THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Up Goes Price of Pork—The Hammond Packing company has raised the price of fresh pork 2 cents.

Ministers to Meet—The Salt Lake Ministerial association will hold its first fall meeting next Monday noon, in the Y. M. C. A. building.

Death of Mrs. A. V. Officer—Mrs. Alexander V. Officer, formerly of this city, died yesterday in Denver from typhoid fever. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Five Acres Change Hands—Le Grand Young has sold to L. H. Curtis five acres of the Lorenzo D. Young estate at Ninth East and Tenth South streets, for $11,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr Retained—Mr. and Mrs. Kerr have been retained as superintendent and matron of the Canyon Crest ranch. The manual training building will be completed by Oct. 1.

Poplar Grove In Line—Poplar Grove citizens want their district improved, so the city council will be asked to put up more street lamps there, and to better the condition of the Redwood road, as well as to give better fire protection.

Fire Laddies Remembered—As a token of appreciation for the work done by members of the fire and police departments at the recent fire at the Royal cafe, Proprietor George Mueller, has presented the fire department with $25 and the police department with $15. The money goes to the relief funds of the two departments.

Seeks an Old Friend—H. Anderson of 1132 South Ninth street, Denver, is spending a few days in this city and is anxious to meet an old playmate of his in Sweden who emigrated to Utah about 1876 with her mother. When she left her native land she was Miss Anna Hall of Christianstad, Ewerod, Sweden, but since that time Mr. Anderson has not heard of her. He is at present staying at the Hercules on Third South.

Looks Good to Him—Herman Gilfallin who has been a partner of Chas. Force in a tonsorial establishment on West Second South street, has purchased Mr. Force's interest and will now conduct the business himself. Mr. Gilfallin is a Missourian. "I have been shown," he said, "I came clear out from Missouri to see if Salt Lake was as I had heard and a short stay here convinced me that this city is a comer, and all that is claimed for it. This is where I stay. Mr. Force has returned to Illinois."

Exhibit of Paintings—Harry S. Culmer plans to make an exhibit of his paintings during the coming week at his studio, 18 East South Temple street. In addition to a number of new productions the "Mystery of the Desert" will be shown. It deals with a great scenic feature near Moab in the southeastern country in which Mr. Culmer worked extensively several years ago. All of the paintings shown will deal with Rocky mountain scenery.

Funeral of G. W. Blom—The funeral of G. W. Blom, the Hollander, who committed suicide Thursday, took place this forenoon, from the undertaking parlor of E. W. Hall. The man shot himself in the abdomen, a locality not always proving fatal, in this instance the bullet pierced at least three vital organs, the stomach, liver, spleen and kidney, any one of which would probably have produced death. Blom was a building contractor, and became despondent because of having lost heavily in his work of late.

GULL MONUMENT.

M. M. Young's Artistic Idea Receives Notice in Monument News.

The September number of the "Monumental News," a paper given to the discussion of art as expressed in granite, marble, stone and bronze, contains a review of the "Sea Gull Monument" planned by Mahonri M. Young of this city, to commemorate the fight between the gulls and the crickets in 1848 and 1849 which resulted finally in a victory for the farmers whose crops the crickets were trying to destroy before the gulls finally wiped them out of existence.

"The monument," says the magazine, "is a Corinthian column, surmounted by a ball on which two gulls are lighting. There are four bronze relief panels at the base, on which the story of Utah's earliest fight for community existence is worked out. At the base of the cap the enrichment is of alighting gulls with wings touching overhead instead of the conventional leaves which are distinct of this style."

Mr. Young has spent the present summer working on his sketch. A small model of it will soon be placed on exhibition, and it is possible that a public movement may be commenced to erect the monument in Liberty park or some other suitable place. It portrays a story native to Utah, which is of a vital period in the state's first history.

WARRANTS DISCOUNTED.

The state board of land commissioners yesterday purchased from S. Birch, the sidewalk contractor of this city, special improvement warrants of the face value of $7,651.47, the price paid by the board being $7,268.50, a discount of 5 per cent or the total sum of $382.57. The warrants bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

We beg to announce that we have disposed of our Hat & Furnishing Goods stock to the W. E. Fife Co., who will continue the business as heretofore at 166 Main St. We desire to cordially thank our customers for their many years of valued patronage and at the same time recommend our successors who will cater to their wants in the same manner that they have been served in the past. We are still sole proprietors of the Troy Laundry, "The Laundry of Quality." There will be no change of our Main Office, 166 Main St.,

WILL EXHIBIT PAINTINGS.

John Hafen Is to Send Twenty-six Pictures to Boston.

John Hafen, who has spent the present summer painting at Silver Lake, will soon place on exhibit in the Commercial club a large painting of quaking aspe, painted near the "Solitude Trail" in the heart of the Wasatch mountains. Mr. Hafen's earlier work on this subject brought him national recognition. In addition to this large effort, the summer's work in the mountains is represented by 26 paintings of choice Wasatch scenery. These will be taken to Boston during the coming winter for an exhibit which C. E. Dallin is arranging for Mr. Hafen. As a result of this opportunity many friends of Mr. Hafen are looking for him to acquire a national standing commensurate with his ability with brush and pencil. He is a Springville boy, from which locality Dallin, Fairbanks and several other painters came. Much of his earlier work deals with Utah lake scenery, and mountain vistas near Springville.

An 80-ACRE FARM OF EXCELLENT land, located one and a half miles south of Logan, sugar factory, three miles from condensed milk factory; B. Y. and Agricultural Colleges and one mile from dairy. Has a first class water right, all under fence and divided into several fields, with water in each, has an orchard, two houses, two sets of stables, yards and would make two or three good homes. Inquire of Israel Barlow, Jr., Woods Cross, Utah.

A BARGAIN.

One 15-room brick residence, with independent high pressure purest water supply, piped into house, bathroom, store and lawn.

One merchandise brick store, 26x75 feet, and basement, and one frame store, 20x40 feet, adjoining. One frame barn, 30x135 feet. One ice house, 14x14 feet. Railroad track to coal sheds. Street cars run close by the doors, situated on Washington Avenue in the center of North Ogden. Superb climate, acknowledged to be the best fruitgrowing locality in Utah, with or without 13 acres of the best land in Utah, and a never-ending supply of water right.

Reason for selling is that some purchaser can reside on it and use the resources available and honestly get rich, while the present owners have too much other increasing business to give this place deserved attention. Apply to Sidney Stevens Implement Company, Ogden, Utah.
