The defendant was upon the stand for more than three hours, and made a very good impression. He was still upon the England at the age of 19, and left his native land to gather with the Saints in Utah in February, 1852, and after stand when the court was adjourned. The case may be concluded tomorrow.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs. "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemor-rhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and pre-vents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes, F. J. Hill Drug Co.

Special Correspondence.

Manti, Sanpete Co., March 28,--A ward conference of the Manti North ward was held at the Tabernacle yesterday, the purpose being the reorganizing of the ward and the installation of a Bishopric. President Lewis Anderson of the stake presided, who spoke feelingly of the labors of the former Bishop, Willlam T. Reid, and his counselors, and advised the Saints as to their prerogatives in considering the names to be presented.

Niels R. Petersen was unanimously sustained as Bishop of the ward, with Francis M. Cox and Joseph Hatten Carpenter, counselors. Elder Petersen was one of Bishop Reid's counselors before the death of the latter. This makes a strong Bishopric, and the support of the people is most cordial. Death has claimed another good citlzen in the person of Peter Ipson, a resi-dent of this city. Consumption was the complaint with which deceased had suf-fered some time. He was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and a large family of small children. The deceased was a member of the Church in full fellowship, and the funeral services will be held under the direction of the Fourth ward Bishopric. Until a few days ago Mr. Ipson was upon the streets apparently feeling better ater a long and tedious illness, and he hoped for recovery, as he felt better than for many months. Funeral services will occur on Tuesday at 2 p. m. About the heaviest fall of snow that has been seen here this winter, fell Thursday night and Friday morning. Our citizens were happily surprised to see such a storm, as it indicates profit-
