PRESIDENT ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION

Orders Flags on All Federal Buildings Half-Masted Out of Respect to Gen. Harrison's Memory-Mourning of a Nation.

Washington, March 14.-The national son felt at the loss of a personal uptal is in mourning today for exresident Harrison. Flugs are at half ast upon all public buildings, the howis stores and many of the private psidences. The act of 1893 inhibits the enping of public buildings in black as vis the custom formerly upon the death of an ex-President.

President McKinley directed that the does of the executive mansion be cased to visitors and denied himself to alets except those who had busires of srgent importance. He will attend de fmeral. Mrs. McKinley probably Th sempany him, as far as Canton, ther is may stop over one day.

THE PROCLAMATION. At MAD this morning President Mc-Kiser issued the following proclama-

To the People of the United States: To the People of the United States. Begamin Harrison, President of the United States from 1889 to 1893, died peterday at 4:45 p. m. at his home in Indianpolis. In his death the country has been deprived of one of its dearest ctizens. A brilliant soldier in his young manhood, he grained fame and naid advancement by his energy and valor As a lawyer he rose to be a valor. As a lawyer he rose to be a leader of the bar. In the Senate he at once took and retained his rank as an erator and legislator, and in the high office of President he displayed extraedinary gifts as administrator and statesman. A. L. Mason, a lawyer and personal friend, in telling of his last call on Gen. Harrison, a few days before his last illness, said today:

GENERAL'S CUBAN VIEWS

"We conversed on a variety of subjects. I had just finished reading his article on the Boer war and rallied him saying that when he should go by abroad the next time he would not be an acceptable guest at the English court. He answered with great quickness, 'I can go to see Kruger,' He talk. ed for a time about the Presbysterian creed. He was the chairman of the committee on revision. He took up the Cuban question. His point on this was that we had placed ourselves in a position before the world where our sincerity in dealing with Cuba could just. ly be questioned. He was emphasizing his former statement that the moral law bound the honor of the nations as well as of individuals.

"His reference to the Philippines and Porto Rican matters expressed surprise that the Supreme Court of the United States had not yet handed down its de. cision.

TRUSTS.

"Later the conversation turned on trusts. He said he had very definite ideas on the regulation of trusts, and believed that the problem was one which was fairly within the reach of legislation that would commend itself to the common sense of all good people. He quoted at length from memory from the articles of incorporation of the Steel trust, and expressed a belief that a corporation should not be admitted to do business in any State unless it

Mrs. Harrison asked him if he recog-nized her and he replied that he did. At noon of the same day he recognized his aunt, Mrs. Newcomer, feebly greet-ing her as "Aunty" when she came to his bedside. In the sick man's delirium which last-ing her as unday night until he he ed from late Sunday night until he be-came totally unconscious Tuesday af-ternoon, his mind wandered back over the great scenes of his life. Now he was the soldier charging with his column and again he was the states-man speaking before the convention that named him for President.

A DEATH MASK TAKEN. Indianapolis, March 14 .- Late this afternoon John H. Mahoney, the sculptor, or this city, took a plaster cast for a death mask of Gen. Harrison.

ALL STATES NOTIFIED. Indianapolis, Ind., March 13 .- Acting on the instructions of Gov. Durbin, Charles E. Wilson, his private secretary, today sent telegrams to the gov-ernors of every State and Territory in the Union, informing them that the body of Gen. Harison will lie in state in the Indiana capitol Saturday, that the military display of the State will be made on that day and that the funeral on Sunday will be of a private nature

Acting on an order of the governor Adjt. Gen. Gore issued an order calling out the entire State militia, consisting of thirty-two companies and three bat-teries of artillery. The troops will ar-rive Friday night and Saturday morning and will remain until Sunday even-

It was arranged to have the body lie in state from 12 noon, or shortly be-fore that hour, until 10 o'clock Satur-day night, when it will be returned to the Harrison home, where it will remain until time for the funeral ser-vices Sunday afternoon. The militia will form, under the command of Brig. Gen. McKee in Washington street in front of the capitol, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and will move to the Harrison home. Promptly at 11 o'clock the body will be taken from the home and placed in the funeral car to be taken to the state house. In addition to the troops of the guard the escort will be made up of several grand army will be made up of several grand regi-posts. The Seventieth Indiana regi-ment, to which Gen. Harrison be-longed, will be the guard of honor, marching immediately in front of the funeral car. Immediately ahead of the regiment will be the Grand Army posts and in front of them the State troops. The same arrangements as prevailed at the time the body of Gen. Lawton and again when the body of Gov. Mount lay in state in the capitol, will prevail Saturday. While the body is lying in state it will be guarded by detachments from the artillery battalion.

