

CUBA WILL GET
REDUCED TARIFFS.Will be Twenty Per Cent Until December 1, 1903.

REPUBLICANS AGREE TO IT.

Result Reached After a Protracted Debate, Followed by a Series of Exciting Roll Calls.

Washington, March 18.—The advocates of Cuban reciprocity scored a decisive victory tonight at the conference of the Republican members of the house of representatives, the proposition of Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee for a 20 per cent reduction of duty with the Sibley amendment, limiting the duration of the reduction of duties to Dec. 1, 1903, being adopted by a vote of 85 yeas to 31 nays. This result was reached at 11:30 o'clock, after a protracted debate followed by a series of exciting roll calls.

The first test was when Mr. Payne introduced the speech making the motion for the previous question on all pending propositions. This motion prevailed 78 to 36. A vote was then taken on a substitute offered by Representative Dick of Ohio, in behalf of those opposing the reciprocity plan, offering in its stead a plan of direct payment to Cuba covering several years. This was defeated, 57 to 35. An amendment by Mr. Morris of Indiana, to take off the differential on refined sugar was defeated, 50 to 72.

The yeas and nays proposition for reciprocity, with the Sibley amendment limiting its duration, was then agreed to, 85 to 31. While the voting was in progress a number of those who supported the ways and means committee, and others who have figured prominently in the contest.

Chairman Payne made a statement of the difficulties encountered by the committee, which had been working for several days to bring the measure to a vote. He said that the committee had been unable to secure the necessary majority, and that the measure had been defeated on several occasions.

Mr. Payne then introduced a resolution, which was adopted by a vote of 85 yeas to 31 nays. The resolution provided for a 20 per cent reduction of duty on Cuban goods, with the Sibley amendment limiting the duration of the reduction to Dec. 1, 1903.

AFTER-EFFECTS OF LA GRIPPE.

Pe-ru-na a Specific Restorative That Has Stood The Test of Time.

NOTABLE RECOVERIES REPORTED HERE.

Miss Lou Ketchum, 1135 Bass Ave., Memphis, Tenn., writes: "Pe-ru-na brought me health and strength, and I firmly believe in its efficacy. I had la grippe last winter and suffered for several weeks without obtaining relief until I took Pe-ru-na. Three bottles not only cured me completely, but it left my system in a fine condition, and I feel better than I have for years. You have a host of friends in Memphis."

Hon. James R. Gull is one of the oldest and most esteemed men of Omaha, Neb., coming to that city in its early days when it little dreamed of being a metropolis. He has done much to make it what it is, serving on public boards a number of times.

A recent letter, written by him to The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., endorsing their remedy, Pe-ru-na, for catarrh, consequently carries with it considerable weight and importance. The following is his letter:

Omaha, Neb., January 25, 1900. The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio. Gentlemen—“I am 68 years old, am hale and hearty, and Pe-ru-na has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Pe-ru-na saved me.”

Without raising the question as to whether la grippe is produced by a specific microbe or not, at least this much is certain and admitted by all, and will produce chronic catarrh if not promptly and properly cured. It leaves a person, haggard, weak, slow, frazzled-out, mucous membranes all congested, appetite changeable, digestion capricious, and just about empty life of all meaning or desirability.

LIVELY TIME IN THE COMMONS.

London, March 18.—The debate this evening in the house of commons on the motion of the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, yesterday (for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the whole commercial history of the South African war, including the contracts for freight and transportation), called out several acrimonious exchanges of remarks.

Reginald McKenna (Liberal), commented on the remount department, declared that widespread corruption in the horse purchase had been disclosed in almost every country on the globe.

Lord Stanley, financial secretary to the war office, interrupted Mr. McKenna with an angry denial of a specific charge regarding the purchase of horses in Spain. He said the statement was maliciously false, but it was only part of the hogus defense in which the government was then engaged. He quoted figures, and asserted that they bore out his accusation.

Mr. Lambton (Liberal-Unionist) drew Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's fire by declaring that the leader of the opposition by his reckless language had taken from many people the consolation of feeling that their relatives who had died in South Africa had fallen honorably in the service of their country.

To this Sir Henry replied angrily: "I give the most complete and most circumstantial denial to every word the honorable gentleman has said."

This statement caused confusion in the house, and cries of "withdraw!" But Sir Henry refused to withdraw his remarks, and Mr. Lambton said his language to Sir Henry referred to "methods of barbarism and similar talk about the concentration camps and other matters."

The speaker (Sir William Court) interrupted, exclaiming: "Both gentlemen are out of order."

Mr. Lambton thereupon apologized, but said that utterances such as he had quoted were gravely injurious to the soldiers in South Africa, and the house ordered a departmental committee to investigate the matter and had thereupon adjourned.

H. H. Asquith (Advanced Liberal) strongly supported Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's motion, which he contended was only a vote of censure because the government had chosen to make it so.

A. J. Balfour (Conservative) argued that the acceptance of the motion would hamper military operations and give advantage to the enemy, besides creating a bad precedent. Sir Henry's

There is no remedy in the world that meets the conditions produced by la grippe better than the remedy, Pe-ru-na. Pe-ru-na strengthens as it renovates, soothes while it stimulates, heals as it expurgates. Pe-ru-na is not a purgative, nor a cathartic, or sedative, or stimulant, nor a vegetable or mineral poison. It reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves.

