

New York, Oct. 2-Gains were in large majority in the changes, resulting from an active opening in the stock market today, but a number of issues showed the effect of realizing. Reading opened at 154 compared witth 153%. Wisconsin Central preferred advanced 5 points, Brooklyn Transit, 14, and Atchison, Northern Pacific, Rock Island, Amalgamated and Smelting about a point.

Night's Level.

Confident absorption of various leading stocks soon induced a uniform movement

Benelting about a point.
Confident absorption of various leading stocks soon induced a uniform movement npward. The weight of realizing in the data of the provide the data and the provide the data of the data of the provide the data of the data of the provide the data of the data of

MAKES HOMELY WOMEN PRETTY.

MARES HOMENT WOMEN FRENT I. No woman no matter how regular her features may be can be called pretty if her complexion is had. Orino Laxative Pruit Syrup aids digestion and clears sal-low hiotched complexions by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Re-memher the name ORINO and refuse to accept any substitute. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co. Hill Drug Co.

COUNTY FINANCES.

Report of Treasurer Carbis Filed for Month of September.

DESERET EVENING NEWS TUESDAY OCTOBER 2 1906

low for money when he was there and try in that way to get some of it back. The chief replied that he did not know, that as they had come in there together he just supposed.— At this point, and in fact all through the conversation, the chief was moving rather uneusly on his seat as though the conversation was not altogether to his liking, and that he would like to stop at the earliest convenience of Mr.

MoWhitter. "During the course of the conver-sation, McWhitter said that he would probably be here for a couple of days longer, and that he would call again, probably tomorrow , and see if the chief had learned anything more about any of the men who had taken his money. The chief then took the address furnished him by Mr. McWhir-ter and said he would be glad to do abything he could. "At another time during the con-versation, Mr. McWhirter said he could not see how it was that these fellows got away so easily; to which the chief replied that some of these fellows are quicker than we are."

mewhere in the east and brought to all Lake. Then there were Bell, who as always called "Doe" by the Brien "family," and Frank Falo'Brien "family," and Frank estaff. staff. The O'Briens were gen-erally pretty well supplied with erally pretty well supplied with money, and this was particularly true on and for a day or two after Sept. 18, when the four, that is, John-nie, Larry, Mrs. O'Brien and Miss Da-vis moved up to South Temple street. In addition to renting apartments on the last named thoroughfare, Johnnie O'Brien vented an "office" norm an west replied that 'some of these fellows are quicker than we are.' When leaving, Mr. McWhirter said he dia wit like the way the matter had been bandled by the police department and the chief said he had done and would do all that he could to appre-here the parties; that they had a case on right at this time where some fel-lows got away at Portiand and that he had captured them here and that they would do everything they could in the matter.' O'Brien rented an "office" room on west Second South. To the office he took a collection of mineral specimens from matter.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Case of President Joseph F. Smith Before Judge Whitaker.

and Peck were the two "policemen," who happened to be hasdy by, and doubtless "Col." Rice was none other President Joseph F. Smith Late yes-It has been hinted that Chief of Police George Sheets made at least one trip terday afternoon appeared before Judge Whitaker of the city court and to the place where the O'Briens were rooming at the time of the robbery, and walved examination on the charge of unlawful cohabitaion with his wives. The complainant was Deputy Sheriff Steele this time, instead of Owen, the professional spotter and informer. The walving of examination means that the case will go direct to the dis-trict court where it will be disposed of. Detective Dick Shannon was there a number of times. Mrs. O'Brien was heard to say that the gang stood in with the head of the police department.

TREMENDOUS UPROAR.

People Imagined There Was a Whole-Slaughter on Commercial Street.

Whirter and Chief Sheets. "On Friday, the 28th of September, at about 12 noon, accompanied by Mr. Pendergrass. I visited the chief of po-There was a tremendous uproar lice in his office. A gentleman who was a stranger to me was in the room and remained there during our conversafrom the second story of No. 36 Commercial street at 2 p. m., today, in remained there during our conversa-tion. I introduced my friend, Mr. Pin-dergrass, to the chief, and then told the chief that on reaching Los Angeles. I had approached an attorney with re-gard to the state of my case, and he advised me to return to Sait Lake City immediately and consult an attorney here. I reached the city here Manday fact from the amount of noise that was made, the people out in the street imagined there was a wholesale slaughter in progress at that place. Four "ladies" of the French demi-Four "ladies" of the French demi-monde appeared at the front windows I reached the city here Monday in scant attire, waving their arms and screaming with all their might. An immense crowd gathered at once, and last, and proceeded to an attorney who recommended another , attorney. Mr. Braffet, who would, he thought, be able to do me a service in connection with the matter. Mr. Braffet has had charge Police Officers Williams and Victor speedily appeared. They hurried to the second story to find the four woof the case since then, but now informs me that, owing to trouble with his eyes men badly demoralized and jabbering excitedly now in French and now in and an accumulation of other work he is unable to continue his services in Pigeon English

