

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The trial of Julius Hoebel proceeded with great smoothness and celerity at Evansville, Ind., until the clerk said: "Prisoner, stand up and hear the verdict." Then it was found that there was no prisoner, for he had quietly slipped out an hour before.

The greenback craze seems to be dying out in the State where it originated. At the recent Ohio election out of a total vote of 625,000 the rag money people polled only 7,000. It is not likely that the greenback "latemen" will cut a very lively figure in the coming Congress.

A grand scheme is said to be in contemplation for crossing the English Channel. A line of steel tubes, sixteen feet in diameter, is proposed to be sunk and firmly anchored at sufficient depth below the surface to be out of the way of navigation. It is to be ballasted to overcome the buoyant effect, and secured to sunken caissons by chains.

American cheese is in demand in England this season. An English paper remarks: "American cheese is coming into the market in very great quantities, from 30,000 to 40,000 cheeses having been landed in Glasgow every week during the last two months. Every lot is picked up as soon as it arrives, the quality being considered fine."

The Japanese, being chiefly dependent on the soil for subsistence, have arrived at a high state of perfection in the art of agriculture. Like the Chinese, they pay great attention to manuring and irrigation. As animal food constitutes hardly any part of their subsistence, no pastures or meadows are to be seen.

Theatre-goers who attend to see the performance, rejoice. There is likely to be a rise in the price of seats. According to the Cincinnati Price Current, the crop this year will be less than half what it was last year. It then amounted to 2,370,000 bushels, valued at $2,150,000, about two-thirds of which came from Virginia. Of the balance, 750,000 bushels came from Tennessee, and 120,000 bushels from North Carolina.

A newspaper lady, writing about the opening of the United States Supreme Court for the new term, was principally struck by the number of new gowns worn by the Justices, and passed the further criticism on that distinguished body of furled, that Chief Justice Waite's gown is of satin de chine, while those of the Associate Justices are only satin de Lyon. This is a fair offset for those writers who, in order to describe how a woman lectures, mainly report what she wears.

We seldom hear much about that portion of the territory of the United States called Alaska. It appears however that the citizens of Sitka have sent a petition to President Arthur for the removal of Collector Morris on the ground of over-officiousness. It is something to know that there is enough going on at Sitka for a Collector to keep busy about. Presently we shall hear of rival parties in Alaska, and that politics are at fever heat near the frozen zone.

The following incident shows the fabled spirit of the Russian people towards the Israelites: A few weeks ago a large box attracted the attention of the traffic superintendent at the British Station of the Ojima section of the Southwest Railway. It had been sent off from Pultawa and was addressed to Odessa. It was opened, and inside was discovered the body of an aged Jew. Under the corpse was found a note, on which was written in the Little Russian language, "If you Jews will not quit the country living, we shall send you out dead."

A writer on domestic life in Italy to-day says that, as a rule, "disturbance and suspicion rule the ordering of an Italian household. No master or mistress usually believes in the integrity of any one in his or her employ, and the whole home life revolves itself into a kind of war of wits—a grim game of cleverness or theft matched by cleverness of detection." The servants are abominably treated—badly fed, abused and scolded. We wish those who trace everything wrong in Utah social life to polygamy to bear in mind that Italy is strictly monogamous, Rome being the birthplace of that spurious "Christianity" that originated religious hostility to plural marriage.

According to the Washington Star, the reports of delegates at the recent international revolutionary congress at Chur, Switzerland, show that Socialism is retrograding in all parts of the world with the exception of France. The delegates from the United States gave a gloomy account of the condition of Socialism here. He stated that better times had pretty well destroyed the organization by depriving it of its supporters, and that the journals which several years ago advocated socialistic principles had either died for want of patronage or were now supporting some more popular doctrine. The reports from Hungary, Belgium and Great Britain were all discouraging. Only the French delegate gave anything like a bright outlook. He stated that Socialism was already a political power in his country which all parties were careful to consult. It is more than probable that the French delegate overdraw his picture of the power of Socialism in France.