Every person who has had la grippe during the last year should take a course of Pe-ru-na. No one need expect perfect recovery unless they do so. The grip has produced catarrhal inflammation of the whole mucous membrane, and good health is impossible until these are restored to a normal condition. This Pe-ru-na will do. A great many remedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Pe-ru-na appears to be the only remedy that has any substantial value in these cases. It has stood the test of forty years' experience and still occupies the unique position of being the leading (if not the only) specific remedy for the after-effects of la grippe.

Among the many prominent people who have been cured of the after-effects of grip are the following:

Miss Lou Ketchum, 1135 Bass Ave., Memphis, Tenn., writes: "Pe-ru-na brought me health and strength, and I firmly believe in its efficacy. I had la grippe last winter and suffered for several weeks without obtaining relief until I took Pe-ru-na. Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh, President of the Woman's Benevolent Association, of Chicago, writes: "I suffered with grip seven weeks. Nothing helped me. Tried Pe-ru-na and within three weeks I was fully restored. Shall never be without it again."

The following letter was received from Mrs. M. Wright, Secretary Good Tempers Lodge No. 47, and Lady of the Macabees:

5514 Fillmore street, N. E., Minneapolis, Minn. "I suffered this winter with an attack of la grippe and having heard of Pe-ru-na in such cases I decided to try it. I am still using Pe-ru-na and find that it helps me greatly."

"I have influenced several friends afflicted with chronic catarrh to take Pe-ru-na and they all show wonderful improvement. I believe it to be the best medicine before the public."

MRS. M. WRIGHT.

At the appearance of the first symptoms of grip people should stay indoors and take Pe-ru-na in small doses (teaspoonful every hour) until the symptoms disappear. This will prevent a long, disastrous sickness and perhaps fatal results.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

PRINCE HENRY
HOME AGAIN.Was Received With Much Pomp
And Circumstance.

GRATEFUL TO AMERICANS.

Showed Him Measureless Kindness—
Emperor William Takes Great Interest in His Brother's Trip.

Cuxhaven, March 18.—The return of Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia to Germany was safely accomplished this afternoon amid all the pomp and circumstance with which the prince's imperial brother has seen fit to mark the successful ending of Prince Henry's American mission.

The same good fortune of freedom from untoward incidents which characterized the prince's transatlantic journey continued until the end and the landing occurred during a period of brilliant sunshine.

Emperor William stood upon the quay, surrounded by high naval and municipal officials. The representatives of the American embassy at Berlin, Commander William H. Beecher, the naval attaché to the embassy, stood at the emperor's side. The quay was decorated with flags of all the states of the empire and the thousands of spectators who covered the roofs of the great warehouses and the wide slopes overlooking the scene, cheered wildly as Prince Henry walked down the gangway from the steamer.

Emperor William kissed his brother upon both cheeks and shook hands with the members of his suite, saying a few cheerful sentences to each. In the meantime the guns of the squadron saluted.

As the Deutschland drew near Cuxhaven Prince Henry received the correspondent of the Associated Press in his cabin. The prince said:

"I desire to send a last word through you to America, to say how deeply grateful I am for the measureless kindness I received while I was there. I tried to say this before I left, but I want again to say that I am grateful for the cordial and generous manner in which the people and the president of the United States received me."

"I met and talked with as many individuals as I could, but, of course, I saw most of the people in crowds and sometimes only from the railroad car platform, and only long enough to touch my cap or take off my hat to them. I wish to thank all those thousands who came to see me. They took me to the heart of their hearts. I had no opportunity of studying the details of industry as I would like to have done."

"I often tried and had to be careful what I said, both publicly and privately, but since my long sleep on board the Deutschland I would be ready to return to America at once and not care for another trip. This one has been so full of pleasures and instruction. It is a good thing to look upon people face to face and form your own impressions."

Concerning his speech at Philadelphia Prince Henry said:

"It seemed proper I should make some statement to the people of America, who were so kind as to receive me. I have taken into account what I said in my Philadelphia speech was precisely the truth. It might have been thought that during my talk with President Roosevelt and my ride with him alone I might have said a word or two of a political character, but such was not the case. This political topic was referred to on either side."

Prince Henry referred to President Roosevelt's attentions, and said he had not received the president's farewell telegram as he was by that time at sea, and that he only saw the text of the message upon his arrival at Plymouth.

The interest Emperor William took in Prince Henry's trip was then mentioned. In this connection Prince Henry said to the correspondent:

"I shall tell you exactly what I have told you; namely, how I appreciate the kindness shown me by the people of America. I wish to add a special word of thanks for the sympathetic way in which the American papers treated me."

6000
Years Old

If we live in deeds, not years, then
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral must be 6000 years old!

For sixty years it has been curing all kinds of throat and lung troubles—from a slight tickling in the throat to the most desperate diseases of the lungs.

This is the way your doctor orders it:
One bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
Sig. Carefully follow directions on bottle.

Ask him how many patients he has cured with this prescription.
