The unsuccessful balloting of this morning's session had the effect only INTENSIFYING THE INTEREST the proceedings of the convention.

in the proceedings of the convention. When called to order after recess the galleries were filled early, and the space reserved for the delegates. The hum of conversation was incessant. Hardly nad the gavel of the chairman fallen upon the desk, when King of Maryiand moved that the convention adjourn until 11 o'clock Monday morning. The chair decided that the roll call of states be called. When it was apparent the motion to adjourn prevailed, the delegates from Alabama arose, inquiring whether the railroad tickets which expired, would be extended. In response, the chairman, whose voice was still weak, directed the secretary to state that the tickets would be good until the convention adjourned sine die, and when the secretary by inadvertence, spoke about passes, the convention realized the ludicrousness of the slip, and applauded and laughed vigorously. The chairman then announced the vote and the convention adjourned.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE that met in the Grand Pacific last night and remained in session until nearly 4 o'clock this morning, assembled immediately after adjournment this morning in parlor No. 3 of the Grand Pacific Hotel. There was a large representation comprising representatives of Alger, Blaine, Allison, Sherman and Hawley.

This meeting was principally called tives of Alger, Blaine, Allison, Sherman and Hawley.

This meeting was principally called for the purpose of defeating the Harrison movement today. They really did not know the object of their meeting, as Harrison had been practically defeated by the adjournment yesterday. However, after various speakers had addressed the meeting upon the impossibility of nominating any man but Blaine, they appointed a committee to take the situation into consideration and to present to the conference committee a ticket which, if the members saw fit, they could report back to their delegation with the recommendation that they support it. A committee of ten was then appointed, reprerenting the different factions, consisting of Colonel Davis and Senator Far well on behalf of Gresham, M. De Young for the Blaine movement. Congressman Hubbard and Clarkson for Allison, Hon. Mr. Duffield for Allison and Governor Foraker and Hon. Benjamin Butterworth for Sherman. The conference then adjourned until 2:30, and the committee then went into session, notifying Senators Hoar and Quay to be present. Senator Quay did not immediately put in an appearance.

The first action taken was by Senator Farwell, who, after complimenting Judge Gresham, said that for the sake of harmony he would withdraw his name. Governor Foster then addressed the committee in behalf of John Sherman as the ablest man that the committee could report in favor of. At the conclusion of Governor Foster's remarks Duffield addressed the committee in favor of General Alger. Clarkson was then called upon and he very strongly urged the claims of Senator Allison. M. H. De Young being called on stated to the committee that he thought they were not there to listen to the praises of the different candidates but to decide upon the man that was most available. THE MOST AVAILABLE MAN. dressed the committee in favor of General Alger. Clarkson was then called upon and he very strongly urged the claims of Senator Allison. M. H. De Young being called on stated to the committee that he thought they were not there to listen to the praises of the different candidates but to decide upon the man that was most avallable and could carry the country for the party and that the better plan would be to examine the merits and demerits of the different candidates. De Young stated to the committee the objections urged by the representatives from the Pacific Coast to two or three of the candidates, setting forth their weaknesses, and concluded by saying there was no necessity of settingforth the claims and availability of Blaine, as everybody was too well acquaised with him to recover the tenth of the contains the names of 423 persons, a bare majority of the delegates.

Sherman fell by the wayside on Friday and Harrison was beaten today. Senator Sherman telegraphed the four Ohio delegates-at-large Friday evening that they could exercise their judgment concerning future operations. Today he telegraphed a more explicit release of all piedges to him.

Elkins claims a large majority of the convention for Blaine, as developed by the representatives from the Pacific Coast to two or three of the candidates, setting forth their weaknesses, and concluded by saying there was no necessity of settingforth the claims and availability of Blaine, as everybody was too well account of the delegates. Blaine, as everybody was too well acquainted with him to require it at this time. At this moment Senator Quay came into the room. He stated that New York had decided to support Blaine, and he could not see how the nomination of Blaine could be avoided. He felt the majority of the convention would be in favor of it.

