PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

While attempting to take the kink out of a derrick rope while the team was moving, Brigham Jones met with an accident by which he will lose the third and little fingers at the first joint.

HARVEST OF GRIM REAPER.

Two of our most active Church members passed to the beyond recently. Thomas C. Nielsen died here Sept. 10, after an illness of nearly a year. He was born at Hellerud, Hjøring Amt, Denmark, from whence he went to New Zealand, thence to Utah, settling here in 1883. He buried his first wife, Hansine M. K. Arnsbæk, five years ago, who left him with nine children, eight of whom survive. He was also a young wife, Ida Buch, whom he married just four years previous to his burial, Wednesday, Sept. 13.

Gustaf Nielson died of a complication of kidney trouble and typhoid Wednesday, Sept. 20, after a brief illness. He was born in Sweden Aug. 24, 1845, and settled here in 1879. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his demise. Both men were High Priests and acting teachers in the same teachers' district, were good citizens, honored and respected by all.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenberg, Sept. 30. It is their first and all is well.

FREDERICK HUNT JR. DEAD.

Promising Young Man Cut Down by Typhoid—M. L. A. Fair.

Special Correspondence.
Monroe, Nev., Oct. 2.—The remains of Frederick Hunt, who died at Kimball, Thursday last, of typhoid fever, passed through here today following to be buried at Kimball. Freddie was born here 24 years ago, and was a member of this ward until about two years ago when he married a young lady of Ephraim. He was the son of Frederick and Mene Larson Hunt, and was well esteemed for his noble manly qualities both here and at Kimball, where he has spent the past three years. He leaves a wife and baby, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

The storm of Thursday and Friday last was one of the best for a long time giving the ground a thorough soaking, and putting it in good condition for plowing. The rainfall was about 2 inches.

M. L. A. FAIR.

The M. L. A. associations held a fair in the Society hall Friday and Saturday. Many very attractive carous were on exhibition. Paintings, drawings, needle work and hand-craft articles made a very creditable display. The proceeds were applied to the purchase of an organ for the use of the association.

The splendid brass band, which goes with it, adds much to the attractions.

Last night's joint session of the M. L. A. was in all its parts very instructive and entertaining, but an especial feature of the occasion was the rendition of the "Valentine of Rome" by Miss Alice Wickland, which gave splendid scope for display of her dramatic talent. Miss Wickland has been studying the past few years at the Agricultural College, Oregon, where she has captured several prizes for her acting. She is glad to once more return to the place of her birth.

Drouth, Bugs and Insects Cut Off Crops—Fine Rains Break Out.

Special Correspondence.
Lund, Nev., Sept. 29.—The people are very busy gathering their crops. Threshing has begun, and the last crop of hay is being cut. The crops are not so good as last year. The ground is very dry and the bugs and insects have worked on the crops and garden truck. Two nice rain storms have broken the drouth, one about a week ago and one last night. There is a fair prospect for a good market this season for farm products at the Ely mining camp, which bids fair to boom.

BIG DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS.

Cache County Business—City Council Passes Salary Schedule.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Oct. 5.—At the meeting of the directors of the Commercial club, H. W. Hallard and W. W. Roundy of Benson submitted a proposition that may prove of great importance to Logan City and the residents of the central parts of Cache Valley. As was stated in the "News" of the 4th these gentlemen have been quietly working for some time past on their district, offering an advance to plant at least 1,000 acres of sugar beets. This proposition was acceptable to the sugar factory people, and contracts are now being taken for seedlings. The plan submitted last night contemplates the building of the proposed spur from a point on the main line of the O. S. L. about three miles east of Cache Junction, north three miles into the Benson district, and a continuation on to connect with the branch line near Logan. This arrangement would place Logan 10 miles nearer Pocatello and points north than at present, and four miles nearer Salt Lake, and in addition open up 2,000 or 3,000 acres of the best land in Cache valley. In connection with this proposition is another plan, to wit: that they will open up the large area of what is now pasture land, lying about four miles northwest of this city, and on the proposed line for beet culture. A representative of the sugar interest, who came over the district and claims that it can be drained at little cost, and converted into the best kind of beet lands. A syndicate is ready to take an option to buy all of the lands at $25 per acre, and will undertake to establish a Jap colony there. To enter the beet growing business. There are between 4,000 and 5,000 acres in this district alone that can, it is claimed, be converted into beet lands.

