The New York and New Haven, and Hartford and Nello Railroads, passed the Senate by a vote of thirteen to five. It has now passed both houses. The House to-day voted to adhere to its first vote and endorse the appropriation of half a million for a new State House at New Haven, which was formerly defeated by a large vote. Charles H. Johnson, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of the city, died to-day, aged 87 years. Many years ago he published the Connecticut Mirror.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 28.—Major J. M. Brown, of the first regiment national guards, late in command of the troops at Sutter Creek, died this morning from fever induced by cold contracted while in camp. He was assistant secretary of the State harbor commissioners and was widely and favorably known as a citizen and soldier. Von Schmidt's outfit for Lake Tahoe will be completed in a few days. It is understood that the injunction suit which caused him to suspend work has been amicably arranged and work will now be resumed. The preliminary surveys for the tunnel location will be completed this week, and Col. Von Schmidt will then return here to organize his force for the immediate prosecution of the actual work. The German Democrats had a full meeting last night at Mozart Hall. The Democratic ticket and platform were fully endorsed. James Bennett, foreman of the Auditor mine, who shot Hugh McManomy, one of the rioters, is in San Francisco. His statement of the tragedy and attending events is published in full. It goes to show that he acted upon a self-defense and that he left the country only to save his life, which was threatened by armed men who searched every where for him, declaring their intention to kill him on sight, while he was satisfied that no adequate protection could be expected from the local authorities. The reported sale of the California Pacific R.R. Company, complete, with the boats of the late Steam Navigation Company, to the Central Pacific Railroad, is no longer denied, the arrangements having been fully consummated.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE. Communist prisoners released. PARIS, 28.—It is said that President Thiers has induced Bismarck to consent to the evacuation of the Paris forts still held by the German troops, and the entire departments of the Seine and Seine-et-Oise on or before the 31st of August. Many Communist prisoners who were sent to different French forts have been released. It is rumored that Cardinal Antonelli has summoned Bishop Dupanloup to Rome.

CANADA.

TORONTO, 27.—Winipeg dates to the 12th of July are receiving the Orange procession ever seen in the north-west marched through the streets of Winipeg on that day. They had banners and wore the regalia of their order, but had no arms. About one hundred men were present.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, 27.—The new race boat and crew from England have arrived and will proceed by rail to-morrow to St. John's.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, 28.—The Emperor William leaves Bonn on Tuesday for Cabling and Wiesbaden; from the latter place he will proceed to Gastein, where he will probably meet the Emperor of Austria.

PROVINCIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The separate ministerial department for Catholic affairs has been done away with, and that the abolition is due to difficulties originating in the decision of the late Ecumenical Council.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A duel—Piercy and Postlethwaite. LONDON, 28.—Vivian's invective subscriptions to rebuild the Palace of the Legion of Honor. Prince Oscar has laid the corner stone of a church at Rotherhithe, for Scandinavian sailors. The Paris Debate continues the movement of siding with the minority and demands a withdrawal of troops. A duel has taken place between Dolph and Middleton, the latter an Englishman, who has written articles insulting the Garibaldi party. Middleton was wounded. The cholera, typhus, plague, and famines are confirmed and the Governor of Siberia has placed a guard around the city, to prevent any further spreading of the disease. The British embassy and the telegraphists have fled. The previous accounts are unexaggerated.

ORNAMENT YOUR ROOMS.

Give your apartments expression—furnish them. Rooms which mean nothing are cheerless indeed. Study light and shade and the combination of colors. Arrange your drapery, furniture and pictures. Allow nothing to look isolated, but let everything present an air of sociability. Observe a room immediately after a number of people have left it, and then as you arrange the furniture, disturb as little as possible the relative positions of chairs, ottomans and sofas. Place two or three chairs in a conversational attitude in some cheery corner, an ottoman with a cushion of a soft, a chair near your stand or stove, a table of engravings, and one where a good light will fall on the book which you may reach from the table near. Make a little study of effect which shall repay the more than usual observer, and do not leave it possible for one to make the criticism which applies to so many homes, even of the most elegant. "Fine carpets, handsome furniture, a few pictures and elegant nothings—but how dreary!" The chilling atmosphere is felt at once, and we cannot divest ourselves of the idea that we must maintain a stiff and severe demeanor, to accord with the spirit of the place. Make your homes, then, so cozy and cheerful that, if we visit you, we may be joyous and unreserved, and not feel ourselves out of harmony with our surroundings.