Chairman Senator Farwell said that in any event, it was the duty of the committee to recommend the name of some candidate for the conference to support as a body, and the name of Congressman McKinley, of Ohio, was proposed. The committee was polled as to some of the candidates, and by a large majority decided that Sherman was

OUT OF THE FIGHT, and that Blaine being a mere pessibility with the convention, it was the duty of the committee to endeavor to elect somebody outside of Blaine, and that he ought not to be considered by the committee. The result of this was a protracted discussion. An attempt was made to catechise the delegates present as to their second choices. Duffield, manager of the Alger forces, was asked who the delegation would support in the event that Genwas asked who the delegation would support in the event that General Alger was out of the way, to which he replied, Blaise. The same question was put to DeYoung, who stated that his position was different from any one present, his delegation was supporting the candidate who, in his opinion, would be nowinated, therefore it was ridiculous to ask him to name a second choice, especially in view of the fact that the candidates represented by other members of the committee were already fully out of the race. At this was different from any one present, his delegation was supporting the candidate who, in his opinion, would be nowinated, therefore it was ridiculous to ask him to name a second choice, especially in view of the fact that the candidates represented by other members of the committee were already fully out of the race. At this gates continues to grow, another man which ground not do. Another delegate stated that McKinley and this morning practically placed himself in some position when he got upon a chair in the convention and stated that he was not a candidate for the presidency. After some more discussion, it was decided to report two names to the conference, and the second name chosen was Allison. The convention was again called to order and the roll of states is being called on a motion to adjourn till Monday II a. m.

The result of the call is as follows: Alabama—Yes 16, no 4; Arkansas—Yes 14; California—Yes 16; Colorado—Yes 6; Connecticut—Yes 6, no 5; Delaware—Yes 22, no 1; Illinois—blank; Indiana—No 30; Iowa—Yes 26; Kansas—Yes 18; Kentucky—6 not voting, yes 4, no 18; Louisiana—Yes 16, maine—Yes 12; Maryland—Yes 14, no 12; Michigan—No 26; Min—Yes 14, no 12; Michi

General satisfaction is felt by those having Blaine's interests in hand at the display of forbearance on the part of the California delegation, in managing Blaine's interests on the floor of the convention. Through the efforts of the leaders in the party and the able management, the Californians have so suppressed the Blaine movement in the convention. convention, as to cause no disaffection or ill-feeling on the part of any other candidates. Their tactics have been, so they iclaim, in keeping with the feelings of Blaine as represented here by his friends. It was BLAINE'S DESIRE that every candidate who has been working for months to secure the great prize of the Presidential nomination should have a fair show on the floor of the convention, and not have to com-bat Blaine's great strength and popu-larity. In deference to these desires the managers of Blaine, when the convention first met, sought out the dele-gations, and with great effect secured the acquiescence of the majority of them to vote for other candidates as them to vote for other candidates as long as any of them had any show. That this was done is evidenced now by one of the most peculiar roll calls ever known in a national convention. But five states cast solid ballots continuously, the others being split up, and one delegation (Dakota) gave each candidate in nomination a vote and candidate in nomination a vote, and Fitler 2, thereby causing great amuse-ment to those who knew the meaning of the move.

BLAINE'S MANAGERS think the time has now come to assert themselves. They claim to have given the other candidates every opportunity to secure the nomination. The convention has been balloting since yesterday morning, and they think it has been clearly demonstrated that neither Sherman, Gresham, Allison nor Alger have the faintest chance. So at the next session of the convention it is confidently expected that the Blaine men will demand their candidate's somination and show their full strength.

The fifth day closes with the situation showing tion showing

BLAINE AGAINST THE FIELD. There was a narrow escape from a Blaine stampede in the convention at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Depew, who was responsible for the Harrison combination which yesterday gave such promise, today admitted the fallure of that movement, and declared himself for Blaine. Instead of getting the nomination this morning, Harrison was forced to the utmost of his strength and compelled to fall back confessedly beaten. Harrison's friends are all very indignant at the manner in which he has been treated and claim a mere pretense was made of giving him hearty support, and that from the first it was not intended by Elkins and his colleagues to permit the Hoosier's nomination. They are in an ugly mood tonight, and while confessing their favorite's defeat, have no plans for the future. Probably they will swallow their disappointment with as good a grace as possible, and play for second place on the ticket. Elkin's programme of beating the regular candidates, one after another, thus preparing the way for Bialne as a finality, which has previously been described in these dispatches, is being successfully carried out. There was a narrow escape from

THE BLAINE MEN PAVOR DELAY.

This afternoon's adjournment without a ballot was at first put down as an anti-Blaine victory, but the facts do not support this theory. There are good reasons for believing Depews abandonment of Harrison was arranged to be the signal for a Blaine stampede, but it is the policy of the Blaine forces to aid all efforts to secure delay. They say they are in no hurry to nominate Blaine, and want all the other candidates to have as good a chance and as much time as their friends may ask for. Taey take this position because they desire not only to nominate Blaine, but to nominate him in such a manner as will not have the appearance of riding down the other candidates. There is no concealment of the BITTER FEELING PREVAILING tenight over the manner in which the convention is being juggled with by the friends of Blaine who pretend to be giving the other candidates a fair chance and at the same time take good care to defeat them one after another as they rise in prominence in balloting. So much feeling is being engendered by these tactics which the friends of Harrison denounce as a confidence game and making dapes of carnest men that ILA to ena REVOLT Water Have besides Blaine may yet be nominated. Elkins has openly boasted of his ability to beat any candidate the opposition may yut up and also boasts of having defeated Sherman and Harrison. Elkins says there is no doubt of Blaine's acceptance if nominated. A vigorous effort will be made between this and Monday morning to combine the field against Blaine, but nothing will be decided on till tomorrow night. The present outlook is that Allison or Gresham or McKiuley will take the lead. The current prediction tonight is that Blaine will be nominated Monday after a conference with the representatives of the defeated candidates, at which a letter or telegram from Blaine will be read.

