A Good Entertainment,-What promises to be one of the "hits" of the season is an operatic entertainment to be given in the Twentleth Ward School house on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, 1884. The programme will commence with an ollo, in which Prof. Joseph J. Daynes, Josiah Burrows, Jas. Crawford, Mrs. Annie Murphy, Miss Elia [Dunbar, and others will take part, and which in it-sey will be a treat. Part Second will consist of choice selections from the Twentieth Ward Harmonica Band, which has been under good tuition for the occasion. Part Third is the opera itself, which has been carefully revised and into which a number of local characters have been introduced.
