Wonderful Results of Its Proper Application in Due Case. Madame Charlotte de Goliere Davenport, who is making a lecture tour of the United States, is in the city. The madame is a superb specimen of womanhood at her age, which, by the way, is much greater than appearances would indicate. One would think that the vivacious, bright and supple-formed woman was between 35 and 40 years old-not more than 40-but the surprise comes when madame gives the info matioin that she is close approaching years. Madame Davenport is a be lever in, exponent of and practicer of proper physical culture and develop She decries the use of medicines ment. and advocates a proper attention to dieting, and her objection to mechanial appliances in physical training is very strong. "I do not believe." madame, "in the use of instruments of appliances nor in liver pills, etc., but I idvocate a proper physical training by the free use of the limbs and body and the use of healthy foods. The people here eat too much. I am in my tieth year and am the mother of eleven sons but you can see that I don't lool as old as some women do at 70." sertainly the madame carried herseli ike a vigorous young woman. She was born in Switzerland, of Russian and Polish parentage, and is the wife of a firginian. One of her sons accom panies her and she is stopping at the anitarium, intending to give a free lecture here in the near future. amannan

Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield will gladly furnish any furto ther information, between the ho 10 and 12 a. m. each day at his office in the city and county building. The auction sale will be held in the City Council chamber commencing on Monday, June 17th, at 10 o'clock a. m and ladies attending the sale will be provided with comfortable seats. The properties on North Main and east First South streets were surveyed this week and stakes have been placed at the corners of each lot, so that if prospective purchasers clip the plats from the newspapers they can get the size and number of the lot and locate the lot from the printed diagram. These lots have now a stable intrinsic value and the Council is anxious to obtain as near to the actual value as can be done at public auction, and to have the lots pass into the possession of people who will improve them. The taxes from such improvements will be ad-vantageous to the city and enhance the of neighboring property. Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield says that he has been kept busy for the last few days answering the many inquiries made by prospective purchasers who realize that in purchasing property at the city's sale they will be paying only net prices.