and

Hasty investigation developed that is unable to continue his services in the case any longer. I have come up to you to see if you can furnish me with any further information. "The chief interrupted me here and said that he had nothing further to report; he had done all that he could, and I said that I had seen two of these men, the two bogus officers, at the sanitarium on Mondow evening last two young men, the worse for liquor, had been up there, and according to the statements of the occupants had the statements of the occupants had called, apparently on a peaceful er-rand; but the moment one of the wo-men had shown up at the hall door, the two men burst it in and made a fierce attack on her. They beat her about the head and shoulders, till it was feared her jaw was fractured, and then attempted to throw two of the other women out the front window. But the women made such an uproar, that their assailants made haste to get "The chief interrupted me by stating that Mr. Braffet had already told nim of this, and said he was surprised that their assailants made haste to get away. Peter Wuthrich, the shoemaker on the ground floor, hurried up to try and restore order, when the two men who were about leaving, exclaimed, "What busines is it of yours anyhow?" and they struck the moor shoemaker epeatedly in the face and knocked han down. Then they got away; but not far, for one was captured in Vic-toria alley, and the other on State street. At the police station they gave the

Soft Lake.

his late rooming place.

than Falstaff.

here.

SHEETS A VISITOR.

It is pretty clear that Johnnie O'Brien and Jim Donaldson were the gentlemen who were found having just played "a quiet game." Larry O'Brien was the escort of the McWhirters, Bell

SIGNED STATEMENT.

To set at rest any doubt that may ex-ist as to the genuineness of the decla-ration made by McWhirter, the follow-ing signed statement is published. It relates to the interview between Mc-

WAS

REPUBLICAN VISITORS.

Distinguished Company From Nevada Visited Salt Lake.

A distinguished company of Nevada Republican politicians were in the city yesterday afternoon, and evening, leaving by the midnight train for Lincoln county. The party included John S. Mitchell, candidate for governor; George P. Mills, candidate for lieutenant governor; Oscar J. Smith, candi-date for congressman; W. G. Douglas, candidate for secretary of state; E. R. candidate for secretary of state; E. R. Dodge, candidate for justice of the supreme court; George Springmeyer, candidate for attorney general; A. D. Elliott, candidate for state engineer. With the party was Col. H. D. Maxson, secretary of the irrigation congress, who accompanied them from Reno and will be with them on the tour south. These gentlemen are bound for the will be with them on the tour south. These gentlemen are bound for the southern part of the state, where they will stump the country for the Repub-lican ticket, and as they must needs pass through Salt Lake, they concluded to take in the town. Atty. C. O. Whit-temore of the Salt Lake route thought-fully took the political tourists under bis wing, and give them a how at the his wing, and gave, them a box at the Orpheum in the evening, besides showing them other attentions, and escort-ing them to the train. The party will begin speaking at Las Vegas, from which they will go to Bullfrog, Beatty, and the other great mining camps in the southern part of the state.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE. NAPOLEON BONAPARTE. Showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Bal-lard's Snow Linhment has shown the pub-lic it is the best Linhment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc., A. C. Pitts, Rodessa La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Linh-ment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact, anything that can be reached by a linh-ment, Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., III and 114 South Main Street. B

SOCIAL AND

PERSONAL

Tonight the wedding of Miss Heien Burton and Claud S. Williams will take place at the home of the bride's par-ents, Mr, and Mrs. John Burton, the bride to be attended by Miss Marge Ellerbeck and the groom by Ray Savage.

Mrs. W. P. Klser gave a bridge tea yesterday in honor of the Misses Lys-ter of Chicago, assisted by Mrs. R. J. Schulder and Mrs. D. R. Gray. The room-were decorated with autumn flowers dah-lias in pink, white and red being used in drawingroom and library, while the din-ingroom was in yellow, sunflowers being used with plumosa and yellow ribbor. used with plumosa and yellow ribbon. About 36 guests enjoyed the afternoon, stop at the earliest convenience of Mr.

