

FRAGMENTS.

O. JOHNSON was arrested last night for drunkenness.

The City Council will meet at seven o'clock this evening.

JULIUS FRIEDLANDER, who was tried last week on a charge of having stolen a watch, was discharged this morning in the Police Court, having proven an alibi.

H. M. CONDUCT, of the Democrat, Silverton, Colorado, arrived in the city last evening on his first visit to Utah, with the intention of remaining a few days, and studying into and writing up the situation of affairs here.

JAMES TARKENT was fined $15 in the police court this morning, for disturbing the peace, yesterday while Tarkent was under the influence of liquor, he accosted two little girls in the southwest part of the city, and used improper language toward them.

In the Legislative Council this afternoon, a message was received from the House notifying the Council that the House had passed the reform school bill; also a bill to amend the charter of Moulton City, with amendments, which were read, and on call of roll passed. The special order of the day, a bill to provide revenue for the Territory of Utah and the several counties thereof, was then taken up. Mr. Hammond moved to amend the bill, so that it should read: "And three mills on the dollar for school purposes." On motion of Mr. Sharp, the further consideration of Mr. Hammond's amendment was laid over till tomorrow. The territorial tax was reduced from four to three mills, on motion of Mr. Page, and the county tax was increased from six mills on the dollar to read seven mills, on motion of Mr. Hammond. The further consideration of this bill, also the second reading of Mr. Barton's bill on trusts, were made the special order for Wednesday. Substitute for H. F. No. 33, a bill to prohibit bulls from running at large during certain seasons of the year, was read the third time and passed, and the House was so notified.

LOCAL NEWS.

Arraigned.—This morning F. A. Cooper, of West Jordan, came into court, and was arraigned on three indictments, for 1895, 1894 and 1893, charging unlawful cohabitation with his wife. A plea of not guilty was entered in each case, and trial was set for March first.

Trials To-morrow.—The following cases are set for trial in the Third District Court to-morrow, Feb. 17th: The United States vs. John Bowen; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Charles Livingston; unlawful cohabitation. Three cases. The United States vs. Henry Dinwoodie; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Abraham Cannon; unlawful cohabitation.

Hoodlums.—A crowd of hoodlums, probably the same characters of whom we have had occasion to make similar complaints before, passed along Third South and West Temple Streets last evening not long after dark, removing gates from hinges and committing other acts of vandalism and devilry. It is a pity they were not apprehended while so engaged and made to suffer as severely as the law allows for their wantonly senseless conduct. If they are the persons we think they are, they live in the south-western wards of the city and may be easily found out if the police will only take the matter in hand, which for their credit as well as for the continued outrages of the rowdies, we trust they will do.

More Burglars.—Two more burglaries were added to the list last night, the places visited being Smith's fruit store and Don C. Tuff's saloon, on First South Street. Nightwatchman Dobson discovered that the deed had been committed. At the fruit store the window was pried up a few inches, and about $12 in change taken from a cigar box which stood on a shelf. The saloon was entered through a back window, out of which a pane of glass had been broken and the broken pieces trimmed out of the putty by the burglar. Some $6 or $7 was stolen. The police arrested the perpetrator of the crime a young man named Fred Newell. On his person was found $3.05 in silver, some of which has been identified. He also had, among other articles, a pocket knife, the blade of which was pointed, and adhering to it several pieces of putty. Circumstances seem to point to Newell's guilt, which, if proven, should secure for him an extended term in jail.

Mr. Dobson discovered that the burglary had been committed at 11:15, while on his rounds, on finding the back window broken and the door unfastened but not open. When the proprietor of the saloon came and was examining the place a number of persons were about, and apparently to see what had happened. Among them was Newell, whose manner led the nightwatchman to suspect that he was the guilty party, and it was through them that he was arrested to-day. After he was arrested he confessed to having a "pal," Ben Ainsworth, who was also shortly afterwards arrested.

The Young Concert.—The concert given by Mr. B. B. Young in the Theatre last evening was well patronized. The programme as published was rendered, with the exception of Mr. Gorninski's solo and the duet by him and Mr. Young, which were unfortunately omitted on account of Mr. Gorninski's illness, a severe attack of hoarseness making it quite impossible for him to appear. The announcement made by Mr. Young at the beginning of the concert, was received with regret, as it took from the programme two of its brightest gems. However, the audience prepared to enjoy what remained, and if the rapturous applause bestowed upon most of the numbers is any criterion, they did so.

