SOUTHERN TOUR. STAKE CONFERENCES, PRIESTHOOD AND POLITICAL MEETINGS.

FRISCO. MILFORD, June 28th, 1881. Editor Deseret News: On the morning of June 4th, 1881, Apostles F. M. Lyman and John Henry Smith, with Elder Junius F. Wells, started on a tour of the southern settlements. At Miners-ville they were joined by President John R. Murdock, with a good team and conveyance. The tour was made from Minersville to Cedar City thence via Kanarra, Leeds, Harrisburg and Washington to St George, meetings being held at each place en route. St. George Stake conference was attended on June 11th and 12th, during which some remarkable meetings were held of the Stake officers and priesthood, who were instructed and encouraged in the performance of couraged in the performance of their duties. After a trip to Santa Clara and return, the homeward journey was commenced, the route taken being by Pine Valley, Hamblin, Pinto, Cedar City, Johnson Springs, and Summit to Parowan, meetings being held in all of those places. The Parowan Stake Conference was attended June 18th and 18th.

convention be held in Beaver July 16th, to make the nominations and agree upon a plan for the future nomination of Legislative members.

Monday, June 20. The party accompanied by President T. J. Jones, of Parowan Stake, and Brother Wm. Holyoak, started via Panguitch Lake for Panguitch, President Murdock leaving us at Paragoonah, to return to Beaver. We had a pleasant sail on the beautiful lake and a fine salmon trout dinner at Bro. Ipson's, when continuing our journey we reached Panguitch late in the evening. The next day three meetings were held at which counsel on dutles of the priesthood and the political rights of the people was given. Wednesday, June 22d, we made the trip to Beaver over a fine canon road via Bear Valley and Fremont Pass, the distance being 45 miles.

From Wednesday evening until ment of Beaver Conference nearly forty meetings had been held and upwards of 500 miles traveled.

igs were held. Sunday evening we drove to Minersville and the following day went to Frisco. In that town the first branch organized in the mining camps of the Territory was established. During the day a council meeting was held in the Southern Hotel, at which it was agreed to organize a ward, and ominated and sustained as the offihominated and sustained as the offi-cers: Designation Desart, or Fur-more, Bishop; Sylvester H Reeves and John D. Irvine, of Salt Lake City, Counselors; A. M. Christenson and James McPherson, were chosen to act as Teachers. These brethren were ordained and set apart to their several offices after the evening meet-ing, which was held in the Opera House. A very large, orderly and in

The prospects at Frisco are very good for a permanent branch of the Church, there being many young men engaged at work on the railroad, in the mines, coal pits, woodcutting, etc. A good spirit prevailed, and the brethren feel well satisfied with their labors there.

To-morrow, June 29th, we con-tinue our journey, going to Deseret, where two meetings will be held, thence to Fillmore, to conference, July 2nd and 3rd. The health of all has been good, though Bro. Smith, at the commencement of our tour, was far from well.

Fine weather, good traveling and the most hospitable treatment by the people, have characterized our trip, and the consciousness of strivents. ing to do good, to encourage and strengthen the Saints, has made the time pass agreeably to us all.

Yours truly,

JUNIUS F. WELLS.