AN EMBARRASSING SITUATION. Indianapolis, Ind., March 14 .-- An embarrassing condition has been caused by the fact that the St. Patrick's Day parade is set to take place at the same time as Gen. Harrison's funeral, 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. It has been thought that perhaps the managers of the St. Patrick's Day celebraton will change their plans. They will make final decision tonight.

NEW BILL IN ELEVENTH HOUR.

Introduced by Senator Thomas in Relation to Witness Certificates.

Bill Giving City Councils Power to

SENATE IN REFUSAL MOOD.

Grant One Hundred Year Railroad Franchises.

Despite the rule that was made preventing the introduction of bills in the Legislature after the fiftieth day, Senator Thomas introduced a bill today within two hours of the time the law requires the solons to adjourn this session. It is Senate bill 128, an act providing for the examination of outstanding witness and juror certificates of districts courts of the Territory of Utah with the view of determining the amount thereof and the liability of the State thereof and barring from payment all certificates not presented within the time prescribed in this act.

The time limit fixed by the act is February 1, 1902.

On the earnest solicitation of the House the Senate decided to reinstall House bill 23, referring to the library of the State prison which was killed last evening.

The House also insisted on the Senate again taking up Giasmann's registration bills 14 and 15, and appointed a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the Senate for the purpose of re-installing the bills. The Senate refused to appoint a conference committee thereby showing that the summary death to which it put the bills last evening met the approval of all the senators.

HUNDRED YEAR FRANCHISE. The first special order today was Senate bill No. 125, giving the power to city councils to grant to rallroad corporations 100-year franchises. The bill was passed, those voting against it being Allison, Lawrence and Love.

Senate bill No. 126 was passed unanimously. The measure provides for the prevention of minors entering saloons

IRRIGATION BILL. Senate bill No. 127, sublitute for Sen-

clause, but withdrew the motion on request of Senator Howell. The measure

terial Senate amendments to Hamlin's street car vestibule bill.

The Senate requested the return of House bill No. 211 exempting city property from taxation, which it had rejected. That body also sent word that it refused to appoint a conference committee to confer with a similar House committee to look into Axton's defunct penitentiary library fund bill. This message raised the ire of the House and Messrs. Van Horne, D. C. Johnson and Billings were appointed to visit the Senate and inquire into its arbitrary methods of dealing with House business.

Senate bill No. 107, by Murdock, relating to the issuance of patents for State lands by the Governor, came from the committee with an unfavorable report just after this action, and was killed with righteous indignation by adopting the report of the commit-Phillip's bill No. 121, relating to the sale of estray animals, was reported unfavorably. The only material change in the bill is that it calls for advertising of estrays in newspapers instead of notices being posted in three public places as the existing law demands. After some little discussion the roll was called on final passage of the bill and it passed unanimously in spite of its adverse report.

Just then Mr. Holmgren reported that th Senate had denied the House conference committee the privilege of a conference regarding House bills Nos. 14 and 15.

Mr. Gardner's irrigation commission bill was then in order as a special order of the day. Mr. Lambert asked for postponement, as there was a substitute bill to Holmgren's bill pending in the Senate. The postponement was voted down and first reading of House bill No. 243 proceeded with. The speaker proposed some radical amendments to the bill, the chief of which was that the governor appoint one person from each county at a salary of $200 each instead of a commission of four at $1,500 each, as the original bill reads. Mr. Pond proposed to amend the amendment by making the appointments, one from each judicial district. Mr. Gardner thought that the large commission would be too cumbersome. He would not seriously object to one from each judicial district, however. That would leave them $800 salary each. Mr. Harmon thought that the county proposition was all right, but he would be glad to compromise on the judicial district amendment.

