

DOES LOVE LAUGH AT DIPLOMACY?

State Department's Services Invoked to Prevent American Girl's Marriage.

LICENSE HAD BEEN OBTAINED.

Miss Garwood, the fiancée, regards interference of her relatives as gratuitous.

Paris, June 4.—The heroine of the proposed marriage which the machinery of the state department at Washington was put into motion to prevent, is Miss Isabel Garwood, a white-haired woman, who gives New York as her home. She is now at the Continental hotel here. The prospective bridegroom is Count Bettino di Moise Padua, whom Miss Garwood met in Egypt. The engagement was announced in the dispatches April 16.

The intervention of the state department was obtained through the Rev. John B. Quinn of the Church of the Ascension, Washington. At the instance of Miss Garwood's sister, Miss Frances Garwood of New York, the state department transmitted to Ambassador White here, results of its investigation into the record of the count's life in New York and his antecedents in Italy, which were obtained by Baron Mayor des Planches, Italian ambassador to the United States.

According to this information, the count is not an Italian nobleman, but an Austrian, who practiced medicine for several years in New York with his brother. On the death of the brother, it was said, he contracted a common law marriage with his sister-in-law, but he claimed that four years ago he effected a settlement with her and that she returned to Austria. It also is alleged that in the count's residence in New York he was twice tried, once for selling medicine illegally, and once for malpractice, but was acquitted.

The wedding was set for yesterday and a license had been obtained. According to Miss Garwood, the marriage was not broken off on account of the intervention of her sister, but by the count himself when he received a letter from a brother in Austria, who had learned of the proposed marriage, saying that his sister-in-law claimed that the bond between herself and the count had been annulled.

Miss Garwood says that the count was astounded at this contention and has now gone to Italy to obtain from his father proof of the settlement with the woman.

Miss Garwood says she regards the interference of her relatives in the matter as gratuitous.

PATRICK'S PETITION FOR HABEAS CORPUS DENIED

New York, June 4.—Albert T. Patrick's application for a writ of habeas corpus releasing him from Sing Sing prison, where he is under life sentence for the murder of William Marsh Rice, was unanimously denied today by the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn. In support of the writ

Patrick several weeks ago made a sensational personal appeal to the court in which he declared the commutation of his death sentence by Gov. Hughes meant a sentence worse than death. He claimed that the prosecuting officer should show cause why he should not be released or put to death.

In the opinion, which was written by Justice Jenks, the most striking paragraph was one holding that "the degree of punishment is not determined by the preference of the convict." This was in answer to Patrick's declaration that life imprisonment was a greater hardship than death.

"I find no force in the contention that there cannot be a commutation of the punishment of death to that of life imprisonment, because commutation implies a lesser punishment but life imprisonment is a greater punishment than death. It is the common judgment of man that to deprive the criminal of his life is the greatest punishment known to modern times. The people of this state have in effect determined that this penalty is the most severe by prescribing it as the punishment for the highest crime only—murder in the first degree and treason—and by prescribing that in the form of case only the appeal is direct to our highest court. There can be no question, then, as regards the offender, our scheme of punishment regards that punishment which leaves life is less than that which ends it."

The relator argued that he had never accepted that commutation; but he concedes in his printed points that commutation does not require his acceptance. Such, I think, is the law."

A THIRILLING RESCUE.
How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not think I was a hopeless case. He gave me a course of treatment, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever."

Lean, who is now in Cheney, Wash., writes: "I was suffering from Croup, Coughs, and Whooping Cough. I used Dr. King's New Discovery, and it cured me. I am now as well as ever."

TO USE DRAMA FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES

New York, June 5.—The committee of 100, composed of the foremost professional and business men of the city, has under consideration a plan to use the drama in the coming municipal campaign as a vehicle of political education.

If the plan is approved, a play will be written to order by a prominent playwright with Tammany in the role of villain. A competent manager will be engaged and the play produced at some theater in each borough as long as it makes a hit. Tickets will be free.

The estimated cost is $25,000. The idea is to have the tax rate the central theme. The hero has prepared a home for the heroine in some New York suburb within the city limits, but the rising tax rates make it impossible for him to pay the interest on the mortgage in which it is shown that the political boss is interested, the mortgage is foreclosed and the home is lost.

