for if we remember rightly this is not the first instance of the exten-sion of the pardoning power for crimes of that sort. Our readers will remember the rumors of the appointment of Claggett of Monta-na to investigate or look after some alleged abuses in official circles up north. The story was that Mr. C. went to work so energetically that he unearthed considerable villainy, but the guilty parties having been friends of those in power, for his industry and faithfulnees Mr. C. promptly lost his official head. So the story has been told. Now comes another tale from the story has been told. Now comes another tale from Montana of a similar kind. Else-where in to-day's NEWS will be found an extract from the Deer Lodge New North-West. Three men, Ensign, Giddings and Up-ham, are charged with conspiracy, to defraud we presume. One Jones, cup even to the dregs; but I ought not to complain for the Emperor lost both the throne and his life, returning from California.

—Indictments have been found against over forty persons, supposed to have been implicated in the murder of the negroes taken, some weeks since, from the jail at Trenton, Tenn.
—The trial of the parties implicated in the assest against Jones, under instructions from the Attorney General in Washington, has appeared and dismissed the suit.
