OBITUARY.

Jacob Samuel Ferrin, son of Samuel Ferrin and Olive Phidelia Coone, was born June 1, 1830, in the town of Olean, Catarangus co., State of Cew York. He joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints While very young, emigrated to Utah in 1852, married Miss Jannetta McBride in 1857; lived in Ogden City, Weber County, until 1862; moved into Ogden valley, lived there until 1869, when he moved to North Ogden; resided there until October, 1881, when he emigrated to Arizona, Arrived at Smithville, Graham Co., A. T., Jan. 15, 1882; bought a farm, put in a crop intending to make his home here, went out on the road to freight for the purpose of obtaining support for his family until his crop matured; while camped on the road between here and San Carlos he was shot through the heart by an Indian, cansing instant death. His body was brought home as soon as possible, and was burled on the 21st of July, 1882. His remains were followed to their last resting place by his many friends that he had gained during his short stay in this country. Brother Ferrin leaves a wife, 11 children and 4 grandchildren to mourn his loss, together with numerous friends and relatives in Utah. He was truly a good man, and lived the life of a true Latter-day Saint n every respect. His life has been characterized by honesty and industry, and is well worthy of emulation.-COM.

"Preserve an | Regulate, not De stroy," is a sound motto in medication as well as statesmanship. Preserve the vigor of the digestive organs and regulate the se-cretions with TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT, and cure dyspersia and liver complaint by a process in harmony with the laws of Nature. Violent medicines have had their day. They devitalize the system. Reason as well as the stomach rejects them. Rely on this exhilaraaing specific.