Mr. Lambert said that he favored the speaker's amendments. He was strongin favor of the counties commission So was Mr. Anderson, but he considered that the money spent on a commission would be to little purpose as the Legis-lature could hardly have more informa-tion on the subject than it had now.

NUMBER 98. SEMBRICH WILL NOT SING TONIGHT

Great Prima Donna Will Not Appear at Tabernacle Tonight, and Concert is Cancelled-Public Disappointment.

"Sembrich will not sing tonight." That was the word Manager Graff brought to the "News" at noon today when he drove up from the Knutsford in a cab, jumped out and ran up the steps into the editorial department, supplemented by the statement: "The madam has a cold-an affection of the throat. I have just had a consultation with Dr. Niles of your city and he declares on his word as a physician that her vocal organs are not in a condition to permit of her appearance at the Tabernacle this evening." Continuing Mr. Graff said: "I assure you that she is quite ill. I know the Salt Lake public will be greatly disappointed at not seeing and hearing her as it expected; for she is the world's greatest vocal artist without doubt. If the Salt Lake public is disappointed I am doubly so. It is the only performance that Madame Sembrich has failed to appear in, where she has been billed. this season, with one exception, that was in Boston and she has sung forty times. But as I say she has throat trouble and that ends it.

Mr. Graff's attention was called to the statement which he made to the Ogden correspondent of the "News" on the arrival of the company there yesterday to the effect that every artist in the organization, including the noted prima donna herself, was in excellent voice and that the latter was feeling particularly well and looking forward with pleasantest anticipation to her appearance at the Tabernacle this evening.

Mr. Graff responded: "Madam Sembrich did not tell me of her indisposition although she had really been alling ever since we left Denver. She stated to me today that she said nothing for the reason that she hoped to be able to make her appearance as advertised. Again I repeat that I regret more deeply than I can express the fact that we are compelled to cancel our engagement in Salt Lake. I thought for at Denver, It would have been to my monetary advantage to have given the oncert, as billed."

Prof. Stephens, of the Tabernacle holr, did not fail to show his chagrin, though he said little. It was evident, however, that he was doing a great deal of thinking, and it was stated that he was overheard to say to an intimate friend: "Never again will I attempt proposition of this kind. I know when have had enough."

The professor agrees with Mr. Graff hat the failure of Madame Sembrich o appear was entirely due to her physcal incapacity, and that the matter of finance had nothing to do with the nonappearance of the great star tonight, Manager Graff, as an evidence of good faith, offered to include Salt Lake in the schedule on his return trip next month, but Prof. Stephens respectfully declined, saying that he could not expect to hold the choir together and keep it in such excellent voice for that time, as he now has it.

Inquiry at Daynes' music store this afternoon elicited the information that $1,200 worth of tickets had been sold there. In addition to this there was a good sale from outsidetowns and special excursions were to be run from Ogden and intermediate points and from various towns south on both the Oregon Short Line and Rio Grande Western; so that it is quite certain the receipts would not have been insignificant when the fact is taken into consideration that there was a steady inquiry for tickets luring the entire afternoon. Of course all holders of tickets will be able to ecure a refund of their cash by calling at the Daynes music store, where they eccived them.

The public of course is overwhelmed with disappointment. But what shall be said of Prof. Stephens and his band of valiant and sweet toned singers who have worked like Trojans for weeks to a time today that the difficulty might | make the distinct hit of their profes-

Indianapolis, Ind., March 14 .- No sooner was the news of the death of ex-President Harrison flashed to the world than the messages of inquiry, which had been pouring in for several days, changed to messages of sympathy and condulence.

During the first part of last night a large number of such messages were received from every section of the country, and at an early hour this morning there was a line of messenger boys at the Harrison home. The messages came from intimate friends and admirers of the general and from men who had been associated with him in while life The greater part of them weed sich an intimate personal nathe that Mrs. Harrison felt that their catents should not be given to the public. One of the first messages received was from ex-President Grover Cereland, who telegraphed Mrs. Harrinot as follows:

trust combinations organized under the laws of New Jersey transacted no business in that State, and were not intended to transact any business there. Of the general conservation these are the things that come to my memory." STATE OFFICERS MEET.

