

ANNA E. GEORGE IS NOT GUILTY.

Loud Cheers When the Clerk Read the Verdict.

PERSONALLY THANKS JURY.

Twelve-Hour Ballot Taken—None of the Defendants Found Guilty in First Degree in Early Voting.

On April 26—the day before the trial of Anna E. George, on trial at the Superior Court of Appeal, came into the court room at 10 a.m., the defense argued a motion to have the case adjourned until the next day, the court denied the motion, and the trial began at 1 p.m. The defense had argued the case for the last two hours, and the trial will end at 4 p.m. The defense will file a motion for a new trial.

PRIDE OF THE PROFESSOR.
Kind Words for Professor Cooper from Other Educators.

The members of the Young Faculty committee on reading invited him to speak at the meeting to be held in the room of the City Hall, tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock. The address of the professor will be brief, and he will be introduced by Prof. W. M. McKey of the University.

There were five cases set for today, three for divorce and a suit for separate maintenance. Action was taken in three of the cases, another being adjourned, and one was continued to the next day.

The case of Tracy C. Anderson involved a motion of separate maintenance. The defendant appeared in court and answered himself as failing the test, but was opposed to allowing his wife to leave the state and country or to take up residence elsewhere.

The plaintiff claimed that she was entitled to $100 a month, and that she had several months past had been unable to support her husband.

The court granted plaintiff a decree, and directed the defendant to pay $100 a month, and dismissed the case.

D. C. Thompson appeared for the plaintiff, and the defendant was represented by D. T. Thompson.

SUICIDE AT FIFTEEN.

The defendant took the stand and said he wanted to be divorced from his wife, but that her statement regarding their marriage was untrue.

The plaintiff stated that his wife was not a fit person to have care of his son, and that he wanted to be relieved of the burden.

The court granted plaintiff a decree, and directed the defendant to pay $100 a month, and dismissed the case.

LOST HER IN TWO DAYS.

The case of Hannah Hoenemann vs. Leon H. Hoenemann was next called. This was still for separate maintenance.

The defendant had agreed to appear in court with a twentymonth-old baby in her arms. She told the court that she had been separated from her husband since July 1, 1888, with whom she was connected by the bonds of love and affection.

Then came the defense. The plaintiff claimed that she was separated from her husband on January 1, 1888, and that he had left her.

The court granted plaintiff a decree, and directed the defendant to pay $100 a month, and dismissed the case.

GOING THIS FROM HOME.

Morris C. Taylor, a colored woman, was an applicant for divorce from her husband, John H. Hoenemann, on the grounds of cruelty.

Plaintiff testified that the marriage between her and her husband was not a happy one, and that she had been separated from him for nearly two years.

The court granted plaintiff a decree, and directed the defendant to pay $100 a month, and dismissed the case.

DRUGSTORE ON BROADWAY.

Mr. J. H. Miller, a druggist, was arrested this morning for having sold opium to a colored woman, Mrs. Anna E. George, on April 26, and for having sold cocaine to a colored woman, Mrs. Anna E. George, on April 27.

He was held without bail, and was charged with having sold cocaine to a colored woman.

The trial was adjourned until April 28, when he will be arraigned again.