"PAGANIZING INFLUENCES."

THIS San Francisco Monitor, a Catholic organ, having made the statement that the public schools of California have "godless," "paganizing" and "under pagan influences," was taken to task by some of the "secular" papers. Whereupon the Monitor maintains its assertions and says:

"It was only a short time since that Rev. Aaron Williams, a well-known Protestant clergyman of this city, said openly at a noonday prayer meeting of Protestants, that a teacher in the public schools assured him that the majority of the boys and girls therein were utterly skeptical regarding scripture truth and their souls' eternal welfare. They were going down to hell as fast as they could go, and they never thought of it—never, apparently, even dreamed of it. This single fact alone is sufficient to prove the 'paganizing influences,' and as to the schools being 'godless,' they have been acknowledged to be of that iniquitous character by the best informed non-Catholic writers of our day. Parents will be held responsible before God for the salvation of the souls of their children, who are the innocent victims of parental error, and the fault will be charged by the proximate paganism such as has been illustrated by the Protestant clergyman whose words we have quoted."

While we do not endorse many of the doctrines of Catholicism, we agree with the Monitor in its strictures upon the system which shuts God out of the schoolroom, and keeps children most of their time under the influence, that ignore religion, if there are not positively opposed to it. There can be little wonder that skepticism is increasing in the land, when school teachers are barred from inculcating the truths of the gospel, and the fact that they themselves are infidels forms no barrier to the obtaining of control over the plastic minds of youthful pupils.

This subject is one that should recommend itself to the attention of the thoughtful among the Latter-day Saints. We need more schools into which faith shall enter, and the duty which mankind owes to God will be made part of primary education. As our present system stands, in such parts of the Territory as have a mixed population, doctrinal teaching cannot be made any prominent feature in the district school. We shall either have to remodel the present system, or inaugurate denominational schools under Church patronage and direction, that our little ones may not be kept outside the pale of religious influences for five days out of seven in every week. We want God in the school-room as well as in the Tabernacle, and the spirit of our religion should permeate all our affairs. There are enough "paganizing influences" in the world, without their introduction into our school-houses.

VISIONS IN THE CLOUDS.

THE following account of phenomena said to have been witnessed by different persons, is taken from the columns of the Scientific American. Of course we do not vouch for its correctness and therefore offer no opinion as to the character of the appearances, but we remind our readers that one of the tokens of the latter times, in connection with other events which are now transpiring, were to be "signs in the heavens" as well as in the earth:

"Displays of aurora borealis are evidently infrequent in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. The local papers of the latter part of September and the first week in October contain numerous references to marvellous visions in the clouds, and exhibit a medieval condition of popular intelligence in the rural districts scarcely less marvellous. The Warrenton (Va.) Solid South says: 'A number of reliable and responsible people, whose names we can give, about a week ago, saw an apparition in the heavens, about 10 o'clock p.m., of white robed figures, with wings, and of those who saw them to be angels. It is all the talk of the people in and around the villages of New Baltimore and Buckland.' The Richmond Dispatch, of the 7th inst., quotes a letter from Mr. M. C. Grady, of Fredericksburg, Va., dated 5th inst., in which he says: 'Many persons in this community claim to have witnessed a most alarming sight in the heavens some nights since, just before daybreak. The heavens are said to have been lighted, and vast numbers of soldiers appeared, uniformed, armed and drilled. Some also saw it, and what is the explanation? Could it have been a mirage?'

