

ORDEN HAPPENINGS.

Result of Yesterday's School Election.
Action Against the U. P. R.
City News.

Southern Pacific was bound freight No. 10 was abandoned yesterday, there being but two cars of freight in the yards. The Southern Pacific has been sending out three trains daily, but on account of the recent falling off in western freight one of them have to be abandoned. Business is expected to improve as the holidays draw near.

The mayor has signed the ordinance levying a special tax upon the property in water district No. 1, to defray the expenses being incurred in constructing the sewer in the district. A total of $15,000 will be raised under the ordinance.

The session of the Fourth district court opened yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in order to allow the witnesses in the damage case of Oliver C. Myers, the Utah Pacific Railway company to cross the motion made by Mr. Williams for a continuance and not consume the regular time of the court. After hearing the argument, Judge Miner granted the motion and adjourned the case, the grounds being that under the circumstances the danger of a miscarriage of justice in a rapidly moving train, as a dark night without a lantern and attempting to get the brakes worked to a stop, as Mr. Myers assumed all responsibility, even though acting under instructions from his superior in office. Mr. Myers asked for $25,000 damages, alleged to have been caused by reason of his falling from a freight train near King Hill, Idaho, due to the breaking of a brake chain, and sustaining injuries which have crippled him for life.

On Saturday night a man entered Graham's livery stable and hired a horse and cart for the celebration of the party or going to Five Points on business. Neither man nor horse have been seen since, and the livery stable has been notified. The animal is an iron gray and the cart is of the frame make, painted red. Mr. Graham values the horse at $100.

J. P. Jones was brought up from the penitentiary at Salt Lake City yesterday and arraigned on an indictment charging him with larceny, alleged to have been committed with Mrs. Minnie Franklin, a former resident of Ogden, now of Portland. He entered a plea of not guilty and bonds will be fixed this morning. Jones says the city jail his headquarters last night.

In the damage case of Emanuel Winnett vs. the Utah Pacific Railway company, in which the plaintiff was given $7000 damages for a broken leg, the defendant was granted thirty days further time to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial.