What makes this plan popular in Logan is not only the idea of developing the beet lands, but to overcome a condition that confronts us here, and that is when the new railway line is completed around the valley, Logan will be 10 miles farther from all points than at present, and this will meet with great opposition not only in Logan, but from all points north in the valley. With the abandonment of the old line between Logan and Mendon the track line would be entirely severed, and to build the proposed line through Benson, a committee was appointed to make a thorough investigation of the situation, and the matter will be brought to the attention of the city council in a short time. It developed at the meeting last night that the opening up of the West Cache canal had made accessible a large tract of choice beet land. A plan to build a spur from the main line of the O. S. L. through this district with its ultimate terminus at the Lexington factory has already been determined upon, and contracts for 4,000 acres of beets have been taken under it.

The construction of these branches with the impetus that will be given to all lines of business that will follow the growth of the industry, and the possibilities of rapid transportation consequent on the introduction of motor cars on their lines, certainly makes the future prospects look bright to the residents of this beautiful valley.

MYTON.

RESERVATION HOMESTEADERS

Unit for Irrigating Purposes—Liberal Offer of Wasatch Development Co.

Special Correspondence.

Myton, Utah Co., Sept. 28.—Pursuant to invitation of Wasatch Development company to the homesteaders who have entered lands upon the former Uintah Indian reservation to come together and discuss the organizing of canal companies, a meeting was held at Myton, Utah, Sept. 28. There were some 25 interested parties present and proxys of some of the parties were held. The development company, which was designated to act as their agent.

Hyrum Baird of Ogden was elected chairman of the meeting and Jos. W. Musser of Holbrook, secretary. The managing board of the Development company, explained that the company had laid upon waters of the Duchesne and Lake Fork rivers in order to protect the interests of the landholder in certain parts of the reservation. The appropriations were made on the first day of the opening of the reservation, and considered it to be the duty of the homesteaders to accept the same, rather than make individual filings, which will be subsequent thereto and will require a separate fee of some $15 for each.

He stated the company will have the privilege of amending its application to include only the land of parties desiring to use it water filings.

The Development company will do everything possible to prevent exorbitant rates being charged for water by persons applying for appropriations for investment purposes only. Those who were assisted in location and land by the company will share in its water rights, other persons desiring to join in the advantages named will be permitted to do so by the payment of a nominal fee, $25, to assist in defraying expenses of surveying, applying for water, etc.

The chairman, Mr. Baird, who is a member of the board of control of the Utah Land Holders' Protective Association of Vernal, upon request, explained the object for which the association was formed. They are seeking to accomplish the same ends to which the Wasatch Development company is working. Their aim will be to protect water appropriations being made to any individual or company to be used for purely speculative purposes, and the association will endeavor to protect the actual homesteaders to its fullest legal capacity. Mr. Baird expressed himself as pleased with the liberal attitude being assumed by the Development company and felt that the homesteaders' rights would not be in jeopardy under its plans. He invited all interested to become members of the Protective association.

Expressions along a similar line were made by a number of homesteaders present, all of whom were enthusiastic in their desire to have the benefit of the country. All felt that immediate steps should be taken looking to perfecting canal systems for the reclamation of the land.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Land Holders' pro-

CACHE COUNTY BUSINESS.

At the meeting of the county commissioners yesterday, the High Creek Light & Power company was granted a franchise to construct and operate a power line along the county roads from High creek to Richmond, Smithfield and Hyde Park on the south and to Coveville and Lewiston on the north, subject to the usual restrictions.

There was a lengthy discussion over the application of the R. M. Bell Telephone company for a franchise along certain roads in the county, but the franchise was finally granted by the telephone company yielding all points which it had previously refused. The county gets five free telephones with free exchange service to all parts of the county and free long distance telephone service at regular rates to the amount of $75 per year. Free telegraph service is also granted for the sheriff or attorney to any part of the state.

STRIKE FOR NINE-HOUR DAY.

Fourteen men employed by J. E. Wilson, Jr., constructing cement walks in the city, struck for a reduction of working hours from 10 to 8 hours per day. Wilson refused the demand and the whole gang is out of a job.

CITY SALARY LIST PASSES.

The city council met in regular session last night. President Lindquist occupying the chair.

A petition from W. J. Dawdle and others asking for the extension of the water mains from the corner of Fifth West and Second south to Sixth West was read, referred.