Similar observations were made further north. A Wilmington, Del. dispatch says: 'The people in this vicinity are greatly excited over what they believe to be supernatural manifestations. A little girl, some three weeks ago, living in the village, saw after nightfall, before the moon was fairly up above the horizon, platoons of angels slowly marching and counter-marching to and fro in the clouds, their white robes and helmets glistening in the light. At intervals the heavenly visitors would dance merrily. Her father also saw the spectacle. Monday night, two weeks ago, a farmer living near Georgetown, the county seat, saw bands of soldier of great size, equipped in dazzling uniforms, their muskets shimmering in the pale, weird light that seemed to be everywhere, marching with military precision up and down, and presenting arms. The vision lasted long enough to be seen by a number of West's neighbors. Many people living near Laurel, many miles away situated in the lower end of the Peninsula, saw the same extraordinary phenomena. A few go far as to say that they distinctly saw in the midst of the soldiers, and conspicuously by reason of his size and commanding presence, the hero President himself, with every feature distinctly and vividly portrayed. In Talbot County the illusion was seen by numbers.'

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WIRELESS UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

NEW YORK, 4.—The government record shows 133 fires throughout the country during the month of October, not less than $10,000, ranking from that sum as the minimum, to a maximum of $125,000. This last being the reasonable estimate of the loss at the Fourth Avenue fire in this city. The aggregate loss of these 133 fires, footed up $7,360,890 with an insurance loss of $3,360,000 to $3,400,000, leaving a net loss of not less than $10,000, and a number of losses by fires at which less than $10,000 loss was sustained, gives a total of $8,250,000 as the approximate wastage by fire in October, which exceeds anything reported in any October since the great fire of 71. Few of our most respected enured underwriters will hesitate to admit that both in number and cost, these fires of 1881, particularly during the past four months, have been quite exceptional, though not many companies are likely to come out ahead in the year's transactions, and a majority of them will show a loss for the year.

More Rain.
At this hour it is raining magnificently, as it has been during the entire night. All danger of a water famine in this and the neighboring cities are now dispelled. The weather bureau prophesies a cold wave to-day or to-morrow.

The President.
The President has received a large number of visitors at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day. Visited the Sub-Treasury to-day, then returned to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, remaining with the President and Conkling for an hour.

RAILROADS.

The Union Pacific has given formal notice that the agreement with the Pacific Mail has been cancelled. It is reported that the Union and Central Pacific companies are willing to form a new alliance with the Pacific Mail upon terms somewhat less favorable to the steamship company, and also to purchase the two Pacific mail steamships forming the China line, and probably a satisfactory arrangement will be made within a short time; if not, the stock will in the opinion of insiders, go down considerably. The pool in Texas Pacific are actively at work for an advance in that stock. Vandenberg is said to have bought Northwestern yesterday. Twenty-two thousand carloads of freight have accumulated at stations awaiting the completion of the Lexington and Big Sandy extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. Confederate bonds are weak. The scheme for the extension of the Atlantic & Pacific across the Indian territory will soon be announced.

Snow.
LONDON, N.H., 4.—Snow fell last night to a depth of five inches—still snowing rapidly.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBER.

NEWARK, N. J., 4.—Henry B. Marchbank, a well known resident of Belleville and former correspondent of the Mechanics' Bank, was arrested last night on charge for being a defaulter to the bank in the sum of $50,000 within the last three years. Marchbank left the bank about two years and the default was covered up. He has not yet given bail and is in custody of the U. S. marshal.

HANGED.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., 4.—The execution of Henry King, who murdered Michael Hall, in prison, July 1st, took place this morning in the county jail.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

PHILADELPHIA, 4.—The steamship Indiana, having on board the new British ministry, arrived at noon, and the reception committee escorted Mr. West to his hotel. This afternoon he will be the recipient of a banquet at St. George's Hall.

FATAL FIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—A Portland dispatch says: Douglas County Jail, at Roseburg, was burned last evening, and with it Charles Williams, incarcerated the day before for larceny. It is supposed he undertook to burn his way out, and that the fire became unmanageable.

FAST TRAIN.

ST. LOUIS, 4.—The Walshaw will run a fast train to New York beginning on Monday, and leaving here at 7:50 a. m., arrive in New York at 8:30 the next evening, time 33-hours 40 minutes, and will have a dining car.

