

EVENING NEWS.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

It snowed at Park City on Monday. Three cases of drunkenness in the police court to-day.

And is the only ground for complaint pedestrians have at present.

Park City is now connected with Salt Lake by telephone.

The late repairs in the Logan and Hyde Park canal, says the Journal, cost about $800.

The Fourth Quorum and the families residing in the 21st Ward will meet this evening at 7.30 in the 21st Ward meeting-house.

Miss Ada Dwyer, of this city, is with the Glover Dramatic Combination which will play an engagement here shortly.

A number of missionaries, who were set apart yesterday, left for their fields of labor this morning. Others will leave on the 10th.

Langhorne, the first man who brought a regularly organized dramatic company to Salt Lake City, appears at the Theatre this week.

Another copious shower came down last night. The weather was unusually cool before, but the abundance of that, that bare of summer, is appreciated.

The store of F. Auerbach & Co. will be closed from Sunday on Wednesday evening, October 10th, until the same time on Thursday, the 11th. See advt.

Another house greeted the closing performance of the dramatic company last night. The success of the "Green Lanes" is hardly second to any play in the Club's repertoire.

The funeral services of Brother Henry Maiben will be conducted in the 11th Ward Chapel to-morrow (Wednesday) at 11 a.m. It was stated yesterday in error, that they would take place to-day.

There is a building boom in Paris, near Lake County, this year. From fifteen to twenty good, substantial houses have been going up simultaneously. The enterprise in this direction is unprecedented in the history of the place.

At the sanitary meeting held last Saturday evening at the City Hall, Dr. Stuart, Dr. Douglas, and Dr. Joseph B. Richards were the principal figures, the former two reading papers expressive of their views, and the latter addressing the meeting extempore. The meeting was adjourned to 7.30 p.m. next Saturday, when a lively time is anticipated.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Twentieth Ward Institute.—Pursuant to adjournment, the 20th Ward Institute will resume its meetings Thursday evening, 11th, at 7.30, at the usual place.

T. B. LEWIS, President.

Seventies Notice.—The 23d Quorum of Seventies and the Seventies residing in the 4th, 5th, 7th and 9th Wards will meet on Thursday, October 12th, 1883, at the 7th Ward meeting house, at 7 p.m. A full attendance is requested. By order of the Council.

ISAAC M. WADSWORTH, Clerk.

Special Request.—The old-time members of the Deseret Dramatic Association, with whom Brother Henry Maiben was so long and intimately associated, are especially requested by the relatives of the deceased, to attend the funeral services at the Eighteenth Ward Chapel to-morrow (Wednesday) at 11 a.m.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts of William Duger, a former resident of Polk County, Georgia, is wanted by John Gurley, Pankin P. O., building County, of that State. Mr. Duger left Polk County, and went to the war, at the close of which he joined a company of soldiers and came to Utah, and when he heard from was in Salt Lake City. Any one possessing the desired information will confer a great favor on Mr. Duger's relatives by sending it to the address given.

Regular and General.—To-morrow (Wednesday) evening, the regular monthly meeting of Zion's Benefit Building Society, will be held at the Blue Factory, beginning at 8 o'clock, from which hour until 7.30 o'clock, the most work of payment and receiving of monthly dues will be attended to.

Abstracts duly announced by the Secretary, a special meeting of the stockholders will be held at the hour last named (7.30), at which some additional by-laws framed and adopted by the Board will be presented to the stockholders for their action. It is desirable that the attendance should be full.

Laurel and His Company.—The Denver press bestows unanimous praise upon the performance of the "Man in a Mask" at the Tabor Grand Opera House in that city. The Tribune of Sept. 20th says, "Miss Lillian Langham is handsome and talented, and all old timers know Harry Richmond." The News says, "Miss Lillian Langham is handsome and a splendid actress. Richmond is good as ever, and Mr. Geo. Staley is the coming rival of J. K. Belmont. Mr. Fox was deservedly applauded, and the audience found the whole play intensely amusing and laughed at it almost continuously." This company appears at the Salt Lake Theatre next Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon.

Distinguished Party.—James W. Bentley, M. P., President, and Jas. O. General Manager of the Colorado Investment and Mortgage Company, of London, were in Salt Lake yesterday, the guests of Hon. John W. Young. They were accompanied by a party of other gentlemen and ladies, and chaperoned by their host, Hon. Brigham Young and A. M. Mumford, Esq. The company with which they are connected is wealthy and influential, having erected some of the principal buildings of Denver, among them the Windsor Hotel. It appears to us that there is room in this city for the erection of a first class hotel by a company such as this.

MISSIONARY FROM MISSISSIPPI.

AT LAMONI AMONG THE JOSEPHITES.

Elder Samuel D. Moore, of Payson, who returned this morning from a two years' absence in the Southern States, made a brief call at this office and reported his labors. He spent all of his time in the State of Mississippi, first in Jones county, in the southern part of the State, and afterwards was appointed to preside over the Mississippi Conference, when his duties took him through all the districts where the Elders are engaged. A report of the prospects are better in the northern section of the State, though in the south the brethren are actually at work. Brother Moore baptized several persons, traveled around considerably and assisted in compiling a brief history or record of the labors of the Elders in that State from the beginning. About 30 souls have embraced the Gospel there within the last two years. The feeling in many places was quite bitter, but while threatening were indulged in towards the Elders in some instances none of them have so far suffered from mob violence. On his way home he stopped a few days at Lamoni, Iowa, the headquarters of the Josephite Church, to visit some relatives residing there, and was very kindly treated by members of that body. He was offered the free use of a place of worship to preach in, but through appointments ahead was unable to accept the offer. Brother Moore states that it is the feeling among prominent members of the Josephite community that the two wings of the Church (as they term themselves and the Utah Saints) will eventually combine, through defection on one side or the other. Which one will take the initiative they do not say. It is reported that their President, Joseph Smith, claims to have seen in vision the union of the two branches, but declines to state which is destined to give way to the influence and teachings of the other. It is also said that Joseph Smith intends visiting Utah at an early day. The intimate acquaintance of Mr. Gurley, in the Kirilvand Temple some time ago, (the provocation of the Littlefield-Smith correspondence), were not regarded with any degree of admiration by the Lamoni community, some of whom told Brother Moore that the speaker was actuated by ambitious and personal motives in abusing the Utah "Mormons," but had not gained in prestige nor popularity by his epistolary and unprovoked assault.

We would remark "by way of addendum," that whatever may be the views of the Josephites and their leader in regard to the "coalition" of the two Churches, there is no doubt in the minds of the people of Utah as to which one of them will have to "give way."

History of Salt Lake City.—Part First of the History of Salt Lake City, by Edward W. Tullidge, Esq., has been placed upon our table. It is the design of the author to have each part contain a subject and a period. For instance, the present one embraces the period up to the Utah War, including a brief history of the Pioneers. Part Second will take in the Utah War and its decade, and Part Third the McKean period.

Part First, which is now out and for sale, will also appear one week hence in Tullidge's Quarterly. In its present form it is neatly covered, embellished with a fine steel plate engraving of the late President Brigham Young, in frontispiece, and contains 112 pages of reading matter written in the author's best style.

Mr. Tullidge desires to procure the names, date of arrival, and name of place of first location, of every man, woman and child who settled in any part of Utah at any time prior to December 31st, 1850, as well as the names of every child born in the Territory prior to that date. The are for publication in the appendix to be attached to the History when completed. The data desired should be briefly and accurately prepared and sent to Mr. Geo. A. Neasey, Box 672, Salt Lake City.
