name for the last time, when those who wish to see it must take advantage of the opportunity.

Lottie and Frank, the wonderful gymnasts, are announced for early appearance.

Advertising Agency Extension.—We have received from Messrs. Rowell & Cheesman, of New York, a circular offering stock at a low price, and have seen the circular of their Newspaper Advertising Agency, to be under the personal management of Mr. Cheesman. Our business relations with the New York House have been very satisfactory, and we trust they will receive the encouragement they merit in their new enterprise.

Good-looking Indians.—To-day a few Indians have been around town who appeared to be the most cleanly and respectable looking Lamaites we have seen in these parts. The squaws especially are well and comfortably clad. They are Plutes, from the rumpout Country.

Artistic Femminism.—A couple of beautiful specimens of artistic femininity, executed by the hand of Prof. Phelps, are exhibited in the window of the Howe Sewing Machine Agency. They are worth looking at, and will stand minute inspection.

More Crossings.—To-day the supervisor commenced work upon a couple of plank crossings, one extending from this office to the corner south, and the other from the water point to the University corner.

A Mighty Hunter.—A man was seen yesterday coming down City Creek canyon with no less than six deer, Cervus Americanus. Who says we have no Nimrods among us?

Moved In.—Mr. Henry Wallace is now encoached in his new premises, opposite the post office.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Nov. 4.—As we predicted, the Grand Jury ignored the charge against J. W. Groves, committed for absconding his father-in-law at Kelton, and he was consequently discharged.

Utah County Times, Dec. 3.—On yesterday Dr. Canyon came near being the scene of a bloody riot. Cause the arrest of a colored man.

Mr. Bennett, of Spanish Fork, with a friend, in a four days' hunt, killed forty deer. A load of 2800 lb. passed north to Salt Lake yesterday.

Five car loads more iron arrived yesterday for the extension, which shows a determination on the part of the company to keep up the supply of iron. The track is now being laid from the bridge and filling can be done on the bottoms, the work of track laying will be pushed along lively.

Beaver Enterprise, Dec. 3.—The second Judicial District court of the Territory of Utah, held at Salt Lake City, on the 2nd inst., pursuant to adjournment, and in consequence of the sudden illness of Attorney J. H. Brown, a member of the bar in this district, whose funeral takes place at 3 p. m., to-day, the court adjourned till to-morrow at 10 a. m.

At 10 a. m., court resumed its session, with the cases of the Grand Jurors were called and sworn in the clerk to answer such questions as they might be asked by the prosecuting attorneys. When asked them one by one if they were citizens of the U. S. and could read and write in the English language. If they had any conscientious scruples in finding an indictment for the crime of murder, also for polygamy, bigamy and adultery, they were not citizens, so the number was reduced from thirty to twenty-five, which were empaneled and sworn.

The Court stated that he had no written charge to deliver, inasmuch as the jury was summoned to investigate the political condition of Arkansas, and had to look after offences against the United States as well as against the Territory. In relation to the cutting of timber upon the public lands, many supposed that the procuring of firewood and other timber for the existence of settlements was a violating matter, he did not view it in this manner, but it was imposed upon this grand jury to look after those who made it their business to plunder the public lands, and who were not lawfully touched on illegal logging, and the practice of polygamy and bigamy must be stopped if it takes forty years for the civilized world will not stand it, and no nation will be forced to put it down. In regard to Territorial laws, I stated in my last charge, about the Mountain Meadow massacre, that the stigma taken from the people. Every one engaged in that slaughter were not to blame, and we have no desire to blame such, they were forced into it to save their own lives, but he looked for the punishment of the leaders in this matter.

The Court also ordered the word of murder of John Horwarth, who was killed in the Beaver field. A man was still under bonds accused of this crime, and it was for them to investigate and find out who were the perpetrators of this deed, as there were more than one engaged in it. The Judge read from the Territorial laws against the Territory, and dwelt extensively on lascivious cohabitation. Where they (the grand jury) could find a man for polygamy or bigamy, who was living and cohabiting with more than one woman, would be able to indict them for it. Stated that there was no law against marriage in this Territory, and consequently had to resort to the common law. It had been decided in courts of law that a man who was living with a woman to house with a wife, she was his wife.

After the grand jury had received their verbal charge, they withdrew. The criminal and civil dockets were then read after which the court adjourned till two p. m.
