

foreigners as fall under the provisions of the circular issued by the National Government in October last.

Concord, N. H.—The lower branch of the legislature stands 191 Republicans, the Democrats. Herriman's majority is about 2,600.

Washington, 13.—Senate.—By eleven o'clock the ladies' gallery was packed with a brilliant audience, as upon a full dress opera night. The Senators' seats were arranged as before. In an open space in front of the President's chair were two long tables, each furnished with seven chairs: one table is intended for the managers, the other for the counsel. At the back of the Senators' seats, filling the entire lobby, are about 200 chairs, intended for the accommodation of the members of the House, the judiciary and others entitled to be present on the floor. By half past eleven half the Senators had ranged themselves in little knots, discussing the momentous question of the day. It was noticeable that there was not a single negro in the galleries. Everything was conducted with perfect order. The Chaplain invoked a blessing upon those now entering upon this important duty. A bill, to amend the act of '89, came from the House to be signed and received the signature of the President pro tem. The Senate insisted upon the amendments to the congressional appropriation bill and appointed a committee of conference thereon. At 10 o'clock, the morning hour having expired, the Chief Justice took his chair, the Sergeant-at-Arms made the proclamation in the usual form and the Secretary read the journal of the last meeting of the court. A large number of Representatives, headed by the managers of the impeachment meanwhile were standing in file outside the door. The Sergeant-at-Arms notified the House that the Senate was organized as a court of impeachment and was ready to proceed with the trial of Andrew Johnson. Immediately therefore, the managers and members of the House took the seats provided for them. Butler being absent, the Senators who had not already done so, took the oath.

LOCAL ITEMS.

GRANTSVILLE.—A correspondent writes us from Grantsville, Tooele Co., that notwithstanding the occasional rain and snow storms, the farmers in that vicinity have been busy preparing for putting in grain. Some query if the grasshoppers will not destroy the crops, but the feeling is to sow and plant, which is the only wise course to pursue. A call was made lately by the watermaster there, to dig a waste water ditch about half a mile long, for the convenience of the people. The call was heartily responded to, and the work was speedily accomplished. The people are united, energetic, and manifest their faith by their works. Much interest is manifested through the county in collecting means to send for the poor Saints in foreign lands, and considerable is being contributed. On Sunday, 7th, Grantsville was favored with a visit from Elder Orson Pratt and Bishop Rowberry, who held meeting and had a very crowded audience, and much of the good Spirit was enjoyed.

Please write us again, friend "Locum Tenens."

MANTI.—Bro. James C. Brown, writing from Manti, Sanpete County, on the 9th inst., says:—"The troubles we have had in Sanpete with the Indians, have been the cause of checking improvements to a great degree, but the spirit of progression has again rested upon the people to a greater extent, I believe, than it has done for years. Several of the brethren have, during the past summer and fall, built themselves rock houses; and quite a number are taking steps to follow their example. Messrs. Tuttle and Fox, of this town, have commenced to erect a store on the first block northeast of the Council House, and by the start they have made I should judge it will be a nice building when completed.

Our new grist mill belonging to M. D. Hambleton & Co., is doing good business, and turns a No. 1 article.

A saw mill is being erected by Messrs. Spencer, Kenner & Co., which will be a great blessing to this settlement. They intend to have it running by April, so that if the Indians be peaceable during the ensuing summer, the prospect is good for obtaining all the lumber we may want.

I am happy to say that the teachings of the President at the last October Conference have not been allowed to go unnoticed, for with many they have taken deep root, and the fruits thereof are already visible to the observing eye.

We have got a Sabbath School that is largely patronized by our youth. Our day schools are well attended also. In short all things seem to be moving along in the right direction, and peace and tranquility are in the midst of this people.

DOGONIT.—A grand funeral bow-wow of the canine family will be held in the street between the Exchange Buildings and Dunford & Co's store to take into consideration the propriety of embalming the remains of "one who possessed beauty without vanity, strength without insolence, courage without ferocity and the virtues" of a legally licensed "dog." On the occasion Sickem and Gitout, two able "purses" from the Slaughter House District, will wall a lamentation for the departed instinct of the deceased, and show strong causes why the remains should not be entitled to the further action of a tropical sun. All respectable canines of either gender, duly registered, are invited to attend. Proceeds will be used to form a corporation fund to prevent the obnoxious effluvia naturally arising from defunct carcasses.