SHERMAN'S WITHDRAWAL DENIED. Notwithstanding the efforts to the Notwithstanding the efforts to the contrary on the part of that wing of the Ohio convention led by Congressman Butterworth and ex-Governor Foster, the principal topic of conversation tonight was the rumor that Sherman had withdrawn from the contest and had instructed nis friends to cast the vote of Ohio for McKinley. It is said on the best authority that Murat Halstead has been in telegraphic communication with the Ohio candidate and that the latter had been asked to withdraw his name and that he had to withdraw his name and that he had complied with the request, and in the dispatch to the Cincinnati editor had asked that McKinley be supported. The alleged recipient of this important telegram and the gentlemen above named deny any such withdrawal and insist that Sherman is still in the field.

under which this remarkable contest is to be fought out. It has gradually dawned upon the convention that certain men who represent Blaine had determined to prevent the nomination of any other candidate in order to make Blaine's nomination a possibility. The convention as a whole had just awakened to a realization of the negative influence which has all along prevented any crystalization of settlement and nomination. The friends of other candidates are indignant that the convention should be dominated by an influence, which without an avowed candidate of its own, attempts to push sincere candidates to the front and then defeat them. under which this remarkable contest

TELEGRAMS TO BLAINE. So much feeling has developed that various cablegrams have been sent to Biaine besides those which he is supposed to receive from Elkins and Phelps. In these dispatches the actual condition of affairs here have been fully described and the bad feelings and probable demoralization of the party of his representatives are perparty, if his representatives are permitted to continue their tactics, are carefully pointed out. There is a general belief that

SOME DISPATCH FROM BLAINE will be read in the convention tomorrow, probably one requesting his friends from voting for him. A Chicago man whe has been empowered to speak for Blaine and who is a man of good judgment and not a politician was called into the conference of the Blaine leaders, just before the meeting of the convention yesterday afternoon, and informed of the plan to force the nomination of Blaine, and was shown a list of 425 reliable Blaine delegates—a majority of the whole convention. This man leoked over the list and saw that it comprised the names of delegates who are here ostensibly for other candidates and at once gave

"This thing must come to a stop," said he, "Blaine cannot take this nomination by riding over the rights of any men now in the field. programme is not sanctioned by Blaine himself. The plan of opposition is simply to stand firm and wait for Blaine himself to speak or for his representatives to force the issue. The feeling is that if Blaine does not settle the matter, the convention will have to settle it and that the convention cannot sincerely go about the business of choosing a leader as long as this Blaine spectre hangs over it. The convention tomorrow morning will face the fact that the candidates whom Elkins professes to have killed are still in the race. They are in for the purpose of winning if possible and are determined at all hazards to prevent the nomination of Blaine. determined at all hazards to prevent the nomination of Blaine.

is likely to show a repetition of the S. C. M. I.

There is no doubt McKinley has made a fine impression and is popular not only on his own account, but it has been noticed those who were doing all in their power to press him to the front were Blaine men. In the conference of candidates the Blaine influence has been excited in favor of adopting McKinley as the leader of the opposition forces, all anti-Blaine in the convention concentrating their strength upon him. This effort is to induce the other candidates to withdraw and to bring McKinley forward as a dark horse to take their place, when Blaine will be nominated. The logic of this is easily perceived.

WHY THEY WISH A DARK HORSE. Blaine cannot, in honor, take this nomination if it is secured by running over the candidates who entered the field and did the best they could for themselves. But if these candidates would voluntarily withdraw and a dark horse takes their place, no obligadark horse takes their place, no obligation rests upon Blaine as to the new-comer who has not been a candidate, and whose friends have put forth no efforts in his behalf under the supposition that Blaine was out of the race. An effort also has been made by the Blaine people to get Foraker to stand as a dark horse, and Foraker has passed before the convention with that purpose, in view of a distinct understanding, that if the anti-Blaine Kinley blaze, but they overplayed the game and were detected. Sherman withdrew his withdrawal; and his representatives here denied that he had retired from the race, and the senator himself was interviewed in Washington to the same effect.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured.
