

PRINCIPLES ON WHICH REPUBLICANS STAND

America Reaches Greatest Era of Advancement Under Roosevelt—Equal Opportunity for All Citizens—For Sound Currency and Postal Banks—Railroad Law Approved—Authority of Courts Will Be Upheld—For Extension of Foreign Commerce—Differences Between Parties.

Chicago, June 18.—The text of the platform as adopted by the committee on resolutions is as follows:

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Once more the Republican party, in national convention assembled, submits its cause to the people. This great historic organization, that destroyed slavery, preserved the Union, restored credit, expanded the national domain, established a sound financial system, developed the industries and resources of the country and gave to the nation her seat of honor in the councils of the world, now meets the new problem of government with the same courage and capacity with which it solved the old.

REPUBLICANISM UNDER ROOSEVELT

In this, the greatest era of American advancement the Republican party has reached its highest service under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. His administration is an epoch in American history. In no other period has the national sovereignty been won under Washington or preserved under Lincoln. There have been such mighty progress in the fields of government, which make for justice, equality and fair dealing among men. The highest aspirations of the American people have been lifted to a nobler plane of duty and obligation. Conscience and courage in public stations and higher standards of right and wrong in private life have become cardinal principles of political faith. Capital and labor have been brought into closer relations of confidence and independence; and the abuse of wealth, the tyranny of power and all the evils of the past have been put to rest by the simple, manly virtues of justice and fair play.

The great accomplishments of President Roosevelt have been the most brilliant of the age. The prosecution of illegal trusts and monopolies; the exposure and punishment of evil doers; the public service of the nation; the transportation lines, the complete overthrow of preference, rebates and discriminations; the arbitration of labor disputes; the mediation of the nation's quarrels; the conservation of the natural resources of the country; the forward step in the improvement of the inland waterways; and always the earnest support of the people's wholesome safeguard which has made more secure the guarantees of life, liberty and property.

These are the achievements that will make for Theodore Roosevelt his place in history, but more than all else the things he has done will be an inspiration to those who have yet greater things to do. We declare our unflinching adherence to the policies thus inaugurated and pledge their continued and unswerving support.

EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

Under the guidance of Republican principles the American people have become the richest nation in the world. Our wealth today exceeds that of England and all her colonies; and that of France and Germany combined. When the Republican party was born the total wealth of the country was $16,000,000,000. It has leaped to $110,000,000,000 in five hundred years. Great Britain has gathered about $80,000,000,000 in five hundred years. The United States now owns one-fourth of the world's wealth and makes one-third of all modern products of the world. In the great necessities of civilization, such as coal, the motive power of all activity, iron, the chief basis of modern industry, the staple foundation of all fabrics; wheat, corn and all agricultural products that feed mankind, America's supremacy is undisputed. And yet her great natural wealth has been scarcely touched. We have a vast domain of 3,000,000 square miles, literally bursting with latent resources, waiting the magic of capital and industry to be converted to the practical uses of mankind; a country rich in soil and climate, in the unharmed energy of its rivers and in all the vast products of the field and forest and the factory. With gratitude for God's bounty, with pride in the splendid productivity of the land and with obedience to the principles of the future, the Republican party declares for the principles that in the development and enjoyment of wealth so great and blessings so boundless there shall be equal opportunity for all.

THE REVIVAL OF BUSINESS

Nothing so clearly demonstrates the sound basis upon which our commercial, industrial and agricultural interests are founded, and the necessity of promoting the present continued welfare through the operation of Republican policies as the recent safe passage of the American people through a financial disturbance which, if persisting in the hands of the Democratic rule or the menace of it, might have equalled the familiar Democratic panics of the past. We congratulate the people upon this renewed evidence of American supremacy and with confidence the signs now manifest of a complete restoration of business prosperity in all lines of trade, commerce and manufacturing.

RECENT REPUBLICAN LEGISLATION

Since the election of William McKinley in 1896, the people of this country have seen the Republican party through decisive majority the control and direction of all national legislation. The many wise and progressive measures adopted at recent sessions of Congress have demonstrated the patriotic resolve of Republican leadership in the legislative department to keep step in the forward march to better government.

