

THE CONSTITUTION.

The People Soon to Say What They Will Do With It.

VIEW OF LEADING CITIZENS.

New Chairman of the Republicans and Democratic State Committee Express Themselves.

near at hand and every patriotic citizen would be recreant if his duty as such as an American should be fails to advocate and vote for that great cause.

Judge Donisthorpe, Provo.—Whatever trouble we may have under statehood it continues as a Territory. The causes of increased expenses are mainly recognitions of the Monroe Doctrine.

Judge Nelsom—My view of the situation is that recent events make it the absolute duty to work harder than ever established. The many and courageous stand of the recovered members of the Church in the defense of which the Mormons acted in that statehood will be all right and that it should come.

EXPENSES UNDER STATEHOOD.

From what I call a "current and trustworthy source," the Tribune of this morning has the following extract from article:

"More has been said and many others have been sent through the wire, with the evident intention on the part of our Democratic friends to create an impression in the mind of the voter that the cost of statehood will be increased in case it is admitted."

This is done with the evident intention of inducing Shoshoneans, who are in the way of the truth. No one can seriously estimate the difference between the expenses under statehood and that of the existing power.
