TRUSTEE'S SALE! WHEREAS WILLIAM MILLER, by his cer-

W tain Geed of Trust, dated August the first, A.D., 1867, and recorded in Book J, page 144, of Utah County Records, conveyed to the under-signed, Trustee, the following described pro-perty, to wit:-

The South half of Lot 6 in Block 30 of the Plat of Provo, Utah County, Utah Territory, con-taining five acres, more or less, together with all improvements thereon.

Also, Lots (3, 4 and 5,) three, four and five, in Block 65, building lots, containing one and 56 100 acres, in said City of Provo.

Also, Lots 2 and 3, in Block 3, of Plat of Provo containing forty-one 31-100 acres.

Also, Lots 2 and 3, in Block 52, of Plat of Provo containing twenty-eight 80-100 acres, all of said property lying in Utah County, Utah Territory: together with all improvements on said property.

perty. In trust, however, to secure the payment of several promissory notes in favor of THOMAS MARSHALL, more particularly described in said Deed of Trust. And Whereas, it was con-ditioned that the failure to pay either of said notes, or any part thereof, then all of said notes shall immediately become due whether due on the face thereof or not; and the said party of the second part, Trustee herein, may proceed to sell the above described property at Auction to the highest bidder for Cash, after first giving ten days public notice of such sale. GREATLY REDUCED PRICES! (The time here given is when the Mails are DUE at sail Lake City; owing to difficulties incident to travel, this time is not made with regularity.) To make room for another large Stock and Chains, And whereas two of said notes are now long since due, and remain unpaid, excepting the sum of six hundred dollars, duly credited on one of said notes; Now, therefore, I, the under-signed Trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said notes, will, on Tuesday, the fifth day of May, A. D. between the hours of ten o'clock a.m., and four o'clock p.m., at the Court House door in the city of PROVO, Utah Territory, seil the above described property at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, in accordance with the terms and conditions of sail 1 deed, and to satisfy what may remain unpaid on said notes, in terest, and the costs hereof. NOTES.

Each route must be bid for seperately' with separate guaranty and certificate, and must provide for the conveyance of the mail with "celerity, certainty and security," using the terms of the law, and proposals must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip is sub-ject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a post office, for suffer-ing it to be injured, destroyed, robbed, ing it to be injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; or for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in run-ning, vehicles on the route. The Post-master General may annul the contract for disobeying the post office laws, or the instructions of the Department. He may alter the schedule of departures and arrivals, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at a proportionate dewhole or in part, at a proportionate de-crease of pay, allowing as a full idemnity to the contractor, one month's extra compensation on the amount of service. dispensed with, and a pro rata compen-sation for the service retained and continued.

For form of proposal, &c., &c. see advertisement in pamphlet form of routes in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, &c., dated November 30, 1867, or any similar advertisement issued by the Department.

Bids should be addressed to the "Se-cond Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals, State of _____," and sent by mail.
