"Deaf Mute" Tells Hard Luck Story And Steals $20.

After working the deaf and dumb game on a number of residents of the city and getting aid from them, F. F Marion, who is believed to have the use of his vocal chords as well as any use of his vocal chords as well as any person in the city, was arrested yes-terday afternoon by Pollee Offleers Clough, Taylor and Griffin. Marion had been going from house to house begging with the plea that he was deaf and dumb and had been robbed of everything he had at Ogden and wanted to get money enough to take him to Milford. He called at the home of Mrs. George A. Smith on north West Temple street and asked for help. While she went into a back room to get some change the man helped himself to $20 from a pocket book which was lying on the hat rack in the hall. Mrs. Smith dis-covered her loss soon after the man left and reported it to the pollee. Several other petit thefts are charged up to Murion and he was finally locat-ed by the officers in a restaurant as he was eating what was, perhaps, the first square meal in several days. His room was searched by the officers and two grips were found, both of which are beleved to have been stolen. person in the city, was arrested yes