The most prominent features were the instrumental trio by Mr. Webster, Madame Young and Mr. McIntyre, "Ring Out Wild Bells," and "Tempest of the Heart," by Mr. B. B. Young; "Hear My Prayer," solo and chorus by Mrs. Nellie Deane-Pagley and company; song, "Rose Softly Blooming," by Miss Louie Walls, and Mr. Wallace's violin solo. Mr. W. W. Mackintosh created a good impression in the song, "Let me like a Soldier Fall," which, though a little too mechanical in the rendering, was sweetly sung. The duet, "Love and War," nearly brought down the house, at least it would have done if Mr. Harper had had his stentorian way. Mr. McAllister was placed at a disadvantage. The best part of the place was where he sang alone, when the effect was very sweet and pleasing. The concert closed with the "Toreador song" from Carmen, finely rendered by Mr. B. B. Young and the chorus. Encores were frequent and the applause liberal throughout.

THE ALL ABSORBING TOPIC.

Why Marshal Ireland and his Distinguished Prisoner did not arrive this Morning.

President Cannon falls from the train and is bruised but not seriously hurt.

IN CUSTODY AT THE PROMONTORY, AND WILL REMAIN TO-MORROW MORNING.

To-day has been full of suspense for "Mormons" and anti-"Mormons" in this city.

According to the latest information obtainable last evening, President Cannon was in the custody of Marshal Ireland and on his way to this city, with the expectation of arriving per the D. & R. G. W. train at 10:45 a.m. Between 9 and 9 o'clock this morning a dispatch was received by Mr. Dickson from Marshal Ireland, at Blue Creek, to the effect that the prisoner had either fallen or jumped from the train at the Promontory, the first station west of here. The news soon spread, and the city, but it was very generally believed to be a canard, and did not prevent a very large crowd of people from going to the D. & R. G. station to meet the incoming train. It was a peaceable crowd, however, there being no excitement or tumult, and as they wended their way back into town after finding that the party were not on the train, there was nothing more than surprise and suspense depicted on their faces, and their emotions if not case found expression in loud or angry words.

About the time the train arrived some of the friends of President Cannon in this city received a copy of the following dispatch which had been sent by A. E. Hyde from Blue Creek to R. J. Taylor, at Ogden:

President Cannon accidentally fell from the train at the Promontory. Not seriously hurt. I go back with Ireland on an engine, and will probably remain at the Promontory with Ireland, Greenman and Cannon until to-morrow's passenger train comes east.

Since then the following was received:

PROMONTORY, 2:20 p.m., Feb. 10, 1896.

Hon. John Q. Cannon:

Father slipped accidentally from the train at the Promontory and is badly bruised. Inform the folks, but don't alarm them.

Shortly afterwards the following copy of a dispatch received at Ogden, was also received:

PROMONTORY.

R. J. Taylor:

Marshal Ireland is apprised that there is danger of a tumult in Ogden. This danger will arrive to-morrow morning.

Geo. C. Cannon.

Who apprised him that there was any danger is not stated, but it was evidently a false alarm, for it would appear from the following dispatch, which was immediately returned in response to his, that the people of Ogden are as calm and peaceful as they are here:

OGDEN, Feb. 10, 1896.

President George C. Cannon:

Everything is quiet in Ogden. Tell Marshal Ireland there is no danger of any tumult here.

L. W. SHURTLEFF, J. T. TAYLOR.

From the rumors floating on the streets in this city, emanating from the Federal headquarters, there is an evident desire to work up a scare and by making it appear that there is danger, to excite the "Mormons" uprising, to secure the establishment of martial law or some other radical measure for the further oppression of the people. The truth of the matter is, that the Latter-day Saints are most wonderfully calm and self-possessed even for them, and they are noted for their coolness. A stranger who is here from Colorado to-day, expressed surprise that the people could keep themselves so completely under control while in suspense, as they must be, owing to the danger which for several days past has surrounded one of their leaders to whom they are devotedly attached and for whom thousands of the people would lay down their lives if necessary.

The latest dispatch received by Mr. Dickson up to the time of our going to press was as follows:

PROMONTORY, 11:46 a.m.

Cannon again in custody; somewhat bruised but not seriously. Will advise you when we leave here.

