

BY TELEGRAPH.

HARRISBURG, Pa., 6.—W. W. Dantz, who, with his wife and child, were killed by the railroad disaster at Millin last night, is supposed to have been a recently elected member of Congress.

CORNING, N. Y., 6.—Thomas A. Johnson, senior justice of the supreme court of the State of New York, died here last night.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—About 2:30 this morning two companies of the first artillery, United States troops, under the directions of deputy U. S. Marshal Declins, took possession of the State House. Part of the troops were quartered in the Senate chamber, and part in the chamber of the House of Representatives. While the officers and deputy U. S. Marshal took up their quarters in the Governor's anteroom. The doors were closed and guarded, and egress and ingress denied to all except the officers of State. The authority by which the United States officials took possession of the Court House is an order from Judge D. Wells, U. S. Circuit Court, 5th circuit, in the case of Kellogg vs. Warmouth, which recites the proclamation of Gov. Warmouth yesterday, declaring the result of the canvass, as made by the returning officers, was made in violation and contempt of a restraining order issued on the case, and declares it is calculated to disturb the public peace. The U. S. Marshal called on General Emery for troops to execute the order of the court, and they were immediately furnished.

WASHINGTON, 6.—W. W. Danlez, the victim in the R. R. accident near Millin, was an employee of the House of Representatives, and a resident of Princeton, Wis.

HALIFAX, 6.—The proposal of the Western Union Telegraph Co., to purchase the Nova Scotia lines has been unanimously accepted, and arrangements will be immediately made to carry the decision into effect.

The Times says that a New Orleans dispatch states that Judge Durell, who will probably deliver the decision in the Kellogg vs. Warmouth, case has received several letters threatening his life, if he decides in favor of the Governor elect, Kellogg. The better class of citizens repudiate the course of Warmouth, fearing that it will precipitate a conflict with the Federal authorities.

A special from Washington says that Secretary Boutwell has informed the committee of Ways and Means that he intends reviewing the syndicate, and disposing of another installment of the new loan unless Congress takes some action in the premises.

NEW YORK, 6.—The Tribune says that the Misses Greeley are unwilling, under any circumstances, to consent that the plan for a subscription of their benefit shall be carried out. It will be a work of time to determine the condition of Mr. Greeley's estate, but however it may have been impaired by liberality perhaps too great, by a loan of his own credit to those who proved unworthy of it, or by an over-weening confidence in men's promises, there is, it is probable, enough remaining to quiet the generous apprehensions of the community. The Misses Greeley will join in contributing for the purpose of erecting a statue to their father, to perpetuate his memory. Miss Ida suggests that the floral decorations of Dr. Chapin's church be disposed of for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—Warren Stone, the famous surgeon, died this evening, 65 years old.

NEW YORK, 7.—It is reported that Mayor Hall assumes the Herald chair Janury 1st, and Bennet shortly leaves on a two-year European trip.

VICTORIA, V. I., 6.—Yesterday the new Christ Church cathedral was consecrated. In the evening arch-deacon Reese preached a sermon, in which he warmly advocated the adoption of ritualism, with all forms and ceremonies. He said the church of England had been dead for the last century, and predicted its decay unless ritualism were adopted. The sermon was listened to with ill concealed indignation by the congregation. At its close dean Cridge said he raised a protest against the views expressed by Reese. They were wrong and he would not again sit quietly and listen to their expression. The congregation gave vent to their feelings by stamping and clapping, during which a number of ladies retired precipitately.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The Board of Managers of the National Asylum for disabled volunteers, held their annual meeting at the surgeon general's office. President Grant, General Butler, General Martindale, Gov. Smith, Hon. L.

B. Genckel, General Thos. O. Osborn, and Gen. E. B. Wolcott were present. Reports from the various asylums showed that the four regular homes were fuller than ever, nearly 4,000 disabled volunteers being provided for in the different asylums. After the necessary appropriations the Board adjourned until the 4th of March.

Gen. Dyer, the chief of the ordinance bureau, is again very ill of Bright's disease.

WASHINGTON, 5.—The Commissioners representing both branches of the Alabama Legislature are here. That representing Governor Lewis and the Court House body to-day asked an interview with the President, who answered that he preferred that they first confer with the Attorney General, which they will to-morrow. The committee representing the capital branch make a statement of their case on Saturday. While the Attorney General will give full attention to the representation of these Commissioners he will not render any opinion nor take any other action thereon. It is the fixed determination of the Government not to interfere with the political affairs of Alabama unless something should arise under the Constitution of the United States to render interference necessary.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., 5.—Both sides in this State claim the election of their ticket and will endeavor to install themselves in office.

