

TELEGRAPHIC. WORSE FOR DURRANT

The Most Important Testimony During the Trial.

Sweeping Away the Defense.

Witness Called in Rebuttal Contradict the Accused Man in Every Point.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—At the close of the trial this morning the decision of the court in Theodore Durrant's case announced that it had refused to accept the testimony in rebuttal as it was at once begun by the prosecution.

The testimony was the most important given during the trial, as it demonstrated with a few words the case of the witness who was on the stand in rebuttal. The testimony of Dr. William Graham, who was called in rebuttal, was considered by the jury as a very important link in the chain of evidence. Graham, who is a well known physician, testified that he had seen Durrant on the night of the murder and that he had seen him in the morning of the 21st.

Dr. Graham testified that he had seen Durrant on the night of the murder and that he had seen him in the morning of the 21st. He testified that he had seen Durrant in the morning of the 21st and that he had seen him in the evening of the 21st. He testified that he had seen Durrant in the morning of the 21st and that he had seen him in the evening of the 21st.

The first witness called in rebuttal by the prosecution was the five trustees of Emmanuel church. They testified that they had seen Durrant on the night of the murder and that they had seen him in the morning of the 21st.

E. A. Glasser, a student at the medical college, testified that he had seen Durrant on the night of the murder and that he had seen him in the morning of the 21st.

Prof. Price was also called about the dark stain on the side of Rev. Gibson's shoe which was found in the pocket of the defendant. The witness testified that he had seen the stain and that he had seen it in the pocket of the defendant.

From the present outlook the case will go to the jury not later than the close of next week, having been on trial since July 22nd.

THE VANDERBILT WEDDING. Large New Church—Grand Reception—The Bride.

The marriage of her daughter, Countess, to the Duke of Marlborough, on Wednesday, November 30, at 12 o'clock, at St. Thomas church, Fifth avenue.

Police force will be extended to the limits of the current police. The instructions are to allow no one on the street except the police, and the streets will be free to the public.

Several magnificent wedding presents have been ordered sent back to England on account of the custom duties. Vice Consul Fraser, of the British consulate, has endeavored to have the treasury department pay for all of the articles being sent to the house and then returned, but without avail.

"I have known Mrs. Barker very well, and we were in New York together just before she was arrested. I am not at all inclined to believe any such stories as have been circulated regarding her relations with Col. Child."

DEVELOP. Oct. 22.—A special to the News from Chicago, Wis., says: A change of time on the Union Pacific is talked of, to begin on November 1st, which will be a corresponding change on the North Western, leaving the time between Chicago and Ogden eight hours. The Central Pacific schedule is also necessarily shortened. This change will beat the route by two hours.