MASON.

The War Department's idea in rescinding the order for the court-martial for Mason, who shot at Gettysburg, is that he was really insane. He is now under medical surveillance, and should he prove insane he will be sent to the government asylum, otherwise another court-martial will be ordered.

MUTILATED COIN.

WASHINGTON, 4.—Patent medicine vendors and others are mutilating silver by stamping advertisements of their goods or their names on one side. This is a violation of law and the authorities are after the guilty parties.

STAMPS.

Many interior postmasters are engaged in selling stamps in violation of law to non residents of their district. The Post Office Department has determined to break up this illegal traffic. One small office in Virginia sold nearly $500 worth of stamps in a few months to Baltimore merchants, at 10 per cent. discount.

SUICIDE.

ST. LOUIS, 4.—Amalie Pohl, 40 years old and haunch-backed, suicided by poison because a young man with whom she worked in a glove factory, for whom she had conceived a passion, refused to marry her.

AMIELO.

PHILADELPHIA, 4.—In the reception of the British Minister the address of welcome from the Mayor included feelings in English sympathy with America in her loss of the President. The minister made a response assuring him that he should use his best endeavor to maintain the strength of the amiable relations between the two countries.

FOREIGN.

Asked to Explain.

PARIS, 4.—France has asked an explanation of the arrest in Russia of three Frenchmen.

Reign of Terror.

LONDON, 4.—Archbishop Crooke, of Cashel, in reply to an address of the Brannan and league, advised the tenants to tender a fair rent, and if refused the fault would be theirs. It would show that the Irish can, for their countries sake, endure insults and injuries. He declared that government had established a reign of terror.

Irish Plot.

There is some reason to believe that the Irish government had information of serious designs on the selection of extremists to provoke risings throughout the country before the peace of the land and had time to create a better feeling among the people. The government, however, was well prepared.

Prohibited.

ROME, 4.—Government prohibited the meeting of the republicans and anti-clericals to commemorate the anniversary of the birth of Montanari.

Threatened.

The police of Blackburn threatened the license of a hall with the loss of his license if he permitted the land league meeting, at which Miss Anna Farnell was to speak. Forster, Chief Secretary of Ireland, comes to London for the approaching cabinet council.

General Release.

MADRID, 4.—Government has decided to release all the political prisoners.

ALL GONE.

THE GREENWICH HOUSE, Second house at City Hall, has been thoroughly renovated and fitted up in first class style and is ready for business. Furnished Rooms to Rent. Call and see for Terms, etc. DANIEL GREENWICH, Proprietor.

"Uncle Isaac."—To-night our citizens will have a rare theatrical treat. "Uncle Isaac" is one of the most delightful plays of its class on the boards. A gentleman of our acquaintance witnessed it in San Francisco lately, and pronounced it excellent.

The San Francisco Evening Post says about it:

"Mr. Fehrmann's rendition of the character of 'Uncle Isaac' received hearty recognition at the hands of the large audience present last evening. His funny sayings and doings being greeted with rounds of applause."

The play will be repeated to-morrow afternoon, at a matinee, and again in the evening.

SANDPETS VALLEY RAILROAD.

Work on the Sandpets Valley Railroad is progressing as rapidly as practicable under the circumstances. In the absence of a construction engine, which has not yet been received, the materials have to be conveyed to and from different points of the road by horse-power. The track is laid from Nephi to the forks of Salt Creek, a distance of about six miles. The Wales (Sandpets) coal beds are the present objective point of the road, but it is not improbable that it will be built on southward from there. The coal of the Wales mines is of a good coking quality, and the railroad company is depending on them as the leading source of profit.

So conscious are the proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, of the worth of their remedy, that they offer all who desire a trial, a bottle free of charge. This certainly would be disastrous to them did not the remedy possess the remarkable curative qualities claimed.