WASHINGTON.—Thurston will be chairman of committee on private land claims. Casserly committee on engrossed bills, Wisdom succeeds Carpenter as chairman of committee on enrolled bills, Pratt will probably succeed Edmunds as chairman of committee on pensions, Morton becomes chairman of committee on privileges and elections.

Secretary Boutwell, before the Ways and Means, informed them that unless the House took action expressing disapproval of his funding operations under the late syndicate, he would proceed in like manner to negotiate the remainder of the loans.

LOUISVILLE, 7.—Number 6450 drew the capital prize $75,000 in the library lottery.

NEW YORK, 7.—A Paris special says the government will adopt one of three courses in reference to the report of the committee of thirty: First, the resignation of the cabinet and the formation of another entirely from the Right Centre and the Left, thus detaching votes from the Right, and organizing a new majority favorable to the government. Second, a formal declaration of the impossibility of continuing the government under existing circumstances, and an appeal for the dissolution of the Assembly. Third, the complete retirement of the government, and the acceptance of a cabinet exclusively from the Right. This latter course is the most unlikely, but it is more probable than the resignation of Thiers.

NEW YORK.—The World says that several prominent business men have just sent by the steamer Tyber, the money, for the purchase of Samana bay, San Domingoh, they having become satisfied that the purchase which Congress rejected would be a profitable one, have renewed the bargain with Baz, on their own account.

SAN FRANCISCO, 5.—A locomotive on the San Jose R. R. was thrown from the track by a cow. The locomotive was turned over and four cars badly smashed. Fortunately nobody was badly hurt.

Matilda Heron states that she has settled all her claims satisfactorily with Carpenter, executor of H. H. Byrne's will.

Wm. M. Lent publishes in the Bulletin a complete history of the diamond business or swindle, from beginning to end.

ASHLAND, Or., 6.—Jos. Beach, with the express from Klamath, has just arrived. He left there yesterday, and reports two more men killed on Lost River, Geo. Fiocke and Chas. Monroe. They had gone out after sheep belonging to Fiocke, and were attacked by Indians and killed. Capt. Kelly and men arrived at Linkkill last night. Troops from Warner and Bidwell were expected to arrive last night. There was still great uneasiness and apprehensions of danger by the citizens.

SALINAS CITY, Cal., 6.—Alsop and Rawlings, while boring an artesian well on the premises of Mr. Riker today, struck a fine flow of gas superior to that discovered on the place of Cervantes. The superiority lies in the fact of its being free from water and gravel. The flame is most brilliant and its force is such that a roaring noise may be heard several hundred yards. The operators inform us that in all the wells they bore in that vicinity gas prevails.

VISALIA, Cal., 8.—The Court House was again crowded last evening to discuss the narrow gauge railroad to Stockton. The subscription list shown covered upwards of $60,000, besides other lists not yet in. A committee of four will proceed to Stockton this week to organize a company and open subscription books. The by-laws endorsed by the meeting contain provisions that the stockholders cannot sell except to original stockholders, without the consent of four-fifths of the remainder, after giving the trustees the preference of purchase. Numbers announced their willingness to do the grading, and furnish teams, and take stock in payment. The hiring of Chinese laborers was strenuously opposed. The farmers living on the Southern Pacific Railroad are taking stock as well as those eastward, giving as a reason that the road would lessen the charges per ton from San Francisco. A telegram, read to the meeting, that one was being held in Stockton, and announcing increased subscriptions there, was received with great enthusiasm.

Ellen Shadden, who ran away from Portland, Oregon, a short time since and came to this city with Pascal Smith, has been abandoned by him, and is in a destitute condition. She applied to chief Crowley for aid and was sent to the hospital, where she will remain till Wednesday, and then start home, the chief having obtained a free passage for the girl. She says Smith pawned every thing she had, except the clothing she wore, and left her without a dollar.

There were 77 deaths in this city during the week.

WASHINGTON, 9.—Several bills were introduced and referred. One by Hubbard of N. H., for an amendment to the Constitution authorizing Congress to fix a uniformity of time for State elections.

Resolutions of the Vermont legislature were presented, favoring civil service reform, and the abolition of the franking privilege.

Banks offered resolutions, fixing the salary of the President at fifty thousand, commencing March, 1873, and that the term of office of the President and Vice President be six years; that the President be ineligible for re-election; and that the President and Vice President be elected by the people at the same time that congressmen are elected.

A Jamaica letter states that a large number of wealthy Cubans are leaving Cuba and purchasing plantations.

The Herald's Washington special states that the credit mobilier investigation will show that several Congressmen accepted enormous dividends from that concern, which they devoted to charitable and political purposes. They will show they were not identified with the management of the concern, or with the legislation for it.

The Express will be issued notwithstanding the fire.

BALTIMORE, Md 9.—Jesse Hunt, a prominent citizen of this place, died on Sunday, aged 80.

