LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—The Zavistowiski Sisters, in the burlesque of "Ixion," drew another large house last night. The performances were conducted with a vim and raciness even superior to those of the preceding evening.

This evening, they will appear in the burlesque of "Cinderella," Miss Christine Zavistowski as "Prince Poppetti," Miss Eveline Zavistowski as "Dandino," Miss Alice Zavistowski as "Cinderella," Miss Henrietta Grainger as "Thisbe." Miss Adams, and Messrs. Thorne, Graham, and Lorraine also appear in suitable characters.

"Cinderella" will be preceded by the farce of "Trials of Tompkins," in which Carrie Carlee, and Messrs. Graham and Marden will appear.

The Emerson Minstrels are expected to commence a three days' engagement on Monday, June 10.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Miss Edith O'Gorman, "the escaped nun," lectures at the Tabernacle to-night. She announces that she gives names, dates, &c., in connection with her narrative lecture.

Doors open at half-past seven, commence at eight.

FLOURISHING.—Our city contemporary, the Herald, has just completed the second year of its existence and entered upon the third. It is an enterprising and ably conducted sheet, and we congratulate its publishers on the success which it has met thus far. It appears this morning in an enlarged form, being now the same size as it was during a portion of last year.

HOW IS IT?—The annual spring flood is tearing down North Temple St. at a prodigious rate, occasionally overflowing the banks of the paved water-course (which, by bye, is one of the best things the city ever did), washing the streets, and causing the removal or lifting of the bridges, besides occasioning other inconveniences. While all this is going on, several of the water wells east of the State Road are dry, or nearly so, and the residents of that part of the city have little or no water for either irrigating or domestic purposes, except they pump it out of wells. This is an important matter, and it needs early attention.

At this time of the year, all main watercourses should be made to carry their full portion of water.

We have heard strong complaints from residents of the Seventh Ward to the effect that the gardens in that vicinity are suffering severely for want of water. The cause of this scarcity is not altogether on account of the amount of water flowing from the main stream to the branch ditches being extremely limited, but greatly on account of the latter being much obstructed where new buildings are in course of construction. We repeat that measures with a view to supplying the people with a plentiful supply of water for irrigating, etc., cannot be adopted too soon. If the matter is not attended to promptly, it will be a source of great loss to many of the citizens.

THE POULTRY WORLD, No. 4, for April, is a new monthly, devoted to the interests which its name indicates. It is well got up, printed on good paper, and filled with interesting and liberally illustrated articles upon domestic fowls and matters pertaining to them. Published by Van Benschoten, Stoddard and Lockwood, Hartford, Conn.

THE STREET RAILROAD.—This afternoon one of the street cars was run on the track for the purpose of having the curves spiked in their proper places. The track is nearly complete to the Eagle Emporium, and the workmen are engaged on East Temple street, preparing the road for ties.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—Two days' meetings were held at Grantsville on Saturday and Sunday last. Elder Orson Pratt, President Joseph Young and Elder George W. Groo were present. On their way to Grantsville, on Friday, they held a meeting at E. T., at which all three spoke, and a good time was enjoyed. A good spirit also prevailed at the Grantsville meetings, the above named brethren occupied most of the time in instructing the people on the principles of the gospel. They also visited the Sunday school there, which is in excellent working order.

LOST ANIMALS.—Some of the residents of the 13th Ward complain of parties letting their animals loose at night, which get over the fences and damage the lots. Where the owners of loose animals refuse to keep their stock up, after being remonstrated with, those whose property is damaged in this way should have the animals secured and the amount of damage done estimated by arbitrators who are disinterested.

TWO DAYS' MEETINGS.—Brother D. S. Andrew sends us a report of two days meetings held at Santaquin, June 1st and 2nd. Here is the gist of it:

Saturday forenoon was occupied by the following missionaries—Bishop Tanner, of Payson, who dwelt on the importance of parents teaching their children the principles of the kingdom of God, followed by Elder W. N. Dusenbury, who delivered an instructive address on the nature, design and probable results of the home missions, and Elder O. Simons, of Payson, who referred to the necessity of the Saints being instant in season and ready at all times to do the will of the Lord. President D. H. Holladay concluded the morning services by delivering a short adress.

In the afternoon Elder J. B. Milner of Provo, delivered an able discourse on the first principles of the gospel. Bishop Bringhurst followed on the power of God in the midst of his Saints, and the glory that would be revealed at the second coming of the Son of God, and Elders Peter Madson, F. Bergen and J. Hansen addressed the Scandinavians.

On Sunday morning Elder Evans occupied an hour speaking on the beauty, order and power of the Latter-day work; Bishop Thurber, of Spanish Fork, and Bishop W. Price, of Goshen, were the next speakers.

In the afternoon Elder L. John Nuttall, Henry Boyle, B. F. Johnson, J. B. Milner and W. Dusenbury were the speakers. An excellent spirit prevailed throughout the entire proceedings.

"THE MOUNTAIN LION".—The mine known by this name was, we understand, the first located in Ophir District, East Kanyon. It is owned by Messrs O. E. Bates, Joseph Woodmansee and L. W. Clark. The company recently had thirty-three tons of ore from the mine crushed and sampled at Williams' mill. The samples represent three classes of ore, and yield from $210 to $589 to the ton.

Three shafts have been sunk in this mine, the deepest of which is a little over one hundred feet.

We are informed that Walkers' mill, in East Kanyon, is doing a fine business.

CHICAGO DIRECTORY.—We have received the Carriers' Monthly Business Directory of Chicago for April, which contains 120 closely printed pages, and is a valuable work of reference to all persons who do much or varied business with that city. Published by the Western News Company, Chicago.

RICH COUNTY.—We were visited at our office to-day by Col. J. C. Rich, otherwise known as "Saxey." He left Bear Lake Valley a week ago yesterday, coming by way of Soda Springs and Cache Valley, and arrived in town last night. He informs us that a large portion of the hay land in Bear Lake Valley is under water. Should the water recede as rapidly as anticipated it will not injure but rather improve the hay crop. Should it remain for any length of time, however, it would have a very prejudicial effect, by leaving the grass liable to be caught by early frosts. There is a sheet of water about four miles in width between Paris and Montpelier. Luckily none of the grain fields are submerged, and the crops are up and looking beautiful and promising.

He says there some crickets in the northern and a few grasshoppers in the southern part of Cache Valley, but thinks they are not sufficiently numerous to do any considerable damage to the crops, which now look most encouraging.

Since writing the above, we have had a call from General C. C. Rich, who came down from Bear Lake at the same time as his son Joseph, both on their way to the east on a mission, to which they were called at the last Annual Conference. Brother C. C. Rich will accompany President Young to Brigham City on Saturday and will be present at the two days' meetings to be held there. On Monday himself and Brother Joseph will leave Ogden for Massachusetts, making a stay of a few days in Illinois on the way thither. They purpose being present at a meeting, to which they have been invited, of members of every branch of the Rich family in America, which representation is expected to consist of several thousand people. The meeting will continue two days, June 26th and 27th, and will be held at Truro, Mass. This reunion of the Rich family was inaugurated by a number of gentlemen named Rich, residents of Boston. It is stated that the family genealogy has been traced back several hundred years. On their return from Massachusetts, the aforementioned brethren will visit Kentucky, where they will spend some time laboring in fulfilment of their mission.