E. A. IRELAND.

Found Dead.—The Butte Miner of Monday, Feb. 10th has the following:

William Hutchinson, a miner at work in No. 3 coal mine, Almy, Wyoming, was found dead in a chamber of the mine about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Coroner A. H. Blabing was notified and rode over to the mine to ascertain the particulars and see if an inquest was required. From him we learn that Mr. Hutchinson was thirty-one years of age. That he has been a subject since boyhood, to epilepsy. Yesterday morning before going into the mine, he complained of feeling well, and his wife advised him to lay off for the day. He did not think it necessary to work to-day. At noon, when the other miners came out to dinner, he failed to come with the rest. This led to inquiry, and a search was instituted. He was found in a chamber where he had been working, lying in a pool of water, dead. It is supposed he had been working in the water, and was strangled by the water. Deceased leaves a young wife and two or three children.

Readers in California.—Edward Andrews, one of our subscribers who lives in Jackson, Anderson County, California, writes to us to say that his neighbors are interested in reading the Latter-day Saints. His feelings and example upon this point are very commendable.

Horses Stolen.—E. C. Stevens, whose place is about seven miles north-west of here, has had a horse stolen. A male belonging to Stevens & Liddle is also missing from the premises, and suspicion indicates Andrew Pettit, who is under indictment for a similar offense, as the thief.

This witness in the case against President Geo. J. Cannon was to-day excused from attendance upon court until 10 a.m. to-morrow.

John Packer, employed in the Pacific Springs Mattress Factory, San Francisco, met with a horrible death on the 11th. He ascended a ladder to oil a wheel just after the machinery started up after lunch hour, and in reaching out, the sleeve of his shirt was caught in the fly wheel. In an instant his body was drawn into the wheel and over the shaft, and before the machinery could be stopped the unfortunate man was decapitated.

The head, which was horribly crushed, was thrown to the floor about ten feet away, and his body, after all the clothing had been torn into shreds. The chest and arms were mangled into a pulp, and presented a most sickening sight to the horrified fellow-employees of the unfortunate victim.

IN THE COURT.

FURTHER TRIALS AND CONVICTIONS.—LANGTON ACQUITTED ON ONE CHARGE.

The first case tried in the Third District Court to-day was that of of West Jordan, for cohabitation with Maria Goff and Marinda P. Goff, as his wives, from Feb. 1, 1893, to Dec. 31, 1895. The following jurors were sworn:

W. S. Perry, George Turnball, George Turnball, W. H. Bennett, Wm. J. Jenkins, A. A. Scribner, J. C. Conklin, George Turnball, George Turnball, W. H. Bennett, Wm. J. Jenkins, A. A. Scribner.

The defendant, Hyrum Goff, was sworn and testified that the ladies named in the indictment were his wives in 1893, and lived with him in that relation.

A verdict of guilty was given by the jury, and the two other indictments against Mr. Goff continued for the term.

Sentence was fixed for March 3d. The case of the United States vs.

WM. J. JENKINS

was then taken up, and the jury in the Goff case were retained in this instance, and the one selected charged the defendant with living with his wife, Wm. J. Jenkins and Ellen Naylor Jenkins, from Feb. 1, 1893, to Dec. 31, 1895.

Wm. J. Jenkins was sworn and testified that the ladies named were his wives and had lived with him as such. The usual verdict of guilty was returned by the jury, and the remaining indictments continued.

The sentence in this case will also be passed on March 3d. Next came the case of against whom there were two indictments, charging the same offense. Emily Langton and Phoebe Lindsay Langton as his wives, from Feb. 1, 1893, to Dec. 31, 1895.

The jury in the two preceding cases were retained in the last case, and the indictment was then read, and Eliza Newman, who had remained in the Marshal's office until she was sworn as a witness. She testified that she had known defendant nearly two years; he lived in the 1st Ward; knew Mrs. Langton and another lady who lived in the same house; heard both ladies Mrs. Langton and the first wife had six children, the youngest one and a half years old; the second one and a half years old; the third one and a half years old; the fourth one and a half years old; the fifth one and a half years old; the sixth one and a half years old.

No other medicine is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for colds, coughs, and all derangements of the respiratory organs tending toward consumption. In ordinary cases it is a certain cure, and it affords relief for the asthmatic and consumptive, even in advanced stages of disease.

Should be Arrested. Torpid liver, chills and fever and kidney diseases are very prevalent all over the country, especially at this season of the year. It is most important that such complaints should be arrested in an early stage, as they all arise from impurities of the blood, and should not be allowed to become chronic. Dr. Hensley's Celery, Beef and Iron Bitters has gained the reputation of being a blood purifier, a strong nerve and brain tonic and the most effective of all modern remedies.