P. E. Blomman asked permission to build a building on Main street for the purpose of demonstrating the qualities of a chemical fire extinguisher. Refused.

The payroll for the month amounting to $18,537, was passed by the council. The city bookkeeper reported $88.50 collected during last quarter.

The city justice reported 10 convictions, one acquittal and two persons released on suspended sentence, and $5 collected in fines during quarter.

A new schedule of salaries occasioned a pretty warm discussion, but finally passed with one dissenting vote.

A resolution was passed authorizing the mayor to issue a deed to C. C. Criswell for a certain piece of property sold to him by the city.

The payroll for the month amounting to $18,537, was passed by the council. The city bookkeeper reported $88.50 collected during last quarter.

The salary of the night watchman was placed at $120 per year.

The committee on municipal laws, with the city attorney associated, were instructed to bring in an ordinance defining the duties of the city engineer.

The services of the cow policeman was continued for one month.

lective association and the reputable lecturing firms of Vernal with a view to obtaining their co-operation in formulating plans that will effectively guard the interests of the homesteaders in the organization of water and irrigation of canal systems. This joint committee will decide upon a time and place for meeting, and will issue an invitation to each homesteader whose land will come under a canal system, to either meet in person or by proxy to perfect plans for appropriating water and organizing canal companies. The meeting is to be held some time after Nov. 1.

R. S. Collett and Ward E. Pack of Vernal and J. M. Roseberry of Denver, were appointed the committee of three. A resolution was passed thanking the press for the past service rendered in getting matters pertaining to the reservation before the public, and requesting due publicity of the proceedings of the meeting with other matters, such as can be rendered from time to time. The secretary was directed to submit the proceedings of the meeting to the prominent western papers for publication.

Excellent Crops for Season—Painful Accidents—Opening of School.

Special Correspondence.
Centerfield, Sanpete Co., Sept. 30.—Crops have been excellent this season. Not all has been hauled in yet, but six threshers are busily engaged. Alfalfa seed is a failure in most parts of the district, yet there are a few lucky farmers who are blessed with a goodly yield.

A rain storm which commenced the night of the 28th terminated in snow last evening, clearing up this morning with heavy frost and ice one-eighth of an inch thick. Everything is thoroughly soaked and much damage done to the crops.

THE MIDDLETON DIVORCE SUIT.

Prominent Ogden People Seeking Decree of Court to Confirm Separation.

SLATERVILLE OPPOSES UNION

Of County School Interests—Gray Wolf Baggied in Ogden Canyon—Altitude Causes Temporary Insanity.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 6.—James L. Middleton, the well known Southern Pacific engineer, has commenced divorce proceedings in the Second district court through his attorney, C. C. Richards, against his wife, Lucy Greenwell Middleton. The complaint was filed that plaintiff and defendant were married at Ogden City, Oct. 10, 1894, that there has been no children born to them. Plaintiff alleges that Jan. 1, 1902, his wife deserted him without cause, and has not lived with him since that date. He also alleges that she has agreed on her separation and on the division of their property, and plaintiff gave to defendant her portion of the property, and she has since that time acted as if she was not his wife. He prays that the bonds of matrimony existing between them be dissolved and that his wife be given her maiden name, Lucy Greenwell. The commencement of the proceedings by Mr. Middleton has caused considerable comment, as both parties to the suit are so popular in Ogden.

WIFE ALLEGES HUSBAND WAS CRUEL.

The divorce suit of Mary Jacobs against William D. Jacobs came on for trial before Judge Howell yesterday afternoon. The default of the defendant was entered in the case. The plaintiff and her father, E. T. Jordan, testified that plaintiff and defendant were married at Ogden City Sept. 6, 1901, that since their marriage of a little over one year the defendant, has been cruel to his wife, has beat her with his fists, and has threatened her life, and has since that time deserted her. The court granted the decree to plaintiff as prayed for. N. J. Harris was attorney for plaintiff in the proceedings.

GRAY WOLF RAGED.

William Simpson, proprietor of the Empress cafe, while returning to Ogden Wednesday through Ogden canyon in company with a lady, sighted a large wolf on the side of the mountain near Vernal's place. He took a shot at it, but was not sure whether he had struck it or not, but it disappeared in the brush a few feet away. Yesterday with a friend he decided to explore the place where he saw the wolf, and found it dead in the brush. It was a very large, grey wolf, a species seldom found in the mountains surrounding Ogden. They are very ferocious and usually remain further back with the mountains. Mr. Simpson brought the animal to Ogden last evening. He will turn it over to a taxidermist and have it stuffed and put on exhibition at the Twenty-fifth street.