The state officers met this forenoon at the house with W. H. H. Miller and Daniel M. Ransdell, representing the Harrison family, and arranged for the funeral of Gen, Harrison. The general plan agreed on was for the body to lie in state at the state house Saturday, and for the funeral services, conducted by the Rev. M. L. Haines, who had been the general's pastor for years, to held in the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Gov. Durbin and his secretary, Mr. Wilson, were among the first to call at the Harrison home last night to extend sympathy to the family, The governor asked that the body lie The governor asked that the body he in the state house for a time so that all who wish to view the dead statesman may do so, and the request was grant-ed. The body will be buried at Crown tions will take part in the ceremonies. Transportation officers of the railroads anticipate the greatest crowds of people here Saturday and Sunday that ever visited Indianapolis, especially if President McKinley and Former President Cleveland come,

MRS. HARRISON.

The terrible strain of constant watching at the side of Gen. Harrison ended, Ing at the side of Geh. Harrison ended, Mrs. Harrison and the members of the Harrison household secured the first rest they have had for six days last night. Mrs. Harrison had not slept four hours since last Thursday when the general was attacked by the fatal illtinually at his side during the entire time. Her mental and physical con-dition was such that she has been unable to take nourishment except a very little at rare intervals. When the end came she collapsed completely but finally rallied and last night and this morning she was able to get her first real rest. Mrs. Caroline F. Stroud, of New York, an intimate friend of Mrs.

New York, an infimate friend of Ars. Harrison, is with her. E. F. Tibbott, Gen. Harrison's private secretary, had not had his clothes off for seven nights until Last night and had been in constant attendance either at the general's side or in looking at-ter the affairs of the household answering messages of inquiry, sending out the physicians' bulletins and receiving Clifford Arrick, Samuel D. Miller and Dr. F. O. Dorsey watched last night over the body of the ex-President. The body lies in the same room where the end came and will not be removed until it is takn to the capitol to lie in state.

CHILDREN ARRIVE.

Russell B. Harrison, the general's son, who arrived late last night, spent the night with W. H. H. Miller, Mrs. Rus-sell Harrison and their son arrived at Mrs. Mary Harrison McKee, the daughter, and her husband areral's

DAYLIGHT M. & M. COMPANY.

The Daylight Mining and Milling company filed its articles of incorporation with County Clerk James today. The general and commercial office of the company is to be in this city. The capitalization of the concern is placed at $15,000, divided into 300,000 shares of 5 cents each. The purpose of the company is to develop the Japan, the Japan Nos, 2 and 3 mining claims, situated in the Ophir mining district. Tooele county, Abial B. Sawyer is president; Joseph P. Megeath, vice president: Josiah G. Sawyer, secretary, whom, together with Shand Smith and Robert W. Clough, constitute the directorate. Messrs, Megeath and William F. Martin and Rob-ert S. Hill each own 10,000, and Junius Young, Argyle T. Miller and Charles W. King each 5,000 shares. A. B. Sawyer holds 35,000 shares as trustee, and 100,000 shares remain as treasury stock, ing arguments in behalf of their rective clients. As heretofore publish ed, the proposition as far as the county board is concerned, has resolved into purely legal questions, which was the nature of the proceedings today. After hearing what the attorneys have to say for the street car companies, Mr. Christensen will be called upon to advise the board as to how it should act, and what it can do in the premises. The superintendents of the two car lines and a number of citizens of Forest Dale and vicinity were also present to listen to the arguments.

ARGUMENTS ON FRANCHISE.

