

NOTES FOR THE LADIES.

A number of New York ladies are forming a rifle association.

A Georgia railroad which ran over and killed Mrs. Don paid down $128 to settle it.

Blonde hair is no longer the style in the east. Every woman wants to be a dark haired belle.

Lyon County, Minn., has received its pioneer piano, and women walk six miles to see it.

Eight out of ten American ladies coming back from Europe do a little—just the least mite—smuggling.

A New Hampshire girl aged eighteen captured a bold burglar that broke into her uncle's house recently.

A Western paper says of the air, in its relation to man, that "it kisses him and blesses him, but will not obey him." Poor Dobbs says that description suits his wife exactly.

A widow woman of Xenia can lift a barrel of flour. She "lifted" one from a mill the other night, and went to jail for three months.

At the recent exercises of the State Normal School in Salem, Mass., a mother and daughter were in the graduating class together.

Three Bennington seminary girls climbed to the top of Mount Equinox, Vt., recently, going straight up by the shortest and steepest route, a feat seldom, if ever, accomplished before.

Up in Iowa the ghost of a young woman made her lover happy by telling him where to find some money, and then made him miserable by ordering him to contribute it to a church.

Miss Mary J. Davis, an accomplished young lady in Bellevue, Iowa, avoided obedience to her parents' command to marry a man she did not love by shooting herself.

Mrs. Ham, of Canterbury, Mass., who was rendered speechless by a shock of lightning in July, 1872, has had her voice restored by the birth of a child. This is a new way to cure a ham.

The critic of the New York World says that Nillson is more careless in the use of her voice than when in the United States before her marriage. This is the usual result of matrimony, as many a poor man can certify.

Different people do things differently. Mrs. Wilson, of Ixonia, Wis., has a boy of seventeen years who weighs just twenty pounds; and Mrs. Belcher, of Frisco, has a boy of two days that weighs just fifteen pounds.

In Bombay, the representatives of Woman's Rights have succeeded in obtaining a government resolution ordering the votes of the native ladies who may wish to take part in the election of members for the new corporation to be collected at their houses.

Festus wished his lady-love was all lips, and Nero wished the human race had but one neck, but a Parisian lover distanced both when he sent a bottle of perfume to his sweet-heart with the sentiment: "When you smell this you will wish you were all nose."

Squire's Lady:—"And how has your brother Jack been behaving lately, Sally?"

"Thank'ee, my lady, ee haint bin no wuss, ee are read the good book as you sent 'im, and bin twice to Sunday school, and it don't seem to av done him no paticular 'arm at present."—London Fun.

According to a California paper, a young lady of that city, in telling a gentleman about her Yosemite trip, said the scene was gorgeous—perfectly ravishing—but she didn't like their style of locomotion down there. "How's that?" said her friend, "how did you locomote?" "Why, don't you think," she replied, "I had to ride a la clothes-pin."

A successful operation was recently performed at the New England Hospital for Women and Children in Boston, Mass., by Miss Dimmock, who removed no less than seventy-one tumors, varying in size from the dimensions of a pea to those of a pullet's egg, from the neck of Sarah Barally, daughter of Mr. Thomas Barally, of Nantucket.

Miss Belle Sprague, of North Bridgewater, was riding out one evening lately, near Randolph, when two men sprang from the side of the road and one seized the horse by the head. She instantly gave the animal a blow with the whip and he sprang forward, sending the rascal prostrate to the ground, and the lady went on her way rejoicing in an escape from their assault.

A young lady in Fond du Lac, while out walking with her lover, was attacked by a savage dog, who seized her by the breast and tore it from her body. The lover fainted with horror at the sight, but the young lady, much mortified, went for the dog with a picket, remarking that "that ere cost a dollar and a half, and wa'n't made for no dog to chaw up."

A colored preacher in Kentucky misbehaved so outrageously that he was expelled from the church, notwithstanding which he had the cheek to sue for his back pay. The case having gone against him, his late parishioners captured him and turned him over to the women of the flock, who gave him a sound thrashing, and say they will do it over again till he leaves the region.

