Further Particulars.—Horrible Condition of the Patients.

ST. PAUL, 16.—A bulletin to the Pioneer Press from St. Peter says: The number of lives lost by the burning and freezing in the insane asylum are variously estimated from 20 to 50. The loss on the building is $300,000.

A special dated at 4 a. m. says:
The scenes at the burning of the south wing of the hospital were heartrending in the extreme. So appalling a sight has rarely been witnessed and I trust may never be again. The patients in the annexed wing were males. Many of them refused to leave the building at all.
They ran up and down the halls like wild animals. They could not be coerced or forced out of the building, and became unhappy victims of the flames. Others were saved some by stairs, some by leaping from windows. Some were nearly nude, some shoeless and hatless, and exposed to the scorching cold of the night. Many of the poor demented and crazed inmates fled for their lives and could not be overtaken or confined. Their sufferings in this frightful condition can be imagined than described. The whole catastrophe is fearful to contemplate and impossible to describe.
The poor dazed inmates of the asylum who had escaped the flames were at large half clothed, and were to be seen in all directions flying in wild fright from those who attempted to save them. The air was bitter cold, and the poor wretches with half naked bodies and bleeding feet were flying about hiding in alleys and dark corners. It was a sight which when once seen never to be forgotten. For some time the capacity of the building has been tried to the utmost. There were about 600 patients, and every inch of space was utilized. What will be done with these poor creatures, turned out in the cold and their malady increased by the excitement of the night, is a serious question. There are two other buildings situated in town which are used, but they are already crowded to their full capacity. The asylum at Rochester is the extreme of the case, and it is probably unable to provide accommodations for any of the inmates of St. Peter.

All is terror and excitement. To get a complete list of those killed and hurt is not now among the possibilities. Dr. Bartlett, of the asylum, says there are not more than twelve lives lost, and that many more hurt and suffering from the bitter cold of last night. More people are believed to be hurt and dying from exposure to the weather than from burns.

Others say as many as twenty insane people either perished in the flames or died on the cold hills during the night. So many of the patients have disappeared it cannot be told who are dead and who have been removed to Minneapolis.

The real damage to the hospital building will amount to $200,000.
The centre building and south wing have been preserved.

THURLOW WEED'S BIRTHDAY.

Assembly of Brilliant Journalists.

NEW YORK, 16.—The venerable statesman and journalist, Hon. Thurlow Weed, was entertained to-night by the New York Press Club on the occasion of the 83d anniversary of his birth. He was introduced to the club by J. W. Simonton, general manager of the Associated Press, who said: "It might be doubtful whether any man now living, other than this much beloved Nestor of the American press, had ever exercised so wide an influence upon the destinies of his country. The secret of his wonderful power was that while others had been idle, he was wise and active. He was not only a man of letters, but a man of action. He was not only a man of letters, but a man of action. He was not only a man of letters, but a man of action. He was not only a man of letters, but
