

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Social in Realms

The week has been a brilliant one in social as well as celebratory ways, beginning with the large reception at the Commercial club on Monday night given by the women's citizens' committee in honor of the commander-in-chief and his staff, the function given by the Nurses' association on Thursday night, and that of last night at the same place given for them by the Women's Relief corps. Besides these have been innumerable resort parties given for the military guests and their families making up in themselves a notable list of festivities. Outside these G. A. R. affairs have been others as brilliant in their way as the rest, notably the dinner and reception given respectively on Wednesday and Thursday evenings by ex-Senator and Mrs. Thomas Kearns, in honor of his Jimenez Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore. The appointments at each were most elaborate and delightful, and both were attended by a large number of Salt Lake's prominent people. Cardinal Gibbons was himself host yesterday at a social affair in the way of a luncheon given in honor of the Maryland delegation at the Kearns home at which elaborate and the affairs were at the same time a social affair. Tonight a large reception will be given in his honor at the parochial residence.

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham entertained on Wednesday afternoon at a reception at the Country club in honor of Mrs. S. C. Adams of Denver, Mrs. Raymond Masson and Miss Dorothy Kinney, the table being beautifully decorated in gold and white with a large centerpiece of flowers and small vases at each place. Present besides the guest of honor were Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Ray Walker, Mrs. L. L. Savage, Mrs. A. H. Prosser, Mrs. L. B. McCord, Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mrs. Ernest Bamberg, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. W. P. Kiser, Mrs. J. C. Dick, Mrs. Frank Knox, Mrs. A. A. Marshall, Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Miss Marga Miller, Miss McCormick and Miss Bess McMillan.

Mrs. Will Hayes entertained on Monday at a luncheon party for Miss Ada Yard, whose marriage to H. B. Brooks takes place next week. The decorations were in the national colors and were carried out in flags and small vases at each place. Present besides the guest of honor were Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Ray Walker, Mrs. L. L. Savage, Mrs. A. H. Prosser, Mrs. L. B. McCord, Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mrs. Ernest Bamberg, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. W. P. Kiser, Mrs. J. C. Dick, Mrs. Frank Knox, Mrs. A. A. Marshall, Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Miss Marga Miller, Miss McCormick and Miss Bess McMillan.

Mrs. George Snow, Mrs. W. G. Tuttle and Miss Hooper were guests of honor on Wednesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. G. L. Savage, the table being prettily decorated in the national colors with a flower-filled drum for a centerpiece and small silk flags as place cards. Miss Hooper gave a number of delightful readings afterward.

Mrs. Emily Bailey and Miss Edna Bailey gave a porch party at their home on Wednesday for the parade, and afterward a luncheon for their guests, the decorations were artistically carried out in the tri-colors, and the hostesses being assisted by Mrs. C. S. Vadner and Mrs. W. H. Dickson.

Miss Viola Godbe will be guest of honor at a number of social affairs next week, among those who will entertain for her being Miss Bertha Godbe, and Miss Mildred Godbe, Miss Mignon Denhalter and Miss Anita Davidson.

Miss Myrtle Jack entertained on Thursday for Miss Viola Godbe, the amusement being an and about 20 being present. The decorations were artistically done in the tri-colors, with flags, sweet peas and ribbons, and present besides the guest of honor were

PICTURE HAT TRIMMED IN ALIGRETTES.

For dressy wear there is nothing so suitable as a big hat of the Gainsboro type. It is a style that comes every season; true there are slight variations in shape and great difference in the trimming. The chapeau has a slightly rolling brim toward the left side, and is trimmed with great masses of Paradise aligrettes and finished with an ornament on the right side. The hat itself is of white moire. A hat of this type requires a handsome gown to be worn with it.