Notwithstanding the indefensible filibustering of the Democratic minority in the house of representatives during the last session, many wholesome and progressive laws were enacted and we especially commend the passage of the currency bill, the appointment of a national monetary commission, the employers and government liability laws, the measure for the greater efficiency of the army and navy, the widow's pension bill; the child labor laws for the District of Columbia; the new statutes for the safety of railroad engineers and firemen and many other acts conserving the public welfare.

REPUBLICAN PLEDGES FOR THE FUTURE

Tariff.—The Republican party declares unequivocally for a revision of the tariff by a special session of Congress immediately following the inauguration of the next president, and commends the steps already taken to this end in the work assigned to the appropriate committees of Congress, which are now investigating the operation and effect of existing schedules. In all tariff legislation, the true principle of protection is best maintained by the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, together with a reasonable profit to American industries. We favor the establishment of maximum and minimum rates to be adjusted to the present under limitations fixed in the law, the maximum to be available to meet discriminations by foreign countries against the American goods entering free markets and the minimum to represent the normal measure of protection at home; the aim and purpose of the Republican policy being not only to preserve, without excessive duties, the minimum security against foreign competition to which American manufacturers, farmers and producers are entitled, but also to maintain a high standard of living of the wage earners of this country, who are the most direct beneficiaries of the protective system. Between the United States and the Philippines, believe in a free interchange of products with such limitations as to sugar and tobacco as will always afford adequate protection to domestic interests.

Current.—We approve the emergency measures adopted by the government during the recent financial disturbances and especially commend the passage by Congress to that end of the law designed to protect the country from a repetition of such a stringency. The Republican party is committed to the development of a permanent currency system responding to our greatest needs and to the appointment of the national monetary commission by the present Congress, which will impartially investigate all proposed methods and means for the realization of this purpose. The present currency laws have fully justified their adoption, but an expanding commerce, a marvelous growth in wealth and population, the increasing centers of distribution, increasing the demand for movement of crops in the west and south and entailing periodic changes in monetary conditions, disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system. Such a system must meet the requirements of agriculturists, manufacturers, merchants and business generally, must be automatic in operation, minimizing the fluctuations in interest rates, and above all must be in harmony with that Republican doctrine which insists that the natural resources of the country be used as God has provided.

Postal Savings.—We favor the establishment of a postal savings bank system for the convenience of the people and the encouragement of thrift.

TRUSTS

The Republican party passed the Sherman anti-trust law over Democratic opposition, and enforced it after Democratic dereliction. It has been a wholesome instrument for the hands of a wise and fearless administration. But experience has shown that its effectiveness can be strengthened and its real object better attained by such amendments as will give to the federal government greater supervision and control over and around the great corporations and the management of that class of corporations engaged in interstate commerce, having power and opportunity to effect monopolies.

RAILROADS

We approve the enactment of the railroad rate law and the vigorous enforcement by the present administration of all modern regulations and discriminations, as a result of the advantages formerly possessed by the large shipper over the small shipper, and in this connection we commend the appropriation by the present Congress to enable the Interstate Commerce Commission to thoroughly investigate and give publicity to the accounts of interstate railroads. We believe, however, that the Interstate Commerce law should be further amended to give railroads the right to make and publish traffic regulations subject to the approval of the commission, but maintaining always the principle of competition between natural competing lines, and voiding the combinations of such lines by any whatsoever. We favor such national legislation and supervision as will prevent future over-issuance of stocks and bonds by interstate carriers.

RAILROAD AND GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

The enactment in constitutional form at the present session of Congress of the employers' liability law, the passage and enforcement of the safety appliance statutes, as well as the additional protection secured for engineers and firemen; the reduction in the hours of labor of train men and railroad telegraphers; the successful exercise of the powers of arbitration and arbitration between interstate carriers, and the employees and the law making a beginning in the policy of compensation for injured employees of the government, are among the commendable accomplishments of the present administration. But there is further work in this direction yet to be done and the Republican party pledges its continued devotion to every measure that makes for safety and the betterment of the conditions among those whose labor contributes so much to the progress and the welfare of the country.