NEW ORGAN.—"Who is going to pump the new organ?" is a question so frequently asked now-a-days, that we might just as well satisfy and allay the public anxiety on that matter now as any other time. Once for all we will say that bro. Charles Moore will undoubtedly receive the appointment, as he is entitled to it by lineal descent and priority of practice. Of course there will be a multitude of disappointed applicants for office, but the calamity is unavoidable. Should an assistant be actually necessary, he will exercise the sole discretionary power of appointment. Charley, we congratulate you on the way of the world in your favor, and hope you may always be able to "raise the wind." Would it not be grateful in the Tabernacle Choir and church going public to correspond a little with Charley, and ascertain his feelings in regard to extending him a Benefit?

OMINOUS.—We have already heard of "the good time coming," but the financial condition of every body's pocket just now, would indicate that we survive at present in the very meridian of the mean time. What says the Judge?

THE WEATHER.—An item elsewhere tells the state of the weather in this city.

By Deseret Telegraph Line:—

Provo; cloudy, three inches of snow; looks like more.

Payson; very cloudy, snow five inches deep.

Manti; snowing, looks like continuing. The roads are bad.

Fillmore; cold; snowed last night.

Tokerville; fine; a few clouds.

St. George; slight shower of rain last night—bright and warm.—Thermometer 60.

WINTRY.—Yesterday a south wind blew all day, and there was evidently a "gathering" to the north and north west. This morning the face of nature was cold and wintry looking, a sheet of snow covering mountain and valley. Hail and snow fell at intervals through the forenoon, and underfoot the slush and mud from melting snow made walking very disagreeable. The sun shone brightly in a clear sky in the afternoon.

WE ARE indebted to Elder George A. Smith for the following communication:—

St. George, March 2d, 1868.

Elder George A. Smith:

DEAR BROTHER.—Elder James Craig (bugler of pioneers) of Santa Clara, died at a quarter past 2 this morning.

He died in full fellowship, and was an efficient acting teacher in the Santa Clara ward at the time he was taken with the sickness which resulted in his death.

Yours in the Gospel.

JAMES G. BLEAK.

Bro. Craig will be remembered by all the Pioneers, as his bugle notes so often called them to duty and prayer on that long and then terrible journey. He was a native of Ireland, but received the gospel in Canada. He filled a mission to Europe in 1856-7, laboring in England and in his native land. Since his return he moved from this valley to "Dixie," where he resided until his death.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

YEAR 1868.

CASH!

WE return our sincere thanks to this People for the liberal Patronage we have received, and in view of the great scarcity of money and the decline in the value of some kinds of Goods east, we have determined to offer our Stock at a heavy Discount for

CASH!

WE will allow a Discount of TEN PER CENT. on all Groceries, except Tea, Sugar, Coffee, Candles and Soap.

A Discount of TEN PER CENT. on all Dry Goods, Clothing and Hardware, except Nails, Horse and Mule Shoes.

A Discount of TWENTY PER CENT. on Hoods, Nubias, and all Goods of this description, including Hats and Caps.

A Discount of from TEN to TWENTY PER CENT. on all kinds of Dishes, Plates, Cups and Saucers, Glassware, Castors, &c., &c.

ARGUMENT:

THIS we think better for the Customer than Enterprises on the Lottery Plan, these having been tried elsewhere and not found profitable to the investors.

The People know quite well already who sells the Cheapest and Best Goods, and when they get them, knowing them to be cheap, and then get a Discount of from Ten to Twenty per Cent, we think they will come to the conclusion that it is better to have the full benefit of what they spend at once and on the spot, than take ONE Chance in FIFTY of drawing something, some time in the future.

You are not required to purchase "Ten Dollars" worth to entitle you to the Discount, but we will allow it in all cases, whether the purchase be large or small.

This is to give the poor man or poor woman, who cannot get hold of "Ten Dollars," a chance to buy Goods Cheap.

COME AND TRY IT.

WHY DO WE OFFER THESE TERMS?

Because we are like most of our neighbors wanting money badly.

Ross & Barratt.
