

Throughout the week the symbols of mystic orders, the insignia of the royal drama, the fantastic Kinging of Carnival and the myriad show of the shamrock emblem of Erin's patron saint have in turn gleamed from the walls of local pleasure halls—the divines and subjects of these potential powers, communing their devious in modish rites of dancing, music, and other social features.

The H. P. Phoenix Lodge, I. O. O. F., opened the week with a doughty entertainment, given at the Leslie Literary club room on Monday night. Besides the regular program of dances, a special feature was introduced in the shape of a cake-walk in which Miss Marion Laddie, with Misses Levy, and two other young girls, Mr. Rockwood and Mrs. Waters, Mr. Maxine, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Lester were the competitors.

The prize, which went to the lady by acclamation, proved to be a regulation cake, a choice loaf, dressed with a crown which created great merriment among the competitors and guests. The ladies to whom credit for much of the success of the affair is due was made up of J. Isaac, H. Hutchins, and W. G. Waters.

On Tuesday night, at Christensen's, the crescent, scimitar, and scabbard banners of the Orient symbolized the Pathway of the Magi, the throng of gay fairies gathering at the shrine of the star, to participate in the festive revels for the event. The Mystic Harmonie was again in hand, only the atmosphere of El Kalah on Tuesday left a more ample of space for the display of a host of rites which usually culminate in the Orient and their ramifications made half the attractions—over three hundred guests assembling on the floor. Refreshments were served in recognition room for Mrs. Peterson, after the evening, the tables being prepared with red carnations.

Preparations were made by the notion of El Kalah for a ceremonial session to take place on March 26th, when the hall will be filled with a large number of novitiates who will be initiated with appropriate ceremonies.

On Thursday night at Leslie Lodge No. 1 of the I. O. O. F. gave an entertainment at their hall. An excellent program was given, opening with an address by Grand Master Stockman of Colorado.

A delightful social event of the week was the dancing-party given by Miss Mamie Clarendon last night in honor of Mr. G. G. Grow, who has recently returned from a long vacation in Manila. About thirty-five guests were invited to do honor to the ex-officer of the U.S. Marines, a most delightful time being had by all.

The prevalence of the emerald hue in the decorations used for the occasion showed that the rainy day had not been forgotten—the rooms were decorated wholly in green—ribbons and streamers of green ribbon, creating a gay effect.

During the evening refreshments were served, the table decorations carrying out the St. Patrick's day scheme.

A delightful social event occurred on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lewis, when the first of a series of social meetings of the First Protestant Women's Aid was held. The entertainment being in the nature of a tea party, the Woman's Aid and the prominent Democrats of the men constituting the chairman and committee and other officials and prominent members of the parish.

A most interesting program was rendered by the singing group of four persons comprising some excellent musical selections by Mrs. Louis U. Koenig, Mrs. Anna M. Matson, Mrs. Anna E. Smith, Mrs. Cuthbert and Mrs. Oscar Peterson. Some unique and interesting features introduced were a charming solo by Mrs. Peterson, a dance by Little Miss Lawrence, and a song rendered by Miss York Young, a solo by Mrs. Peterson, and a solo by Miss Peterson.

The entertainment was a success, and the audience was entertained by the Young Men's and Young Ladies of the Twentieth Legion.

A speech was made by Hon. James H. Moore, who eloquently condemned political corruption in the state of Utah in the way of a tribute to the illustrious State Senator Hobson following with remarks appropriate to the place and time.

The rooms were prettily decorated, and refreshments were served—the affairs of the meeting one of the notable events of the month.

A most delightful entertainment was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Proctor, entertained at a card party at their residence on Sixth South street. The first games were won by Mrs. Standard, followed by Mr. John Strehman. The consolation prizes were given to Mr. and Mrs. Proctor.

Last night the ladies auxiliary of the T. M. I. A. held an informal reception in honor of the members who have recently joined the association.

At the Normandy on Thursday evening a social gathering was given in the name of the hotel under a member of their friends joining in a striking impersonation were given by Miss Bowden, Mrs. Johnson, Miss E. Taylor, Miss Louis, and Mr. Thomas. Miss, Mrs. Louis, Mrs. Howard, and Charlie Peacock, were the principal among the pleasing features of the evening, the entire being won by Miss Bowden. Many other notable performances were seen, the entire being successful in all respects.

The Marine tea to be given by the Marine for the benefit of the sick and disabled, will be held Saturday afternoon at the Marine Club.