WAGE EARNERS GENERALLY

The same wise policy which has induced the present session of Congress to maintain protection to American labor; to establish an eight-hour day on the construction of all public works; to increase the list of employees who shall have presented claims for wages under limitation of force for the collection of a child labor statute for the District of Columbia; to direct an investigation into the condition of working women and children, and later, of employees of telephone and telegraph companies; to appropriate $150,000 at the recent session of Congress in order to secure thorough inquiry into the causes of catastrophes and loss of life in mines; and to amend and strengthen the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor, will be pursued in every legitimate direction within federal authority to lighten the burdens and increase the opportunity of happiness and advancement of all who toil. The Republican party recognizes the special needs of wage workers generally for their well-being means the well-being of all. But more important than all other considerations is that of good citizenship and the duty of every citizen to lighten the burden of the country, so essential to national defense, the enlargement of foreign trade and the industrial prosperity of our own people.

COURT PROCEDURE

The Republican party will uphold the all times the authority and integrity of the courts, state and federal, and will ever insist that they shall enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate. We believe, however, that the rules of procedure in the federal courts with respect to the issuance of the writ of injunction or temporary restraining orders should not be issued without notice, except in cases of emergency, and that the delay, in which case a speedy hearing thereafter should be granted.

THE AMERICAN FARMER

Among those whose welfare is as vital to the welfare of the whole country as that of the wage earner, is the American farmer. The prosperity of the country rests peculiarly upon the prosperity of agriculture. The Republican party during the last 12 years has accomplished extraordinary work in bringing the resources of the national government to the aid of the farmer, not only in advancing agricultural itself, but in increasing the convenience of country life. Free rural mail delivery has been established; it now reaches millions of our citizens and we favor its extension until every community in the land receives the benefits of the postal service. We recognize the social and economic advantages of good country roads, maintained more and more largely at public expense and less and less at the expense of abutting owners. In this work we commend the growing practice of state aid, and we approve the efforts of the national agricultural department by experiments and otherwise to make clear to the public the best methods of road construction.

RIGHT OF THE NEGRO

The Republican party has been for more than 50 years the consistent friend of the American negro. It gave him freedom, it gave him intelligence, it gave him the organic law, the declarations that proclaim his civil and political rights and it believes today that this country can afford to give him the respect and encouragement of the nation. We demand equal justice for all men and we declare once more and without reservation for the enforcement in letter and spirit of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution which were designed for the protection and advancement of the negro and we condemn all devices that have been devised to deprive him of the rights of citizens of color alone, as unfair, un-American and repugnant to the supreme law of the land.

NATURAL RESOURCES AND WATERWAYS

We endorse the movement inaugurated by the administration of the conservation of the natural resources of the country. We approve all measures to prevent the waste of timber; we commend the work now going on for the reclamation of arid lands and reaffirm the Republican policy of the free distribution of the available areas of the public domain to the landless settler. No obligation of the federal government to the people will result in greater blessings to posterity. In line with the splendid undertaking is the further duty, equally imperative, to make on a systematic and comprehensive plan, just to all portions of the country, of the waterways, harbors and inland navigation, and the great gift of the land is one of the greatest gifts of a benign Providence.

THE ARMY AND NAVY

The Sixtieth Congress passed many commendable acts increasing the efficiency of the United States Army and Navy. The national establishment, authorizing joint maneuvers of army and militia; fortifying new naval bases; the construction of coal stations; instituting a female nurse corps for naval hospitals and ships; adding two new battleships, 10 torpedo boat destroyers, three submarine and eight destroyers to the strength of the navy. Although at peace with the old world and secure in the consciousness that the world will not provoke a war with any country we nevertheless declare our unalterable devotion to a policy that will keep this Republic at all times ready to defend her traditional doctrines, and assure her appropriate part in protecting permanent tranquility among the nations.

PROTECTION OF AMERICAN CITIZENS ABROAD

We commend the vigorous efforts made by the administration to protect American citizens in foreign lands and pledges ourselves to insist upon the just and equal protection of all our citizens abroad. It is the unquestioned duty of the government to protect for all its citizens, without distinction of rights of travel and sojourn in friendly countries, and we declare ourselves in favor of all proper efforts tending to that end.

EXTENSION OF FOREIGN COMMERCE

Under the administration of the Republican party the foreign commerce of the United States to South America a new area of Pan-American commerce secured for engineers and firemen; the reduction in the hours of labor of train men and railroad telegraphers; the successful exercise of the powers of arbitration and arbitration between interstate carriers, and the employees and the law making a beginning in the policy of compensation for injured employees of the government, are among the commendable accomplishments of the present administration. But there is further work in this direction yet to be done and the Republican party pledges its continued devotion to every measure that makes for safety and the betterment of the conditions among those whose labor contributes so much to the progress and the welfare of the country.