ARMENIANS IN MASSACRE DISTRICTS NEED HELP

Washington, June 4.—Help is needed in the districts of Asiatic Turkey, where the recent massacre of Armenians has left a number of widows and dependent orphans. Thirty thousand people are being supported by the relief committee at Adana, composed largely of American missionaries. This information from Ambassador Leishman was received at the state department today. No more funds are available at Red Cross headquarters.

BOY ADMITS KILLING BOY.

Nashville, Tenn., June 4.—Edgar Sebar, 16 years old, was called from his home in West Nashville tonight and shot to death by 15-year-old Jesse McPherson. McPherson, who is the son of Elder Joseph McPherson, a minister of the Church of Christ, was arrested. He admitted going to Sebar's home to kill him, saying that Sebar had talked about him.

NATIONAL TELEPHONE CO.

Charleston, W. Va., June 4.—The National Telephone corporation, with a capital stock of $15,000,000, was incorporated here today. It is understood the company expects to become a rival of the Bell system in its long distance business. It is said the new concern will construct transcontinental lines.

OLD MAID'S RECIPE FOR LONGEVITY

New York, June 5.—A novel recipe for longevity is being given by Miss Mary Cummins, who is facing death in Bellevue hospital here at the age of 100 years.

"If you are a woman, never marry and never for a moment lose your independence. These she claimed, were her two rules of living and she never let an opportunity pass of expressing belief in their efficacy."

ARCHAEOLOGICAL FINDS AT TARANTO

Rome, June 5.—Excavations for the dry dock at Taranto are yielding important archaeological finds.

There has already been brought to light a sarcophagus of the fourth century, containing two intact bodies, many valuable Ionic and Corinthian vases, furniture and a unique terra cotta group representing Cupid kneeling on the shoulder of Venus.

The latter is considered the best specimen of terra cotta ever found.

WOMEN WHO ARE ENVIED.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure health, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112-114 S. Main St., Salt Lake City.

CORONER BELIEVES BRINKLEY WAS MURDERED

Chicago, June 5.—That John J. Brinkley, Sr., was murdered in the Wellington hotel now is the belief of Coroner Hoffman and the police.

The coroner has pointed out while the shot that killed the old physician must have been fired a considerable distance from the face, the victim's arms were only 26.5 inches long.

After exhaustive tests with the revolver found in the hotel on Wednesday with one cartridge exploded, Coroner Hoffman yesterday emerged from the vaults of his office where the tests were carried out, and stated that if Dr. Brinkley shot himself he must have held the revolver almost at arm's length—a most difficult position from which to fire a gun.

"From my experiments with the revolver, I am convinced that I feel more strongly inclined to the belief that Dr. Brinkley was murdered," said Coroner Hoffman.

ANN ELISA HUBBARD, CIVIL WAR NURSE, DEAD

Chicago, June 5.—Mrs. Ann Eliza Hubbard, one of the most widely known of the civil war nurses, died yesterday from paralysis at the residence of her son, Theodore M. Hubbard.

Mrs. Hubbard was appointed as special agent by the New York state government at the outbreak of the war to inspect hospitals at the front. She was thrice married, finally making her reports to President Lincoln himself.

She was 85 years old.

GERMAN SHOEMAKERS TO INVADE AMERICAN MARKET

Washington, June 5.—German shoe manufacturers intend to make a bid for favor in the American market, according to Consul Lowrie who states that many of the establishments now at Erfurt are in charge of experts from this country and that these factories are producing American shaped shoes which are meeting with ready sale.

An indication of the enterprise of these German concerns is in the fact that they will make a splendid display of their products at the shoe exposition to be held in Boston next September.

IMPERIAL VALLEY AIRSHIP A MIRAGE

Imperial, Cal., June 5.—After having mystified people all parts of the Imperial valley, it is learned that the supposed airship which was said by various persons to have been seen on several evenings at twilight over Salton sea, was mirage. The mirage was conspicuous last night for a few minutes, and was viewed with wonderment by many people, as it took the form of a long, narrow, white object, which hung in clear outline for a time between sunset and dark in the sky. Viewed less distinctly than it was last night, it was seen to be a mirage. When there was less vegetation here, the mirage was a common sight over the Salton sea.
