A SAFE STRONG BANK FOR SAVINGS DEPOSI-

TORS.

Savings accounts draw 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually. Accounts can be opened for of two or more officers. Minors may open accounts, subject to their own control. Parents may open accounts for children and retain control. Married women may open accounts in their own names. With the strength given by ample capital, the strength given by careful and conserva-tive management and the their own names.

tive management and conserva-strength given by experience, this institution has grown to be one of the largest savings banks between Chicago and San Francisco, and continues to add steadily to the number of its denositors of its depositors. You'd be surprised to know how many of our commercial customers and savings deposi-tors go out of their way to in-duce others to open accounts with us, We believe this is a pretty fair indication of the confidence and cordiality they feel toward this

Still better, this sentiment seems to be universal among all the patrons of this institution

A. J. DAVIS IS SHOCKED.

His Recovery Followed After He Realized What Was Happening.

When President A. J. Davis of the city council returned home from committee meeting about 9 o'clock last evening, he received a shock from which he did not recover for some time. Yesterday was his birthday, and his charming wife had quietly and his charming wife had quietly planned a big surprise party for him. About twenty friends had been invited to attend the party. They were seat-ed in the parlor and all the lights turned off when "Father Davis," as he is called, arrived home. As he flashed on the lights he was greeted with shouts of congratulation. Cards and music were features of shouts of congratulation. Cards and music were features of the pleasant evening. Mrs. Davis al-so prepared a delightful lunch. During the evening, Mr. Davis was presented with a handsome celleret from the guests. Those present were: C. M. Freed, S. C. Sherill, W. S. Taylor, Thomas Homer, J. H. Manderfield, J. C. Collins, C. C. Slade, H. J. Robin-son, A. W. Raybould, E. J. Owens, Ed Kauffman, F. C. Cannon, H. A. Leipsiger, "Billy" Baxter, George W. Silks, C. S. Pulver, Thomas Hobday, Judge C. B. Diehl and E. C. Penrose.