ARBITRATION AND THE HAGUE TREATIES

The conspicuous contributions of American statesmen to the cause of international peace, so signally advanced in The Hague conference, are an occasion for just pride and gratification. At the last session of the Senate of the United States 11 Hague conferences were ratified, establishing the rights of neutrals laws or war on land, restrictions of submarine warfare, limitation of force for the collection of a child labor statute for the District of Columbia; to direct an investigation into the condition of working women and children, and later, of employees of telephone and telegraph companies; to appropriate $150,000 at the recent session of Congress in order to secure thorough inquiry into the causes of catastrophes and loss of life in mines; and to amend and strengthen the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor, will be pursued in every legitimate direction within federal authority to lighten the burdens and increase the opportunity of happiness and advancement of all who toil. The Republican party recognizes the special needs of wage workers generally for their well-being means the well-being of all. But more important than all other considerations is that of good citizenship and the duty of every citizen to lighten the burden of the country, so essential to national defense, the enlargement of foreign trade and the industrial prosperity of our own people.

MERCHANT MARINE

We adhere to the Republican doctrine of encouragement to American shipping and urge such legislation as will revive the merchant marine, preserve the country's shipping and national defense, the enlargement of foreign trade and the industrial prosperity of our own people.

VETERANS OF THE WARS

Another Republican policy which must be ever maintained is that of generous provision for those who have fought the country's battles and for the widows and orphans of those who have fallen. We commend the increase in the widows' pensions, made by the present Congress and declare for liberal administration of all pension laws, to the end that the aged and infirm may grow deeper in the memories of heroic sacrifice grow more sacred with the passing years.

CIVIL SERVICE

We reaffirm our former declarations that the civil service laws, enacted and extended and enforced by the Republican party, shall continue to be maintained and obeyed.

PUBLIC HEALTH

We commend efforts to secure greater efficiency in national public health agencies and favor such legislation as will effect this purpose.

BUREAU OF MINES AND MINING

In the interest of the great mineral industries of our country we earnestly favor the establishment of a bureau of mines and mining.

CUBA, PORTO RICO, PHILIPPINES AND PANAMA

The American government, in Republican hands, has freed Cuba, given peace and protection to Porto Rico and the Philippines, and has begun the construction of the Panama canal. The political conditions in Cuba vindicate the wisdom of maintaining peace and the well-being of the people is in every respect promoted and conserved.

We believe that the native inhabitants of Porto Rico should be at once collectively made citizens of the United States and that all others properly qualified under existing laws residing in said island should have the privilege of becoming naturalized.

In the Philippines insurrection has been suppressed, law established and life and property made secure. Education and the experience are then advancing the capacity of the people for government and the policies of McKinley and Roosevelt are leading to an increasing measure of home rule.

Time has justified the selection of the Panama route for the great isthmian canal, and it has shown the wisdom of securing authority over the zone through which it is to be built. The work is now progressing with a rapidly beyond expectation and already the completion of the hopes of centuries has come within the vision of the near future.

NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA

We favor the immediate admission of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona as separate states in the Union.

CENTENARY OF THE BIRTH OF LINCOLN

February 12, 1909, will be the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, an immortal spirit which every family has brightened with the receding years and whose name stands among the first of the nation's heroes. We request that this centennial anniversary be celebrated throughout the confines of the nation, and that every citizen make the public school as exercises to stir the patriotism of the land.

DEMOCRATIC INCAPACITY FOR GOVERNMENT

We call the attention of the American people to the fact that none of the great measures here advocated by the Republican party could be enacted under a Democratic administration or under one in which party responsibility is divided. The continuance of present policies, therefore, absolutely requires the continuance in power of that party which believes in them and which possess the capacity to put them into operation.

FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCES

Beyond all platform declarations there are fundamental differences between the Republican party and the Democratic party, which make the one worthy and the other unworthy of public trust.