addition of the providence.	The second se
The report of Country Treasurer Carbis has been filed for the month of September with the county commissioners. It contains the following recapitulation of the finances of the county:	Mrs. Lucluitz of Spokade will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mc- Millan, for a short time. Mrs. S. C. Adams, who has been visiting with them, leaves with her little daughter for her home in Denver tomorrow.
Balance on hand Sept. 1	Miss Lillian Burnham is visiting with friends in the city.
Balance on hand Sept 30	Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Murray will leave during the week for Los Angeles.
This balance is divided among the vari- ous funds as follows: General expense fund	At the Methodist church last night Rev. Benjamin Young officiated in the ser- vice uniting Miss Corinne Nicholson of Cripple Creek to Victor E. Sampson of Butte, the ceremony being followed by a dinner at the Wilson hotel for the bridal party and near friends.
Total	Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Dale leave this week to visit relatives in Ohlo.
WARDEN PRATT HOME.	Wallace Bransford has returned from
And the second bit other the In-	a business trip in the east.
Attended Annual Meeting of the In- ternational Prison Association.	Mrs. George T. Badger will be guest of honor at a bridge party on Friday to be given by Mrs. James T. Jennings.
Warden and Mrs. Pratt have returned from their trip to Albany, N. Y., where they attended the annual meeting of the International Prison association. He said it was the best attended and most inter-	Mrs. Henry A. Moss has returned to her home in Denver after a very enjoyable visit in Salt Lake.
esting convention ever held by the asso- ciation, only the west was not very well represented. It seemed to be a growing	Miss Mary Kimball entertained at a dinner today at her home.
sense among the delogates that the prison should be made as much as possible a place for reformation rather than for en- tirely penal purposes, although there are convicts who can not be reformed. It is	Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Perkins will give a reception next week in honor of Prof. and Mrs. George M. Marshall and Miss Hester Nelson.
desirable that these should be kept in a class by themselves, and not brought in- to contact with those yet susceptible of	Mrs. Louis McCornick will entertain at luncheon today at the Country cluo.
reformation. The sense of the convention was also in favor of abolishing the relics of inhuman treatment of earlier days,	Mrs. Dorsey Ash arrives today to visit for a short time with friends.
such as the sweat box, certain forms of solitary confinement, and cruel forms of physical punishment. There was a decided sentiment favoring doing away with the	Maj. and Mrs. George Downing will re- turn within the week from the south where they have been visiting relatives.
striped suits, cropped heads and enforced clean shaves. The next meeting will be held in Chicago.	Mrs. Joseph Rawlins and Miss Alta Rawlins are at Brighton for a few days clean shaves. The next meeting will be

You're Going to Begin to Dress Up After While!

How are you fixed for it?

Clothes up-to-date? Hat that looks like now?

Neckwear, Shirts and other things in keeping?

Come in for a few minutes sometime today, you'll he well repaidfor the visit him of this, and said he was surprised that a man of Mr. Braffet's intelli-gence had not 'phoned him or notified him off. The man's restitute, so they might be arrested. "I said: 'One of these men was the little short tellow, who had brought the $750 into your office that you gav, to me.' He seemed to know whom I meant, and nodded his head. I said that I did not intend to walt in Sait Lake City longer than, say, two days later-would he take my address so he could write me of any further de-velopments. He said, certainly, and He said, certainly, and elopments. I gave my address.

sanitarium on Monday evening last.

GETTING TOO WARM.

I gave my address. "I turned away to the door and said, 'Bye-the-bye, Chief, there is one other thing which I do not under-stand, and that is the quick return of that little fellow with the other $250 in gold-where could he have got it?' The chief said that probably he had it on him at the time. I said: 'Did you not search him when you took him out into the hall to relieve him of the $750?' He said, No, he had not thought of it. He said: 'The two of you came in together-' he said this, but I did not catch on to what he meant. He was twisting about uneasily in his chair, as if he did not want to prolong the conversation. "He, at this stage, offered me a

"He, at this stage, offered me a man to go with me throughout the city looking for any signs of the men. but I said that I was satisfied I had not been dealt squarely with by the department. And he said: 'How is that? I have done all that I could in that? I have done all that I could in the matter, didn't I? I asked you to stay.' I said: 'You asked us if we could stay two or three days, and I asked you what chance there was for recovering the money. You said it was 10 chances to one against it, and as this was poor encouragement, and as our tokets expired thest plack for Sa this was poor encouragement, and as our tlokets expired that hight, for San Jose, we thought it was better to go on; that we would have every confi-dence in leaving the matter in your hands; but if it was ten chances to one then, it was a thousands chances to one new, and we went out.

"The other man present did not en-ter into the conversation."

PENDERGRASS' STATEMENT.

