

Desperate and Heroic Work of Saving U. S. Mint

SAVING of the United States mint at San Francisco, which is the marvel of all who know how the fire raged about it, goes to the credit of 40 brave mint employees and a company of coast artillery men, says a special dispatch to the New York Press. The mint alone of all the buildings in its district, was spared from destruction, and it now stands alone in a district of black ruin. It is damaged, but in its treasure vaults its $100,000,000 of specie lie safe.

The mint did not merely escape burn-would burn thrown into the yard. Soldiers and mint employees worked with utmost haste, throwing great timbers and tank staves into the court. Here were 20 tanks of blue vitriol, the surfaces of which were soon covered with debris, into which increasing showers of cinders fell. Fortunately the mint possesses a good wall, and Brady, the engineer, pumped water to the fire fighters assembled on the roof. As the fire swept up Fifth street the heat increased to a dangerous degree, as one by one the Metropolitan hall and the historic Lincoln school burst into flames, reinforced by the roaring furnace of the Emporium. On the west the block bounded by Sixth and Market streets on the north gave the gravest concern, for from this quarter the fire was certain to rage in its fury. Fanned by a roaring north wind the flames roared through the structures stretching from the Windward hotel to the Emma Spreckles building. Shows of fire 200 feet high licked up the intervening houses in Mint avenue. Augmented by these tinder boxes the blast of the fire burst fiercely on the northwest corner of the mint. "A few desperate fighters under former Fire Chief Kennedy of Oakland were driven from between the tottering chimneys, where the determined men had been throwing buckets of water upon the blazing roof over the gold refinery, which was on top of the copper roof of the mint. It is largely due to the experience of former Fire Chief Kennedy that the tar covered roof, the weakest spot of all, was saturated with sufficient water to stay the flames. "When the fire leaped Mint avenue in solid masses of flame the refinery men stuck to their windows as long as the glass remained in the frames. Seventy-five feet of a one inch hose played a slender stream on the blazing roof companies will not pay for earthquake damage, it will be difficult in many cases to tell where the earthquake damage left off and the fire damage began. For that reason the great fire companies that were arranging with their banks for large advances a few days ago based their negotiations on the probability of having to stand a very large proportion of whatever property loss was actually involved.

CHILD'S SELF SACRIFICE.

Gave All Her Savings in Toy Bank to The Relief Fund.

A touching story of self sacrifice made by a little girl out of sympathy for the suffering children of San Francisco was told recently by a member of the Protestant Episcopal church of the Redeemer in Brooklyn, says the New York Times. The child's name is Marion, and she lives in Dean street. She attends the Sunday school of the church. Saturday (April 21) was Marion's birthday, and besides other gifts her father and her aunt each gave a dollar to her to place in her toy bank. In addition to this money the child had sixty-five pennies in the bank.

On the following Sunday Marion heard at the church that a collection for the relief fund was to be taken at the evening service. Marion had her father tell her about the disaster, and was greatly affected when told of the plight of the homeless children in San Francisco. That evening she insisted upon accompanying her aunt to church. When the San Francisco collection was taken up Marion astonished her aunt by dropping $2.65 in the basket.

"That's all I have," she whispered to the collector apologetically. "I have no more," she said. Home she made a timid and hesitating confession to her father. "Did I do right, papa?" she asked anxiously. The father just reached out and, folding the child in his arms, kissed her in silence.

PIRATING FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and receive it. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

Chicago to San Francisco.

Fair sister of the sunset land. With aching heart and tear wet eyes, We think upon thy cruel wounds, And listen to thy plaintive cries. Stunned at the sorrow thou dost bear, Fair guardian of the Golden Gate, We ask in pity and despair Why thou hast suffered such a fate.

Fair sister, prostrate in thy woe. We can but cry to thee: "Take heart! Our hands shall bind thy aching wounds. For dear indeed to us thou art. Such sorrow as is thine today Has borne us down, ah, cruelly! Fair sister by the placid bay, A sister's tears are shed for thee."
