PIONEER'S DAY.

WALLSBURG.

Early dawn the citizens were aroused from their slumbers by a salute repeated three times from the militia, directed by Gardner and Workman, and a display of a flag on the liberty pole at sun rise. The citizens met under the Bowery at 10 o'clock, on the firing of a salute. The meeting was called to order by the Marshal of the Day, James Duke, senr. Prayer by the Chaplain, Mathew Thompson. Music by the band, J. G. Timothy, the Orator of the Day, delivered quite a lengthy and spicy oration, giving an interesting account of the trials and struggles of the Saints in obtaining an asylum in the trackless wilds of the Far West.

Appropriate speeches and recitation from D. Bigelow, F. Kerby and Mathew Thompson. A good selection of toasts, sentiments and songs were offered by some of the company. The young folks went forth in the dance in the evening, and seemed to enjoy themselves very heartily. Peace and enjoyment prevailed throughout the whole proceedings. The Committee of Arrangements deserve a vote of thanks for their labors in arranging the programme and for their hospitality in trying to make everything cheerful and comfortable for all.

MEADOW, MILLARD COUNTY.

After the usual demonstrations the citizens assembled at the bowery; singing, prayer, oration, short speeches, reciting, etc., being in order till noon, when the Relief Society presented a well filled table with a free invitation for all to regale themselves, which was attended to with a will. In carrying out the programme we had for chaplain E. A. Beckstrand, orator of the day B. H. Bennett, captain of artillery James Duncan, marshal John Gull.

A juvenile dance in the afternoon and a free ball in the evening, and so we celebrated the entrance of the pioneers to these valleys. All passed off well, and is reckoned amongst the best of its kind in this place.

Committee of arrangements H. B. Bennett, James Fisher, James Duncan, John Gull, W. H. Stott, E. A. Beckstrand, and S. M. Smith. Yours truly, JOHN GULL.

SPRING CITY, SANPETE COUNTY.

At sunrise a salute was fired, at the same time the stars and stripes were hoisted and unfurled to the breeze. At half-past nine o'clock the Procession was formed at the bowery, in which Bishop F. Olsen and Judge J. A. J. led took the lead, after which came the Highpriests, Seventies, Elders, Priests and Deacons, next the Y. M. M. I. S., then the F. R. S., with banners, next the Y. L. M. I. S., with banners, then the different schools, with their respective teachers. The marshal of the day, R. Justesen, and the whole procession moved out in good order, marched through the principal street of the city and came back to the bowery, where they all were comfortably seated.

The meeting was called to order by the marshal of the day, the choir sang, and prayer was offered by the chaplain, Charles Hyde; song by the choir; the orator of the day, Hon. C. G. Larsen, gave an oration which was instructive and interesting both for old and young, and was listened to with marked attention. Mrs. Sarah Ellis, represented the Female Relief Society in a few spirited remarks, and Miss Sarah Ellen Justesen represented the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Society in a very pleasing manner. Master Wm. Kofford represented the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Society in a few timely remarks. The principal speakers of the day was Bishop F. Olsen, Judge Alfred, James Christensen, (returned missionary), and the whole was interspersed with songs, toasts and sentiments.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, the juveniles assembled at the meeting house for a dance, and on the public square there were foot races both by old and young.

At 8 o'clock in the evening, the older people assembled in the meeting house for a dance. No accidents occurred and nothing to disturb our peace.

The committee of arrangements were Bro. Joseph T. Ellis, Lauritz Larsen and John F. Alfred, also Sister Fanny Kofford, Elise Adler and Ane Molter, who all worked with a will in promoting good feeling.

J. P.

GEORGETOWN, BEAR LAKE.

The Twenty-fourth went off very pleasantly. At sunrise the Stars and Stripes were raised to the breeze; at 10 o'clock the people assembled under the bowery and spent the time until noon in speeches, songs, toasts, etc.; at half-past 12 we were all marched to the school-house, where tables were spread with the good things of the earth, of which all partook; after dinner the tables were cleared away, and the children spent the rest of the day in dancing and singing; the day's proceedings wound up with a grand ball in the evening. All seemed to enjoy themselves, and nothing occurred to mar the peace of the day.

TITUS.

GARDEN CITY, RICH COUNTY.

Firing of artillery at sunrise: Marion C. Thomas, marshal of the day; Byron H. Alfred, orator; Wm. H. Longhurst, chaplain.

The company assembled at the school-house at 9 a.m. The company was formed as follows, was led by the marshal of the day, followed by the Bishop and counselors, the Y. M. M. I. A., the Ladies' Relief Society and the Primary Association, and marched to Calder's Grove, on the lake shore, where the company was seated. A song was sung by the Garden City Glee Club; prayer by the chaplain; a song by the Glee Club; an oration by B. H. Alfred. The remainder of the morning was well spent and enjoyed by recitations and songs, toasts and sentiments; closed with singing and prayer.

Recess for half an hour, the company was then seated to partake of a sumptuous picnic; the remainder of the day was spent in various games and amusements. In the evening a dance was enjoyed. The day will long be remembered by many. No accident occurred; good feeling prevailed.

WILLIAM PEAD, Clerk.

ST. CHARLES.

The St. Charles Sunday School celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of the Pioneers in the new meeting-house. The programme for the occasion consisted of speeches, songs, recitations, select readings and dialogues, by the teachers and scholars of the school. The house was crowded, many were from other settlements in the State. I can assure you the feelings that the old man had, when he entered a fashionable church and was placed in a back seat without a cushion and without a book, was not here, and thus soliloquized, "There's no tellin' now-a-days, why it is the finest clothes oft gets the finest pew," etc.

The children spent the afternoon in dancing. The young men and the young ladies and a good many of the old folks met and enjoyed themselves in the social dance.

A. G.

PORTAGE.

At daybreak, Captain Thos. Davis and company fired a salute of 32 guns. At sunrise, the stars and stripes were unfurled to the breeze and another salute fired.

At half past 9 a.m., citizens assembled at President I. Allen's.

At 10 a.m. were formed in marching order by the marshal of the day, Thomas Davis. J. D. Jones' martial band; President I. Allen, chaplain; W. H. Anderson, orator; High Priests, Seventies, Elders, Sabbath School scholars, and citizens.

On reaching the meeting-house, music by the martial band. Called to order by the marshal. Music by J. D. Jones' cotillion band. Singing by choir; music by band. Prayer by the chaplain. Singing by choir. Music by band. Oration by Orator of the Day, Dr. W. H. Anderson, who gave us a short, spicy, interesting oration, for which, on motion of J. D. Jones, he received a vote of thanks; then followed toasts, etc. Music by band, singing by choir, prayer by chaplain. Then, after half an hour for the committee to set the table, we sat down to a table the full length of the house, which groaned beneath the load of bounties of the earth. After dinner, singing, foot races, singing and dancing until evening, when all adjourned. Reassembled at 8 p.m. and went forth in the dance to the enlivening music of J. D. Jones' cotillion band from Cherry Creek, Idaho, until 1 o'clock, when we dispersed to our respective homes. All was peace, joy and good times.
