As big as the grand Pyramid might be built of the teeth that have been ruined by neglect. Shall this thing go in face of the great fact that SOZODONT is a certain preservative of dental decay?

The Richfield players—Robert Shaw, Levi Axtel, Isaac K. Wright, O. Rose, James Sellers, Jos. Thurber, John Allen, David Ainsworth, and L. Nebeker, made a score of 32 runs, 27 outs and 5 left on bases.

History of Joseph Smith.—A revived interest has lately been manifested among the Latter-day Saints in matters pertaining to the life and history of Joseph Smith, the great prophet of the nineteenth century, raised up as an instrument of the Almighty, in ushering in the dispensation of the fulness of times. This interest has been strengthened greatly by the lectures of Elder Joseph F. Smith, on the "Early History of the Church," he having created a renewed impetus in this direction.

In view of the increased desire of the people for this kind of information, the editor of the Juvenile Instructor has concluded to soon begin the re-publication of the History of Joseph Smith in that valuable periodical. This will be welcome news to those who want to become familiar with the history, in its first [illegible], of the most important work ever commenced on the earth.

A Candid Admission.—The annexed letter was published in the Carmarthen (Wales) Weekly Reporter, and is interesting, as admitting a fact that, though clear as the sun at noonday, is not often acknowledged by persons not connected with the church. We refer to the admission that the doctrines held by the Latter day Saints "cannot be easily confuted from the written word of God." Not only can they not be easily thus confuted, but their confutation in that way is an absolute impossibility, those doctrines being in accordance with the word of God—

To the Editor of the Weekly Reporter.

Sir—Yesterday evening, more for curiosity than anything else, I went to hear two Mormon apostles preach at the town-hall, in this place. The meeting was called to order by Thomas C. Martell, son of the highly respected late Mr. John Martell, of this town. After prayer and singing, the president introduced his fellow laborer by the name of Evans, who, after speaking at considerable length, and with great warmth, concluded by quoting Scripture to prove that unless a man was baptized he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.

No sooner had the first speaker got through with his discourse than another Mr. Evans in the congregation got up, and condemned his doctrine, and that he could prove from scripture that the thief who was hanged on the cross ascended with the Saviour to God the Father. (Cries in the assembly, "yes, yes," etc.)

After getting the house to order, the president very politely invited any person wishing to take up the subject to come to the platform, or if no one wished to do so, he would take up the subject. He then read Luke xxiii, 43: "And Jesus said unto him, verily I say unto thee, to-day shalt thou be with me in paradise." John xx, 17: "Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father," and I Peter iii, 18, 19, and showed plainly therefrom, to my astonishment, and, I believe, to the amazement of all present, that there is no scriptural ground to the popular and almost universal opinion that the thief on the cross ever was saved.

It appears that both of the speakers have been to Salt Lake, and lived with the Mormons there for over twenty years. I must say, that, although I went to the meeting greatly prejudiced against the Mormons and Mormonism, I there was convinced that they or their doctrine can not easily be confuted from the written word of God.

I am, Sir,
Yours, etc.
A LOVER OF TRUTH.

ST. CLEARS, March 14, 1876.

Rising.—The proportions of Weber River are rapidly swelling, with prospects of an overflow.

Quilts.—The party who lost a couple of bed-quilts lately, can get them at the County Court House.

The Cannibalistic Case.—Graham, who despoiled Joseph Cuthbert of one of his ears, on Monday night, by biting it off, waived a preliminary examination yesterday afternoon, and Justice Pyper held him in $500 bonds, to answer to the grand jury.

Homestead Patents.—The following homestead patents have been published as having been received at the land office in this city and being ready for delivery—

No. 66, William Gedge; 420, Jonathan Smith; 460, Thomas Slater; 464, William Green; 465, Benj. B. Neff; 467, Neil Gardner; 469, William H. Anderson; 470, John Baker; 471, John G. Jones; 472, Alexander Gillespie.

The Emperor of Brazil.—The Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil and suite was expected to reach Omaha this morning, on his way westward, and Mayor Little has telegraphed to him at that point, tendering him the hospitalities of Salt Lake City. He will arrive at Ogden on Saturday, where he will be met by a special delegation, appointed by the City Council, and by whom, should his Majesty accept the courtesy extended to him through the Mayor, he will be escorted to this City.

The Visit to Ogden.—The building dedicated at Ogden yesterday was erected by the ladies of the Relief society there, and is to be used for the manufacture and sale of home productions, such as straw goods, etc. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder Joseph F. Smith, after which addresses were delivered by Prest. B. Young, John Taylor, B. Young, Jr., W. Woodruff, Orson Pratt and Jos. F. Smith, and remarks were also made by a number of ladies present. President Young and party returned to the city in the evening.

Accidental Poisoning.—Yesterday Abraham O. Smoot, aged about eighteen years, son of Bishop W. A. O. Smoot, of Sugar House Ward, while at work on the dam of the paper mill, ate a quantity of segoes, some of which happened to be of the poisonous kind. In the evening, after reaching home, he was taken very ill, and it was some time before he admitted having eaten the segoes, and as soon as the fact was discovered, emetics and other usual remedies were applied, and the lad vomited a quantity of the poisonous substance, some of which, however, had had time to impregnate the blood, causing his death this morning.

A warning to all, and especially to parents to caution their children in regard to the sego plants.

Bad Runaway Accident.—This afternoon, as Brother Joseph E. Taylor, City Sexton, was driving up Third East Street, his team took fright and ran away. Rushing upon the sidewalk the wagon collided with an obstruction and by the shock Brother Taylor was thrown out upon the ground with great violence. He was picked up by some residents of the neighborhood, conveyed to the house of Mr. Francis Platt, and from thence he was carried, on a lounge, to his own home, on First South Street. Drs. Anderson and Benedict were soon in attendance, and we are glad to be able to state that it was found that no bones were broken, and, although the gentleman is badly bruised and shaken, his injuries are not considered dangerous.

The team made directly for home, and, by sundry collisions, the light wagon was made almost a total wreck, the cover being picked up in one place, the box in another and the running-gears somewhere else. The springs, tongue, etc., were badly broken up.

Dedication of the Ladies' Store.—This morning President Brigham Young, Elders John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, Orson Pratt, Brigham Young, Jun., and Joseph F. Smith, of the Twelve Apostles, a number of other Elders, also Sisters E. R. Snow, Zina Young, and many other ladies of the Relief Society, came up from Salt Lake in a special train, to attend to the dedication of the Relief Society's new store, on Fifth Street, in this city. The officers of the Relief and Young Ladies' Societies, the President and Bishop of this Stake, and several local Elders, with the visitors from Salt Lake, assembled in the building at 11 a.m.

The dedication prayer was offered by Elder Joseph F. Smith, after which President Young gave a very interesting and instructive address upon woman's work in the plan of salvation, showing that she was a co-worker with man, and had her own part to perform. He alluded to the follies and extravagance of both sexes, described what constituted true beauty, gave some excellent counsel, and closed by invoking the peace and blessing of God upon the ladies' societies in this city.

He was followed by the use of the Twelve present, and a number of ladies, and a very interesting and profitable time was spent.

After the meeting the visitors repaired to the residence of Prest. Richards and partook of refreshments and the party returned at 2 o'clock this afternoon.—Ogden Junction, April 10.