The following tender missive was picked up in the ladies' sitting room of the railroad depot at Fond du Lac: "Dear Chas., do you love me as much as you did at a quarter to 12 last nigt? Say you do, dearest, and it will give me spirit to go down and tackle them cold beans left from yesterday." Charles' answer will undoubtedly run somewhat in this wise: "Dear Susan, I do. Tackle them beans."

The Princess of Wales is described as being a most lovely woman—tall and perfectly formed, her every movement graceful, and her manners winsome and wholly unaffected. Her face is all sunshine and sweetness, and one never to be forgotten. Her popularity in England is very great, all classes regarding her with peculiar affection, not more for her beauty than for her faultless character as a wife and mother.

Dr. Eliza Walker has resigned the post of house surgeon to the Bristol (England) Hospital for Women and Children. In consequence of her appointment all the medical officers resigned. In her letter to the committee she says she is convinced that her resignation alone can relieve the management of the hospital from serious embarrassment, and enable them to obtain the services of sufficient honorary medical officers. She regrets that she is compelled to take this step, not so much for herself as for the cause she represents.

It is proposed to organize in Boston a "Woman's Mutual Benefit Association," having for its object—

1. The providing of a certain sum, to be paid weekly to any member in time of sickness.
2. To loan to any member without interest, a certain sum in the extremity of need.
3. To provide respectable burial, in case of death, to said deceased member, as well as a certain amount to any dependant upon her for support.

The Marysville Appeal is urging its people to establish a beet sugarie there.

There are two Japanese students in the academy at Oakland, California.

Herman Humpert was found dead in bed at Hunter's Point, California. Supposed natural death.

Thirty-three horses were villainously poisoned in David Stewart's stable, Seventh street, San Francisco, and several of them have died.

Soap Lake, near Gilroy, is to be drained by canal into the Pajaro river. The work has been commenced, and 6,000 or 7,000 acres of good land will be reclaimed.

While Etienne Duriff was attempting to draw his shotgun from a wagon, at Mayfield, California, the hammer caught, the gun was discharged, and he was killed instantly.

ZION'S Co-operative Mercantile INSTITUTION

IS DOING THE LARGEST BUSINESS EVER carried on in the Territory of Utah, arising from a uniform system of dealing principally with manufacturers of standard goods, buying in immense quantities and selling on the closest margins.

The largest part of their purchases for the

Wholesale and the Retail Dry Goods Department

Are made through their New York office, from whence all fluctuations in the Foreign and Home Markets are closely watched.

The Institution is complete in all its various departments, and fresh novelties are added to the stock as fast as they are offered in the market. Visitors are shown through the buildings without the slightest importunity to purchase.

The Gentlemen in charge of the several departments are among the most widely and favorably known in the Rocky Mountains, and we commend them to the confidence of the public, promising that no effort on their part shall be wanting to insure a continuance of its patronage.

They are enabled not only to suit the tastes of an intelligent trade, but also to compete successfully with Eastern dealers. In fact no country merchant can afford to pass by this city under the impression that Eastern markets will give him lower prices, better stock or more favorable terms. Their

Grocery, Hardware, and Drug De- partments,

For completeness and variety of stock, have never been equalled west of New York, and merchants in the neighboring settlements in the Territories cannot do better than replenish their stock from this source. Their

Clothing Department

Is now opening its magnificent fall and winter purchases, among which is the most varied assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods ever brought to Utah. Since merchant tailoring has been added to and made a specialty in this department, that branch of the Institution's trade has attained a perfection never arrived at by any similar house in the Territory. Foreign and domestic fabrics of every style and price are made to order or sold in piece. Their

Boot and Shoe De- partment

Keeps thirty hands constantly employed on all classes of work, and has never failed to secure the Prize Medals at our Territorial Fairs. Their facilities for turning out first-class work have never been equalled by any similar establishment in the Territories, and Gentlemen and Ladies visiting the city would do well to leave their measures with that Department, thus enabling them to order by mail at any time they desire a perfect fit.

The Institution deals in every class of merchandise, and all persons, however remote from business or manufacturing centres, can have their orders promptly filled by mailing them to
