FROM GOLD MOUNTAIN.

Allen Gorr of Tribune Mine Anticipates Prosperity.

Allen Gorr,a well known mining oper-ator of the Gold Mountain mining dis-trict and superintendent of the Trib-une mine, on Fish creek, near Kimber-by in the site ly, is in the city. Mr. Gorr speaks enthusiastically of the great gold district in the south and sorticipates a healthy boom for that section in the spring. The purchasers of the old Sevier mine, he states, are going to do a vast amount of development work this year and just as soon as the roads are open, that company will take in a lot of machinery. The mill on the property is to be enlarged, and before many months come and go it is expected that the plant will be in

Mr. Gorr has suspended work on the Tribune for the present, on account of the almost impassable condition of the roads, but operations will be resumed with renewed vigor a little later.

WATER AT THE MIDAS.

Indications that Past Difficulties Will Soon be Overcome,

Development work is being pushed with vigor at the Midas mine in the Deep Creek country. A scarcity of wa-ter has been the chief draw back to the mine in the past, but indications are vorable that this difficulty will soon be

James Chipman, who is one of the principal shareholders, says that a wa-ter supply is being developed simultans-ously with the opening up of new ore bodies in the mine.

D. H. Peery Returns.

President D. H. Peery of the Sait Lake stock exchange, reached home this morning from the Hawaiian Islands. He states that the trip was a very enjoy-able one all the way through, and that he became very much impressed with Uncle Sam's late Pacific acquisition.

Loon Creek Litigation.

There is likely to be a selge of litigation over a valuable mining property in the new camp of Loon Creek, ida, The prinicpals are ex-State Senator Revanil Macbeth and W. T. Oster, the latter superintendent of the Lost Packet mine. Superintendent of the Losi Packet mine, According to a statement published in the Custer Prospector, C. C. Chap-man had given an option to Mr. Oster on a group of Loon Creek claims, the consideration being $35,000. Later on, it is said, Chapman entered into an arrangement with Mr. Macheth for the same claims, the lation entered for the same claims, the latter paying him $102 to bind the bargain and agreeing to make the first payment of $1,302 as soon as the legal formalities could be complied with.

Walks Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed C. Nud, lowaville, Sedwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was in-duced to try Bailard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 5.c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recomminded it to a number of persons, all express them-selves as being benefitted by it. IT CURES THE CAUSE. "For 20 years until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 13th of June, 1900, i com-menced using Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, and an pleased to say that I consider myself ontirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to you my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire precovers. At the time I began to use Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, my health was in a critical condition and my friends had almost vitien up hopes of my recovery, and I am for Nau's Dyspepsia Care. I would not be allowed to write this letter." (Signed) N.M. CHURCH, Cashier La Grande, Oregon Na-tional Bank. For sale by druggists or direct. Price, $1.00 a bottle; 6 bottles, $5.00. The F.