PENDERGRASS STATEMENT. T. S. Pendergrass, a stenographer who accompanied Alexander MeWhir-ter to Chief Sheets' office on Sept. 28. makes the following sworn statement: "We went into the chief's office and found Mr. Daly, the city attorney, there in conversation. Mr. McWhirter introduced me to the chief as Mr. Pendergrass and immediately made in-quiry as to what developments had been made with the case regarding the recovery of his money.

quiry as to what developments had been made with the case regarding the recovery of his money. "Mr. McWhirter first stated that he had come back from Los Angeles on last Monday and reached Sait Lake some time during the evening. Said he had seen some attorneys in Los An-geles who advised that he return here and try to make some recovery of the money. That when he reached Sait Lake he went to see an attorney here who advised him to take the matter up with Mr. Braffet, which Mr. McWhir-ter said he did, but that on account of some trouble with his eyes, Mr. Braf-fet had said that he could not devota any time to the matter and advised Mr. McWhirter to take the matter up di-rect with the chief of police and see if he could do anything more about it for him. Mr. McWhirter then asked the chief if he had seen anything of ariy of these men, to which the chief re-plied that he had not. Mr. McWhirter then said that on Monday night he had seen both of the bogus officers at the sanitarium. "The chief at this point interrupted him and asked McWhirter when had sanitarium. "The chief at this point interrupted him and asked McWhirter why he had not let him know at once about these men so that he could have captured them, and also asked why Mr. Braffett had not done so: that Mr. Braffett was a man of ordinary intelligence and should have known that if he had taken the matter up with him, that he at once would have put some man out to get these fellows.

at once would have put some man out to get these fellows. "Mr. MeWhirter- then stated that one of them was the little short man who had brough the $750 into the chief's office and given it to the chief for him and then went back for the $250. The chief seemed to recognize just who was meant by 'the little short fellow,' but went on to say that he had never seen him since he was there in the office, meaning the time when he was there with the money. SHEETS MADE PROMISE.

"Mr. McWhirter then asked the chief why he had not searched the felnames of Bert McCariney, and though names of Bert McCariney, and though the second man gave the name of John Doe, it was ascertained that his name was John Drysdale. The shoemaker and the women were brought to the station, where they identified the two prisoners who were locked up prepara-tory to a hearing later. The name of the woman hurt is Mamile Miller, and she fainted away at the station. After she fainted away at the station. After the identification, the complaining parties retired to the street, and quiet was restored.

THE MISSIONARY COURSE

Of the Latter-day Saints' High School,

Designed especially for those preparing to do missionary work, will begin Mon-day, October 8, 1906. Thorough courses will be provided in Biblical and Book of Mormon subjects, in the Principles of the Gospel, and in Ecclesiastical His-tory. Students may further select what studies they wish from the regu-iar High School curriculum. lar High School curriculum. For information write to the SECRETARY, Latter-day Saints High School, Salt Lake City.

The 25 to 50 per cent Discount on House Furnishings will be given until further notice at the I. X. L.

ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT.

Addresses of Welcome 17 Governor Cutler and President Hafen.

The annual exhibition of Utah's Art Institute opened successfully last night and an interesting display was in evi-dence. An address was given by Gov. Cutler and also by Prest, John Hafen of the institute. Gov. Cutler speaking in eulogistic terms of the effort of the local artists to bring Utah into dis-tinction in art lines, and expressing the conviction that it was the duty of every conviction that it was the duty of every citizen to encourage this effort and fos-ter the talent which exists in our midst. He spoke of the recognition already won abroad by Utah artists and pre-won abroad by Utah artists and pre-dicted that greater honors would fol-low their efforts. Prest Hafen gave a short address chiefiy upon the desirability of cul-tivating a taste for art, and this could be advanced by an interest in the ex-hibitions of worthy works. The walls showed a collection of pie-tures in oil, water color and neutral among the artists represented being Mr. Hafen, J. Leo Fairbanks, J. B. Fairbanks, J. T. Harwood, M. M. Young, L. Greene Richards, Dan Weg-geland and J. W. Browning, Mrs. Allee M. Horne, Miss LuDean Christiansen, Myra Sawyer, J. W. Curtis, Hal Bur-rows and others, and in special depart-ments, such as china painting, lace ments, such as china painting, lace and pottery, there are interesting dis-plays. The institute will be open for two weeks daily from 2 to 10 p. m.

DON'T BE IMPOSED UPON.

DON'T BE IMPOSED UPON. Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the gen-uine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuss any substitute. It is the hest remedy for coughs and colds. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

The 25 to 50 per cent Discount on House Furnishings will be given until further notice at the I. X. L.

NEW YORK CLOSING STOCKS. New York, Oct. 2.

