PRESIDENT YOUNG'S TRIP SOUTH.

By letters received from Elder George D. Watt, we learn that President Young and company left Pleasant Grove about 9 a. m., of the 2d inst., passed through Provo and arrived at Springville in time for dinner. There was a general turn out to meeting Elders D. O. Calder, J. T. Caine, R. T. Burton, E. T. Benson and Geo. A. Smith addressed the congregation. The topics of discourse were the proper training of children, the necessity of doing unto others as we would hat they hould do unto us, etc. etc."

The company arrived in Payson at 6 p. m. A meeting was held at 7, at which Elders L. Snow, and John Taylor preached. Leaving Payson at 9 o'clock the next morning the company proceedeed to Nephi, Elder G. A. Smith stopping to preach to the residents of Willow Creek. The Nephi brass band and a military escert met the President 3 miles out from Nephi. The account of the reception is furnished by br. Watt as follows:

Bishop Bryan, desirous of giving President Young a hearty welcome to our City, appointed the following B ethren a committee to make the necessary arrangements for the reception: A. Love, S. Pitchforth, J. G. Bigler and G. Kendall

On Friday the committee dispatched br. Mitchell to Payson to learn the time President Young would arrive and the probable number of his company, who returned at one accuracy, steadiness, and dispatch. Withon Saturday morning bringing the information that President Young would arrive at one p. m., and that his company numbered about 30 own credit and interest, and that of others, porsons. A mounted guard under the direc- may be committed; without the third, nothing tion of Cap John Kienke met the President at Willow Creek and escorted him to Nephi. About 3 miles from Nephi, the Committee, it is impossible to recall. Bishop Bryan, the Nephi Brass Band were waiting by the road-side, and the band struck up a lively air-they took their places next to the guard and escorted the company in.

On arriving at the City, the "Star Spangled Banner" was observed floating from several be sent to the Dead Letter Office places.

As the company proceeded we were met by the following companies, who welcomed the Adems Clayborn President. etc., with a smile and bow. 1st. Akers John On the east side of main street were stationed Anderson Rheuben the High Priests; on the west side were the schools of Nephi, under the direction of superintendent Ord, and teachers J. Midgley Barton L & and sister A. Bigler. As the company turned to Berglund N W 3 the east we were met by the 49th and Mass Quorums of Seven ies; the Elders, Priests, Beals David S Teachers, Deacons and members were out in Bears George quite a respectable number.

David Udall had charge of arranging the companies, who were stationed as above.

At 4 p.m. the President preached an excellent discourse which is to be furnished for Burt James publication when the company return. Elders F. D. Richards, D. McKenzie and E. T. Bengon followed.

Meetings were held on Sunday, and dis- Carel Wm courses delivered by Elders John Taylor, W. Catlin George Woodruff, L. Snow, G. A. Smith and President Clarkson Rebt Young. The Nephi band accompany the President south.

At Round Valley a meeting was held in the evening of Monday, Elders W. Woodruff, E. T. Benson, G. A. Smith, President Young and Conch Isaah G. D. Watt spoke, but the reporter says that it was too dark most of the time to take notes. Comman Wm M Elder O. Hyde joined the company at Sevier Colerran Wm bridge, and A. M. Lyman at Round Valley.

On Tuesday, the 6th, the company reached Bavis Benj F Fillmore, and held meeting at 2 p.m. Elders F. D. Richards, L. Snow, John Taylor and W. Woodruff preached.

Another meeting was held on the 7th. Bishop Callister, Elder O. Hyde and President Gaines Wm W Young addressed the meeting. The Presi- Garrett wm O dent's remarks are said to have been very instructive; but are reserved for publication in Grant Edward full.

PROBATE COURT .- The regular September term of the Probate Court commenced on Hendrick James Monday. Court opened by proclamation of Deputy Sheriff McKean, at 10 a. m., Hon. Elias Smith, presiding. Huffman Mr

The Grand Jurors summoned and called by the Clerk, were Levi Jackman, David J. Ross, Jeleugh W Blnathan Eldredge, T. B. Broderick, Silas Richards, James Fielding, Alex. McKay, Luther Twitchell, James Currie, John Scott, Har- Allen Charlotte mon Wickel, Kleber Worley, Albert Merrill, Horace Gibbs and John C. Tatton. Twelve Bate Mary answered to their names. T. B. Broderick was Bennet Blizabeth reported incapable of attending on account of a severe attack of paralysis.

Prosecuting Attorney Miner stated that he found filed with the Clerk, transcripts of pro- Copland Julies seedings had before Justice Clinton in three Davis M 2 different cases, but no copy of the record or Budly Phebe B affidavit, he therefore asked for an alternative mandamus. He did not ask for a pre-emptory one for the season that he did not believe it could be obeyed; he was of the opinion that there had been no affidavit filed in the cases referred to in the papers which he held in his hand.

Whereupon the court directed that an order be issued requiring Justice Clinton to send up, by to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, certified copies of the affidavits made in the bowels GEORGE SMITH, infant son of John and Sophia aforesaid cases, or to appear in person and assign a reason for not doing so. The court regretted that men who had been elected to llam and Elizabeth Buttle, ased 1 year, 6 menths and office and accepted and complied with the conditions of the law in some respects, had not learned more form. This loose way of deing business might do very well in corporations where there was a disturbance of the peace, and the fine did not exceed a hundred dollars. Adjourned till 2 p.m.

Afternoon Session.

Abraham Hoagland, Edward T. Mumford and Moses Thatcher, were summoned and duly sworn to fill up the panel of the Grand Terms--- $6 per annum in Advance Jury.

The Court appointed Levi Jackman, Foreman, who was duly sworn by the Clerk; after which the remainder of the jury were sworn.

The Court charged the jury in the usual manner relative to their duties.

Adjourned till Tue day at 10 a.m.