In history the difference between Democracy and Republicanism is that the one stood for debasement of currency, the other for honest currency; the one for free silver, the other for sound money; the one for free trade, the other for protection; the one for the contraction of American influence, the other for expansion; the one has been forced to abandon every position taken on the great issues before the people, the other has held and vindicated all.

In experience, the difference between Democracy and Republicanism is that the one means adversity, while the other means prosperity; one means doubt and debt, the other means confidence and thrift.

In principle, the difference between Democracy and Republicanism is that one stands for vacillation and timidity in government; the other for strength and purpose; one stands for obstruction, the other for construction; one promises, the other performs; one finds fault, the other finds work.

The present tendencies of the two parties are even more marked by inherent differences. The trend of Democracy is toward socialism, while the Republican party stands for a wise and well regulated individualism. Socialism would destroy wealth. Republicanism would prevent its abuse. Socialism would give to each an equal right to take; Republicanism would give to each an equal right to earn and to possess. Republicanism would give equality of opportunities to all, while Democracy would give a constantly increasing aim of possessions. In line with this policy, the Democratic party of today believes in government ownership, while the Republican party believes in government regulation; ultimately, Democracy would have the nation own the people, while Republicanism would have the people own the nation.

Upon this platform of principles and purposes, reaffirming our adherence to every reasonable doctrine proclaimed before the country, we ask the support not only of those who have acted with us heretofore, but of all our fellow citizens who, regardless of past political differences, unite in the common cause of the nation, to perpetuate the blessings and make secure the achievements of a greater America.

IMAGINARY TORM OF IMAGINARY SHELLS

New York, June 18.—The attack upon New York city by a supposed foreign enemy which has been so eagerly awaited for several days by the regular and national guard troops engaged in military warfare in the fort was begun in actual fact today. The first shot was fired upon Fort Hancock at Sandy Hook by the sea and forced the regular and national guard troops to flee. Then, with the outer fortifications effectually silenced, the enemy started up the channel toward the city in the face of a withering fire from Fort Hamilton and Fort Mifflin. The regular and national guard troops were driven away, and an imaginary storm of imaginary shells went sweeping down the bay. In the vicinity of the forts the din was terrific and even miles away the roar of the guns could be heard. It was at the very height of this warlike storm that hundreds of immigrants and their families fled from the western land from a big Chinaman stand-

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. J. C. WIFE KILLS HUSBAND WHILE HE IS ASLEEP

Little Falls, N. Y., June 18.—Martin Finn, a farmer, was instantly killed by his wife, Elizabeth, as he lay asleep in his home in Salisbury early today. Mrs. Finn walked to the home of her mother, a mile distant, where she drank Paris green and chloroform. She probably will die.

Mrs. Finn had an axe to kill her husband, striking him a terrible blow on the head as he lay in bed. When she reached her mother's home she told her mother what she had done and announced her intention of committing suicide. Mrs. Finn is 45 years old and her husband was 48. Mrs. Finn had taken steps toward securing a divorce from her wife.

ROBERTS' DEFENSE OF THE FAITH AND THE SAINTS.

IT IS A CHOICE COLLECTION from Elder Roberts' discourses, magazine articles, and public lectures during the last twenty seven years of his public ministry. Every young man who would make himself familiar with the controversies in which the Church has been involved in consequence of the assaults made upon its faith and people should read this book.

READ The Presentation of the Mormon Faith to the World's Parliament of Religions.

READ The review of Harry Leon Wilson's Book, "The Lions of the Lord."

READ The Overwhelming Answer to Senator Thomas Kearns' Speech Arraigning the Mormon Church on the Floor of the United States Senate.

READ The Church and State Papers.

READ The Articles in Defense of the Book of Mormon; and Elder Roberts' Exposition of the Manner of Translating the Book of Mormon.

READ The Doctrinal and Historical Articles; "The Lord's Day," "Angelic Orders," "Revelation or Reformation," "Revelation and Inspiration."

These are but a few of the papers in the very valuable collection, and yet they indicate something of the large scope covered by the book.

No man, young or old, interested in Mormonism, can afford to be without this latest, and in many respects, Elder Roberts' most interesting book. It will make a most acceptable present for your son or daughter at home, for your son on a mission, for your non-Mormon friend, and neighbor, for your non-Mormon friend in the East, or West, or North, or South. Mail them a copy.
