ROOMING HOUSE FIRE.

Two Small Children Narrowly Escape Suffocation This Morning.

At 8 o'clock this morning there was a small blaze in a rooming house at 55 east Third South. The fire itself caused but little damage, but two small children had a narrow escape from death by suffocation, and death would sure-ly have ensued had it not been for the prompt actions of a roomer who broke in the door and rescued the children.

Two rooms on the second floor were occupied by a Mrs. Shakerman and her becupied by a Mrs. Shakerman and ber two children, a boy and girl, aged 4 and 6 years respectively. Mrs. Shak-erman sells papers for a living, and has been in the habit of leaving her chil-dren locked in the room while she went out to earn their daily bread. While the woman was away this

While the woman was away this morning the children got hold of some matches and tried to start a fire. They succeeded, but started one they did not intend. Some clothing and furni-ture took fire and the source work of the source of the sou ture took fire, and the room was soon filled with smoke. The door was locked and the little ones could not get out. and the little ones could not get out. A man who roomed in the place, whose name was not learned, knew of the children's plight, and he promptly broke down the door and rescued them. The fire did but little damage to the clothing and furniture, and it was soon extinguished by means of a chemical. At noon today there was another alarm from State street and Capitol bill where a grass free was in progress. hill, where a grass fire was in progress, The department responded to the alarm and soon had the blaze out.

STAKE CARNIVAL.

People of Teton Valley Will Make Merry for Six Days.
