County Attorney Christensen Asked for Another Opinion.

County Clerk James, upon instrucions from the board of county comnissioners, has requested County Attorney Christensen's opinion on the matter of overtime for all classes of assistants in the county offices. It has been customary for many years to pay deputies for overtime, without regard o the two-thirds limit, and consider he same as a separate contract. The ommunication states that under the resent construction of the law some eputies can be paid for overtime and thers can not, though the salaries of all are fixed by the same provision of > mannen AMUSEMENTS.

It was a brilliant and a representative audience that came out to greet Blanche Walsh last evening and to pass judg-Dent. ment on her new play, "La Made leine." Briefly, it may be said that the actress fully deserved the warm welcome she received, and the great bursts of applause that brought her specialty. again and again before the curtain at the end of the third act. The verdici over the play was less warm. It be-longs to a class that the average audience will never enthuse over or sympathise with. Laid in the sphere