The board of county commissioners held a special session this afternoon, to listen to the arguments put forth in behalf of the two street car companies. who are striving against each other to oftain a franchise on Seventh East street. County Attorney Christensen was in attendance for the county, Attorney E. B. Critchlow for the Salt Lake line, and Charles Baldwin represented the Rapid Transit, the latter two mak.

is quite a voluminous one, calculated to create the irrigation system of Utah, under the care and supervision of irrigation commissions of water districts into which the State will be divided. There is a section in the bill providing for the weekly measurement of the water. A controversy arose as to where those weekly reports should be filed. Senator Howell thought that they should be filed with the county recorders but Senator Allison opposed the plan, for the reason that he thought the filing of the reports with the county recorders would entail an expense which the farmers would not care to He moved that the records shouider. he filed with the State engineer instead. of with the respective county recorders. The motion falled, and a compromise was made by inserting a proviso that no charges shall be made for the filing of the reports, the counties to pay the Further consideration of the bill went over until the afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The clock is stopped in the Senate chamber, time is at a standstill, and so far as the minutes of the Senate are concerned that dignified body will have adjourned several days before the actual adjournment takes place. One senator expressed the belief that the Senate would not get through with its business this week, but would require several days of next week.

After convening this afternoon the Senate resumed the consideration of the irrigation bill. Senator Smoot newed his motion to strike out the enacting clause, he was ruled out of order. He appealed from the decl 'on of the chair, but the chair was sustained.

DEATH OF SALARY BILL.

It is tacitly conceded that Senator Tanner has compassed the death of the State salary bill, by his notice to move for a reconsideration. The manner in which it is to be brought about is by a parliamentary technicality. He can withold his motion for twenty-four hours after notifying the Senate of such intention. Before that time has elapsed this session of the State Legislature will have expired, together with the bill The bill may be taken out of the hands of Senator Tanner by a twothirds vote, but there is not only an improbab. hty of securing the two-thirds vote, but there has been no manifesta-tion on the part of any senator to make such an attempt.

The appropriation bill may be in-troduced later in the evening.

IN THE HOUSE.

Last Actual Day of Legislation Finds the Work Well in Hand.

The last day of the third session of the Utah Legislature commenced with a somewhat sparse attendance in the House. The work was well in hand, and the House was waiting for reports from its various committees. Gardner's irrigation commission bill had been drawn up in typewriting as there was not time to have it printed, and copies of it were distributed among the mem. bers.

Word was received that the Senate had rejected House bills Nos. 14 and 15, on registration, and on motion of Mr. Holmgren the Speaker appointed Messrs. Holmgren, Stuart and Wells us a committe to confer with the Senate, regarding their resuscitation. The House concurred in some imma

On motion of Mr. Van Horne Senate bill No. 115, a substitute for Axton's prison library bill, No. 23, was killed. Consderation of Gardner's irrigation bill was then resumed. Mr. Page was the only member who objected to the bill in toto. He said there was no need for an irrigation law any way.

A vote was then taken and the judicial district proposition carried. Cutler, who was a hot county man, moved to strike out the enacting clause, but Mr. Anderson then moved that the commission number three, but the motion had few friends. After various votes were taken the commission was dimin-ished to four members, as in the bill originally. Mr. Wells tried to have it reduced to one, and that one be the State engineer, but the motion did not meet with favor. Mr. Van Horne's proposition to make the State engineer the third time, under suspension of the a member of the commission-ex officio -to serve without salary. Mr. Page moved that each of the commission be irrigators of ten years experience. It was questioned who would give them certificates. Mr. Van Horne suggested that their faces might show that they took water instead of whisky. Mr. Page then proposed that the title of the bill be changed to read: "An act to provide places for office seekers, not otherwise taken care of, and provid-

The public was very loth to accept the news of the cancelation of the concert as bonafide, and many persons expressed themselves to the effect that Manager Graff saw that the engagement was not going to be a success financially, and that the cancelation was the result. Upon that point Mr. Graff said emphatically to the "News:" "The sale of seats was very largelarger than I at first anticipated. The interest was great and a big house certain. There was much more than expenses in it, and the loss financially is mine. I am making a jump half-way him to pay off all advertising and other across the continent this week, and expenses. At 11 o'clock today the choir had a full dress rehearsal with all of the stars themselves with the exception of the soprano, and were fairly reveling in the expectation of tonight's performance. Now they will agree with the poet that the best laid plans of mice and men "gang aft a glee."

