Fair tonight and Wednesday.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Higher pressure overlies the lower lake region. The area of low pressure remains stationary. Light scattered precipitation occurred over the eastern slope of the Rocky mountains, the Mis-souri and upper Mississippi valleys, with rain still falling this morning at Dodge City, and Galveston. Clear weather generally prevailed through-out the plateau region with temperatures somewhat lower than yesterday. L. LODHOLZ,

The bids will be sent to Wash-ington and the contracts awarded there.

Gien Miller has rented his north State street home to Joseph Geoghegan, who is now occupying it, and in a few days Mr. Miller and family will go east for the summer. Mr. Miller expects to take his family to Europe, but if desired sailing arrangements cannot be completed, they will remain all summer in New England. Mr. Geoghegan is to build a new home elsewhere, as the recollections of recent experiences are such as would make it unpleasant to resume residence on the old location. Mr. Goghegan has received from the Home Fire insurance company of this city the full insurance of $4,062,50 en his house, and the Home's share of $16,72 on the furniture. The remainder of the total of $1,614 on the contents of the house is also being paid up. Glen Miller has rented his north Stat
