CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.
Washington.—Sherman introduced a bill to promote commerce among the several States, to cheapen the transportation of the mails and the munitions of war and naval stores. It proposes the construction of several railroads in different directions from Washington; referred to a select committee.

Stewart called up the House bill to relieve the disabilities of certain citizens of North Carolina. Doolittle moved to insert Jos. W. Ferrill and Jas. Kerron, of Webster Co., N. C. After some discussion the bill was rejected, Cole, Ferry, Sprague and Henderson voting with the Democrats. Henderson moved to insert the name of George W. Jones, of Tennessee; agreed to. The name of Thos. J. Mackey, of South Carolina, was also inserted, when the bill passed.

HOUSE.
Robinson, by unanimous consent, offered a resolution requesting the President to take measures to secure the release from imprisonment of Wavveu and Castello, sentenced in Great Britain for words and acts spoken and done in the United States, and to take measures to secure their return to the flag, with such ceremonies as may be appropriate to the occasion; the resolution was adopted.

Washington.—Lawes called up the Senate amendment to the House bill, removing all disabilities from Roderick S. Butler, member of Congress elect from Tennessee, and permitting the ordinary oath instead of the test oath; concurred in by a two-thirds vote.

Sherman's bill provides for a separate incorporation of Washington and New York railroad, and Washington and Cleveland railroad, and the Telegraph Company from Washington to Cincinnati.

GENERAL.
Washington, 15.—The award of the contract for carrying the overland mails to California was to Carlton Spaldes, of Chicago, the rate being one thousand dollars per day, length of line 1095 miles.

Senator Doolittle did not attend the Chase meeting at Philadelphia; being Chairman of the Executive Committee and a Democratic and Conservative Member of Congress he did not feel at liberty to take active measures in advance of the Convention relative to the candidate to be nominated.

Washington, 16.—Prominent Democrats assert that the President will not make any cabinet changes until the 4th of July.

The convention has declared its principles. If Pendleton is nominated, appointments will be given exclusively to Democrats; but if Chase, then many must be tendered to Republicans, who thereby could be induced to support him; also many who profess to believe that Johnson will be nominated, claim that he will go into the convention with nearly all the southern votes, and that many at the north, who do not either like Pendleton or Chase, could be induced to support him. Certain it is that such a movement is on foot, and already has been canvassed here.

The Herald's correspondent at Richmond says, he is authorized to state that Chase will accept the Democratic nomination on the platform of embodying universal suffrage. The Chief Justice is now in Richmond; he receives numerous letters daily from the Republicans of the north, offering to co-operate with the Democratic party, in case he is the nominee, and the platform is of the kind set forth.

Washington, 17.—It has been ascertained from the army headquarters that Gen. Buchanan convenes the Louisiana Legislature at an early day to choose Senators and act on the pending amendment to the United States Constitution, but not to go into federal legislation. The recently elected State officials will not be allowed to be inaugurated till the Congressmen have been admitted. Of course this action meets the approval of the military authorities here.

San Francisco, 18.—The last gap in the railroad connection between California and Nevada was closed last evening after 8 o'clock. The laying the track for the space of six miles was delayed by snow, but the Central Pacific Railroad is now in operation from Sacramento to Reno, near Virginia City,