The only consolation that remains is that the choir is not the financial loser in the outcome. Prof. Stephens had been caught before and this time demanded a $400 forfeit, which was put in his bands several weeks ago, and which he will now convert to the choir fund for the non-appearance of the company, which will leave sufficient money with have given but one performance-that | to appear in San Francisco.

VILLAINOUS CANVASSER.

Ogden Police Are Looking for One in Their City.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, March 14 .- The Ogden police are today on a sharp lookout for a villalnous photograph canvasser, Lest evening he entered the home of John Kooyman, 847 Twenty-eighth street. He found no one but two little girls, Minnie and Rika. He showed them some pictures and asked them if they would not like to have their photographs taken. He then commenced taking liberties with the little girls and indicated his intention of assaulting them. On the return of the parents of the children the police were notified but the man whose name is given as Thompson, kept out of the way and did not return to his lodgings last night. He has been in Ogden since some time before Christmos. Detective Pender said today that the fellow had been loating around the saloons a great deal of late.

Robt. F. Harrison, the Los Angeles mining man, came up from the south today and is at the Knutsford.

Ellen Peterson, mention of whom was made in last night's "News" in con-nection with the arrest of a girl named Kate Knox, called at the "News" this afternoon and stated that she attended a dance on Tuesday night and at no time during the evening was she in the Knox girl's company as stated by the latter.

Senator Thomas Kearns recently wrote Representative McMillan asking that he forward to Washington a list the district and county schools of ah. In response to Mr. McMillan's Utah. replying to the request word was re-ceived today from Senator Kearns to the effect that each school would short-ly be supplied with government maps.

NO FORMAL RECESS. House this noon. The members just walked out and were in their places waked out and were in their places again at 2 o'clock. A number of re-ports were received at that hour, among which was that allowing the ap-propriation of $32,000 for the Industrial positions. The report on Senate joint memorial No. 6, by Sherman, for the creation of

Under the head of third reading of bills Senste bill No. 84, by Murdock, defining the duties of the dairy commissioner, was first called up. Mr. Wil. liams explained the few immaterial changes in the bill from the existing and the bill was passed unanilaw. mously. Senate bill No. 122 by the committee on judiciary, was the next bill acted on. The purpose of the bill is to amend the statutes concerning notice of intention to levy local assessments in cities. The committee report was ac-rules. Mr. Axton started the debate He said that when members understood the bill they would reject it. It seemed reasonable on the face of it that cause should be shown for removal. Men when they remained long in the service became dead on their feet. Such men were pensioned off. But it would be a sin to go back to old conditions by putting obstacles in the way of the remov. al of such men who had outlived their usefulness. Under the old law men were suspended and then reinstated, drawing salary for the time of their suspension, thus costing the city double salaries. Mr. Smith argued that the system of removing firemen without cause crippled the service. N. L. Mor-ris took the same view. He said he knew of cases where officers who had been discharged for the proper perform anc> of their duties. Mr. Van Horne cited some of the evils of the old system he said, the passage of the bill

Messenger Kelly Celebrates Close of

Legislature by Marriage. The third session of the Utah Legislature has had a romantic ending for the House inside messenger, James A. Kelly. On all the legislative junketing trips Kelly has been accompanied by a young woman from his native Millard, of quite as prepossessing an appearance as the handsome and accommodating inside messenger. It is this young woman who became his wife in the Temple this afternoon. It has been patent to all who went on the junketing trips that Kelly was very devoted, but he has kept very still about his arrangements for the wedding. Even his own cousin, Eugene W. Kelly, who is representative from Millard knew nothing of it. It was noticed that Kelly's face was absent from the House yesterday and that a substitute was serving out bills to the members but it was not known that Kelly had gone to Provo where his inamorata was visiting at the house of her sister. Mrs.

Enuly John and whence he brought her to Salt Lake for the marriage. The bride, nee Frances Thompson. was a telegraph operator at Scipic amend the statutes concerning notice of intention to levy local assessments in cities. The committee report was ac-cepted and the bill passed. House bill No. 244 was then read for