TEMPORARY INSANITY.

A lady giving her name as Mrs. Andrew Bradley, and her husband's address as 59 West Virginia street, San Jose, Cal., was taken from a west bound passenger train late yesterday afternoon, suffering from temporary insanity, supposed to be caused by the lack of sleep. She is about 50 years of age and well dressed, wearing a gold watch and chain. The railroad employees observed her queer actions and had her taken to the Windsor hotel and placed in charge of Proprietor Heath. After being in her room for some time, she started out for a walk and wandered about by the canyon factory, where Dr. Heath overtook her and placed her in a carriage and took her to the county jail, where she is being cared for.

WOMAN AFTER THIRD HUSBAND.

A gentleman called at the office of the county clerk yesterday and inquired if a certain young lady and gentleman had appeared there for a marriage license. When informed that no one by the names given had asked for a permit to wed, he informed the clerk that the young lady had two husbands already in California, whom she had deserted; that she is in Ogden making love to another man, whom it is believed she had promised to wed, and unless they are refused a license she will have husband number three on the list, and from neither of her California husbands is she divorced.

THREE COUPLES WED.

Marriage licenses were granted by the county clerk to the following couples: Thomas E. Fitzgerald, 22, and Miss Irene Larsen, 20, both of Ogden.

Ezra Richardson, 31, and Miss Gertrude Knight, 20, both of Plain City, Weber county.

W. H. Vaynment, 27, of Warren, Weber county, and Miss Iva Wade, 20, of Ogden.

AGAINST SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION.

At Slaterville a meeting, so-called, was held, in connection with the question that has arisen from the refusal of the former school trustees to transfer the property of the school district over to the newly organized county board of education. On Wednesday a committee, appointed at the meeting, was in Ogden consulting their legal advisers, and it was announced that they will contest the matter against the action of the county commissioners, who threatened suit on account of the action of the trustees. The Slaterville people have defended young Swan in a most vigorous manner and their withdrawal at this time has created something of a sensation in court circles.

SWAN AND CONLISK IN COURT.

This morning in the district court cases against W. R. Swan and A. H. Conlisk, charged with defrauding the county bounty frauds exposed last January, were called for trial, and postponed for one day in order to allow defendants to consult with their attorneys. Swan and Conlisk were appointed, in connection with Judge Maglinski, and the case set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

SWAN LEFT ALONE.

Attorneys for Ex-Deputy County Clerk Withdraw at Eleventh Hour.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 5.—Quite a surprise was sprung in the district court here this morning when Atty. McCormick appeared before Judge Howell and asked him to allow for the withdrawal of himself and A. R. Heywood as attorneys for ex-deputy county clerk Swan, who are in connection with the alleged bounty frauds will be called tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Hitherto these gentlemen have defended young Swan in a most vigorous manner and their withdrawal at this time has created something of a sensation in court circles.

George Jefferson, the man who dropped dead Sept. 12 in the St. Louis beer hall, died last night at 11 o'clock, of the Spanish war veterans. Nothing has been heard of the man's relatives, but it is understood that they live somewhere in Wisconsin, to which land Jefferson was traveling when his demise occurred. The man was honorably discharged from the Marine island navy-yard Sept. 1.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Defendant has filed his cost bill, amounting to $116.50, in the district court in the case of A. R. C. Smith against Gideon Alvord, which amount, together with his own costs of about $100, Mr. Smith will have to pay or else appeal the case.

Alfred J. Larkin has returned home from a three weeks' pleasure trip to Portland and down the coast to various California cities.

The funeral services over the remains of Denton Cole, who committed suicide Wednesday, will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the G. A. R. of which he was a member in good standing.

Wilford Madison, who for several months has been engaged by the R. M. Telephone company at Boise, Idaho, is visiting with his parents in Ogden.

Miss Dolly Malone and her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Malone, have gone to the Lewis and Clark exposition.

A petition for letters of administration of the estate of Frank McNulty was filed by the Development company, which is valued at $2,400 which, according to the will of McNulty, will go to the four children.