OTTAWA, Ont 9.—A fire destroyed ten stores, loss $40,000.

CINCINNATI, 9.—The steamer Frank P. Tracy sunk with 400 bales of cotton aboard.

A club of ten persons at Columbus, Ind., held the ticket 6,450, which drew $75,000 in the Louisville lottery.

NEW ORLEANS, 9.—The fusion members of the legislature are assembling at the Lyceum Hall. They were in caucus this morning. Each member, as he passed in, was served by the deputy U. S. marshal with a copy of Durell's restraining order. The Mechanics' Institute is still in charge of the military. Both sides claim a quorum in the House.

IOWA CITY, 9.—A. H. Brainard, post master, is charged by his clerks with perjury, theft and embezzlement.

CAIRO, 9.—The dry goods store of Plum and Amsor was mysteriously robbed of twenty thousand in currency on Sunday.

WASHINGTON, 8.—The Japanese minister has received details of the new educational system of Japan, which embraces the organization of eight colleges, 256 high schools and over 53,000 public schools, at which the attendance is compulsory for all children above six years old.

Cape of Good Hope advices state that a fierce battle had occurred in the interior between the Krel people and the Tambookies, in which the latter were whipped and from 400 to 1,000 slaughtered. Many of the natives were armed with Enfield and other European arms.

NEW ORLEANS, 11.—A large meeting of citizens who opposed the recent action of Judge Durell, in the contest between Kellogg and Warmouth, was held this evening. Speeches were made by Gov. Warmouth, and by Col. McEmery, who was returned as governor by the regular returning board. Both counseled moderation and an appeal to Congress. A memorial was received from the chamber of commerce, which was in full sympathy with the members of Warmouth's party. A committee of 100 was appointed by the meeting to visit the President and Congress, and to lay their grievances before them, and ask that the Federal troops be withdrawn from the State House and the people be left to govern themselves, or else that the present conflict of authority be quieted by the establishment of a military government throughout the State.

Judge Ellmore of the 8th district court, has issued an injunction upon the petition of Warmouth, restraining Pinchbeck from interfering with Warmouth in the discharge of his duties as governor and from attempting to take possession of that office, or exercising the duties of governor of Louisiana in the meantime. Pinchbeck has sent a message to the Legislature, recommending prompt action in the case of the impending impeachment against Gov. Warmouth, and a vigorous searching investigation regarding the election frauds, with a view of punishing the guilty.

Over 11,000 acres of public lands were disposed of at the Olympia Land office in November.

CITY OF MEXICO, 6.—A decree declaring Tejada President was published November 18. He took the oath of office on Saturday. Congress adjourns next Saturday, after which several changes will be made in the cabinet.

Porfirio Diaz has had a satisfactory interview with Tejada.

Telegraphic communication with the U. S. is restored.

Details of the loss of the steamship Guatemala show that when the ship was wrecked the crew lauded. The Leper Indians declined to assist them, when Captain Douglas and a few determined men seized their chief and made him furnish provisions and guide them to Salina Cruz, near Oaxaca. The American consular agent at Oaxaca declined aiding Capt. Douglas and his destitute crew and passengers, and but for the efforts of a private citizen named Cremon they would have suffered extremely.

LOS ANGELES, 7.—A wind storm on the plains last night was the most violent known for years.

LONDON, 10.—The gale continued yesterday with less severity than on Sunday. Intelligence continues to arrive of disasters on sea and land. The damage in London is considerable. Six houses were blown down and forty persons injured. A brig foundered off the west coast of the Isle of Wight and all aboard perished. The bark Strayland, from Hamburg for New York, was wrecked on Kimarridge ledge, but the crew were saved. A gasometer attached to the royal arsenal at Woolwich was damaged. The past two nights telegraphing has been impeded.

LONDON, 10.—The chief officer of the steamer City of Bristol landed at Queenstown yesterday from a sailing vessel to procure assistance. He reported the steamer on the 4th inst. in longitude 20 west, all well on board. It is believed that her shaft is broken. Steamers were sent to tow her in port. Subsequently she arrived safely at Queenstown.

Several gas stokers, summoned under the Masters and Servants' Act to appear to answer to the charge of conspiracy, were found guilty and sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment.

The telegraph wires in Ireland, which were prostrated by the gales, have not yet been fully restored.

PARIS.—A deputation of Moderate Republicans in the National Assembly called on Thiers yesterday to express their apprehensions that he was leaning too far towards the party of the Right. The President in response assured them that he would uphold the firm and unshaken policy announced in his message at the opening of the session.

MADRID, 10.—A body of Carlists entered the town of Manresa in the province of Barcelona, yesterday, but the troops repulsed them after a sharp fight.

PARIS, 11.—The city was visited by a terrible gale yesterday. Several buildings were demolished and others damaged.